Miss Wilson Bride Of C. Norman Gail At Home Ceremony

In a room lighted by tall white tapers, and with varied sizes of white chrysanthemums arranged in baskets, Mrs. Elmer Max Wilson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Wilson, became the bride of Charles Norman Gail of Roseburg, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Gail of Medford, at a ten o'clock wedding service Thursday, at which Reverend W. R. Baird, pastor of the First Christian church, officiated. The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride's parents, 7 Chestnut, with a few relatives and intimate friends as guests.

Proceeding the wedding ceremony, Carlton James played "Trauma" from Richard Wagner's opera "Tristan and Isolde," accompanied at the piano by Mrs. James.

To the strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March, played by Miss Gladys LaMarr, the bride descended the stairway on the arm of her father, who gave her in marriage. She was attired in a dress of peacock blue, completed in silver, and carried a shower bouquet of pink rosebuds. Her only attendant was Miss Laura Drury, who wore a brown dress stamped in gold, and carried a nosegay of tiny golden chrysanthemums bordered in gold paper.

George Charles Bateman acted as attendant for the groom.

A two-course wedding breakfast was served, following the ceremony with Mrs. Lila M. Haas of Pocatello, Idaho, cousin of the bride, and Mrs. Carlton James, pouring. Mrs. Gail cut the bride's cake, which formed the centerpiece on the table.

Misses Opal Harvey and Barbara Drury assisted Mrs. Wilson and the groom's mother, Mrs. Gail, about the rooms. Miss Harvey and Mrs. Gail wore black, while Miss Drury wore deep green and Mrs. Wilson, white.

Following the breakfast the couple left for San Francisco where they plan to remain for a week before going to Roseburg where they will be at home at 411 East Douglas street. Mrs. Gail wore a blue swag suit trimmed in seal for her going-away attire.

Miss Harvey caught the bride's bouquet.

Mrs. Gail, who has taken a prominent part in musical and social groups of the city, attended the University of Washington, where she was affiliated with Alpha Phi sorority. She has just completed three years with the Christian Science church here as soloist and has won much acclaim for her fine singing. She was graduated from Medford high school.

Mr. Gail attended the University of Montana, at Missoula and is now assistant manager of the Union Oil company in Roseburg.

Just before the wedding, the bride received a telegram of best wishes from her only brother, David Hilbert Wilson, and family of Ely, Minn.

Annual Carnival at Junior High School Interests Students

Paramount in the lives of the Medford Junior high school students is the carnival which takes place Friday, November 23. For three years the Junior high school has held successful carnivals, from the standpoint of financial, school spirit and extra-curricular activities.

This is the one occasion when every child has an opportunity to take part. The money cleared at the carnival is used for all school activities, such as debate, school letters, athletic, glee clubs, and other clubs and organizations.

Interest runs high over the three major activities of the carnival.

At class meetings this last week, the following were selected for the popularity contest: 9A, Rae LaFever, Don Herried; 9B, Catherine Conroy, Billy Holloway; 9A, Ruth Bantosh, Bob Walker; 9B, Barbara Doris, Burton Daugherty; 7A, Jaclyn Flynn, Rodney Stead; and 7B, Mary Frances Holloway, Billie Salade.

The Boys' and Girls' Glee clubs, the football boys, and the girls' dancing class are busily preparing a splendid program. At intervals during the program, the girls' league orchestra and the boys' harmonica band will play.

The school is a veritable beehive of committees, planning sidewalk and concessions.

A program lasting one hour is to be presented at 7:30, followed by the announcement of the popularity contest winner and the awarding of the prizes. Immediately after this the floor will be cleared and the booths and concessions opened.

Freida Heryford Is Bride, Mr. Fontaine

Miss Freida Heryford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Heryford of Butte Falls, was married last Sunday afternoon at a 4 o'clock service to William E. Fontaine of Tulsa, Okla., son of Mrs. W. R. Brady, also of that city. The Rev. Smith, pastor of the Butte Falls church, officiated at the ceremony, which was performed at the home of the bride's parents. Members of the family were present.

After the wedding, dinner was served by Mrs. Heryford.

The couple will reside in Medford.

Oregon State Club Meeting Tomorrow

Luncheons, Dinners Mark the Week at Popular Town Club

The Town club was a popular place during the past week for luncheons, dinners and bridge parties.

On Tuesday, which was ladies' day, a large number of the members enjoyed luncheon and bridge at the club. Wednesday evening the Badminton club had a dinner party with covers arranged for thirty.

Mrs. Shelby Tuttle was hostess at a bridge party on Thursday, and Friday evening a no-host dinner and bridge were enjoyed by a group of sixteen.

Numerous events are scheduled for this week, with Mrs. L. A. Salade, Sr. entertaining at a luncheon tomorrow.

Miss Beckett Wed In Eugene Tuesday

Of interest locally, is the announcement which appeared Thursday in the Eugene Press, announcing the marriage of Miss Ruth Beckett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Hoffman of this city, to James Clinton Smith, who was solemnized on November 6 in the First Christian church at Vancouver. A few friends and relatives attended the wedding.

"Nard Smith was best man for his brother and Mrs. Sidney Hoffman attended her sister-in-law. The couple is to live in Lodi, Calif. Mrs. Smith attended the university here for three years and Mr. Smith is a Stanford graduate."

Miss Ruth Koozer Bride in Portland Of Lester Wilson

At the First Christian church in Portland last Saturday morning Miss Ruth M. Koozer, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph E. Koozer of Medford, and Lester C. Wilson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Wilson of Coquille, were married at a ten o'clock service, with Reverend Wilson, pastor of the church, officiating. The ring ceremony being used.

"The bride was attired in a dress of spruce green oatmeal crepe, with white satin trim, and carried a shower bouquet of pink rosebuds, sweet peas and lilies of the valley. Her attendant, Mrs. M. E. Knickerbocker (Thelma Stone) of Sisters, Oregon, wore a corsage of rosebuds and sweet peas, and the bride's mother wore a corsage of gerberias.

Mr. Knickerbocker of Sisters attended the groom.

Some twenty friends and relatives of the couple were present at the wedding, including Mr. and Mrs. Claud Noles of Hillsboro, Mrs. Parish, Miss Doris Warnock, and Lyle Noles of Portland; Levi Wilson, brother of the groom, and several of his young friends from Coquille. Mrs. Harry Watson of Washington, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Kilson of Sisters, Ore., Mrs. Nellie Roberts and Miss Alice Roberts, and mother and father of the bride, all of Medford.

Following the ceremony, a noon wedding breakfast was held at the Heathman hotel, attended by members of the wedding party and guests, also Mrs. Merle Wilson of Coquille and Miss Elizabeth Swigart and R. E. Manning of Portland.

The wedding was the culmination of a romance starting at Oregon State college, where the bride was affiliated with Alpha Xi Delta and the groom with Theta Chi.

Mr. Wilson also attended the Southern Oregon Normal school at Ashland, later graduating from Albany Teachers' college. He is now instructor and assistant athletic director at Coquille high school. Mr. and Mrs. Wilson are now at home at 191 East Second street, in Coquille.

Miss Hurd Returns Here

Miss Thelma Hurd, who left a week ago for Portland, to visit Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Johnson, Jr., returned Friday morning from the north.

Miss Vera Humphreys and Mrs. Florence McElhoo will also assist in the program. As the program is to be rather unique an enjoyable evening is promised all who attend. Anyone desiring transportation, are requested to telephone Mrs. H. M. Weishaar at 1923-B.

Program Presented At Reames Chapter

Reames chapter No. 68, O. E. S., enjoyed a delightful evening of entertainment furnished by the officers of this year.

Mrs. Maurine Duncan sang two numbers and Mrs. C. I. Drummond played two violin selections.

Miss Ethel Houston and Janice Shreve gave readings, and vocal duets were sung by Mrs. Duncan and Mrs. Wm. McAllister.

After the program refreshments were served. The next meeting, on November 28, is to be an interesting evening, as it is to be election, initiation and a social, in honor of the past matrons and past patrons of Reames chapter.

Silver Wedding Of The Henry Congers Observed at Dinner

On last Sunday, Armistice day, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Conger observed their silver wedding anniversary, being guests of honor at a dinner given at the L. Niedermeyer home. Chrysanthemums and roses formed the decorations.

Mrs. Niedermeyer was presented a lovely corsage of rosebuds. The dinner was served from a buffet, to the thirty-one guests seated at the attractively decorated table, arranged by their niece, Miss Erna Niedermeyer.

L. Niedermeyer introduced the honor guests, after which a gift, in keeping with their twenty-fifth anniversary, was presented Mr. and Mrs. Conger. Mrs. Otto Niedermeyer read an original appropriate poem, and Mrs. Chester Wendt sang "The Sweetest Story Ever Told."

Of particular interest in connection with the anniversary party was the fact that the wedding had occurred in the same room 25 years previously with the same persons as guests. At that time there were 10 members of the Niedermeyer family and now there are 31, all of whom were present last Sunday.
