MOTORIST KILLS MOTHER, CHILD

News Behind The News By PAUL MALLON (Copyright, 1934, by Paul Mallon) WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 19.—Co-ordinator Richberg has a book on his desk about two inches high. It lists the things he must co-ordinate within the new deal. How he got a very thing into one book is something he will have to explain. It must be only the first volume. At any rate, he locked the door the other day, pulled down the shades and started in co-ordinating. He must have started at the back of the book, for the first thing selected was one which looked easy—the re-establishment of brotherly love between the NRA and the federal trade commission. Those two outfits have been having it hot and heavy on the inside about steel statistics. The trade commission has been demanding inside facts and figures from the Iron and Steel Institute. The commission needs the data in its study of the basing point system of fixing steel prices. But the Iron and Steel Institute is under the NRA. It pretentively obtained the protection of the NRA in denying the data to the federal trade commission, leaving the two government bureaus to fight it out. Mr. Richberg took his sharpest pen in hand and wrote to the federal trade commission. He said, in effect, he thought the commission should use the case to warn out of its NRA code and implied that the federal trade commission was going outside its field. He admitted that he had no jurisdiction over the federal trade commission, because it is an independent commission. Also he added a sentence suggesting that no talking be done about the matter. Of course, there has been no talking, except by a few hundred people, and then only in stage whispers, which will be heard around the world. Also, the commission has decided to stand pat on its demands, which leaves matters just where they were before Mr. Richberg started. That will give you a slight idea of what this co-ordinating job is like and how much fun it is going to be when Mr. Richberg gets around to some of the hard cases. Before it is over, Mr. Richberg will use his pen for jabbing, instead of writing up then the campaign to mold the far-fung new deal into a harmonious unit will undoubtedly become a question of the survival of the fittest. The mystery of what is going to happen to Professor Thurgwell has not yet been decided by the new deal mystery settlers. The way things are going now, he may become a big liaison man between George Peck and Agriculture Secretary Wallace for the colossal, if not impossible, task of promoting foreign agriculture in the markets. Such a job is one of the most difficult cases have been accomplished before in the new deal. Having tried everything else on the Japanese, without success, the United States diplomats are now turning Navy Secretary Swanson loose on them. The program started when an anonymous American voice was heard in the press dispatches from London recently shouting that we would outbuild the Japanese if they ditched existing naval treaties. The cloak of anonymity was rather thin, as nearly everyone recognized Admiral William Standley. At least "the Japanese did." Mr. Swanson almost immediately suggested that the navy might want the Macon, out to Hawaii to determine its "war qualities." Then Swanson made an announcement indicating we could outbuild Japan's navy by 50 per cent, contemplating improvements at Pearl Harbor, Hawaii, permitting easy "ingress and egress of warships" concerning contracts for three new aircraft carriers at Hawaii and threatening construction of a new 2,500,000-squid-foot dirigible. There is nothing subtle about Mr. Swanson. The politicians around here have heard some wild tales about the ambitions of Upton Sinclair. They wish they knew whether the reports were true. Their hope is that Sinclair has dropped the California gubernatorial campaign and is planning a presidential campaign for 1936. They say he did not care to be governor of California and was only writing another book when he published "I, Governor of California." For that reason they believe he will not push his promised recall campaign against

MACHINE PLOWS INTO GROUP ON STREET CORNER

Portland Traffic Deaths Continue to Mount — Driver Had Been Drinking Say Police — High Bail Set

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 19.—(AP)—A woman and her child lay dead today and an automobile driver was held in the county jail on a manslaughter charge as Portland's traffic accident fatalities continued to mount at an alarming rate. The man under arrest was William B. Stout, 30, a nurse at the federal transient bureau in Vancouver, Wash. Stout was charged today with involuntary manslaughter and his bail was set at $10,000. Police said his automobile plowed into a group of three persons at a street intersection last night. They said Stout had been drinking. The dead: Mrs. Richard G. Burkhardt, 35, her daughter, Ebon, nine years old. A sister of Mrs. Burkhardt was injured. Accident investigators declared that Stout did not stop after the crash, but continued on at high speed, only to ram another car head-on. The driver of this car and Stout were badly cut and bruised. Mrs. Burkhardt and her daughter died this morning. The deaths sent the city's fatal accident toll for the police year to 79.

TWO WOMEN HURT IN TRIPLE SMASH SUNDAY MORNING

Two women were suffering today from slight injuries and two men were awaiting further court action, after charges of reckless driving as the result of a peculiar accident at 12:01 Sunday morning on South Riverdale, in which three cars were badly damaged. The injured are Kathleen Carpenter, 14, of Phoenix, who received cuts and bruises, and Mrs. Percy Hayes Peck of 1220 East Jackson street, who received probable back injuries. Mrs. Peck's husband, aged 41, was arraigned in justice court this morning on charges of reckless driving and his case was continued until Tuesday morning, when it is thought his wife can appear. James Orbin Cooksey of Camp Witham was arrested at the scene of the accident on charges of reckless driving, having allegedly speeded through the wreck zone. He pleaded not guilty when arraigned this morning, and trial is set for 10 a. m. Tuesday. The accident, which was investigated by both state and city police, occurred at the end of South Riverdale avenue, when Peck, who was driving a truck toward Medford, allegedly struck an auto being driven south by Forrest Harrison, 19, of route 2. Officers stated a wheel was knocked off Peck's truck by the first collision and his vehicle struck a second car traveling behind Harrison, and being driven by Earl R. Maurer of 324 South Riverdale. According to testimony at this morning's hearing, Peck was driving in the center of the highway and struck the two approaching autos as they were traveling west on their own side of the road. All three cars were smashed to considerable extent. Maurer and Harrison's receiving the worst of the double smash. Mrs. Peck was thrown clear of the truck after it had hit the second car, which was traveling about 40 feet behind Harrison's car, according to officers. Miss Carpenter was a passenger in the auto

CLOSE STORES FOR FOOTBALL GAME

A movement was launched today by some of Medford's business men to have all the merchants of the city close their stores Saturday afternoon from a quarter of two until four, so as to boost the attendance at the Medford-Hood River football game. This is the crucial game of the season for the team, and as a cash guarantee of $500 has been made to get this post-season contest, a record-breaking crowd is imperative, not only to assure proper support for the high school team, but to prevent serious financial loss to the school. It is recognized that Saturday is an important shopping day, but it is the belief of those supporting this plan that to close the stores for this brief period will work no real hardship on business and will do more than anything else to insure the complete success of this important community event. The suggestion, thus far, has met with enthusiastic approval. Medford has always enjoyed an enviable reputation throughout the state for its civic loyalty and the support it has given its outstanding football team. It is believed that this year will be no exception. All merchants are urged, when called upon tomorrow, to enter into the spirit of the occasion and show their enthusiasm for, and loyalty to the Medford high school team, by declaring a business holiday during the two hours in which this game will be played.

REVENUE AGENT DESTROYS BEER

A representative of the internal revenue department this afternoon witnessed the destruction of 476 barrels of beer from the vats at the brewery on North Fir street, and 21 half-barrels, all ready kegged. The beer destroyed was some made at the Pilsener brewery here, and according to the revenue agent, there remains about eight more vats, containing 1350 barrels of beer, yet to be destroyed. The agent said the beer had been made from bad yeast, and it was necessary for him to witness the destruction, as the brewery is charged for the beer under the internal revenue act. Since the local stockholders gained control of the local brewery from the Pilsener company, none of the stock on hand has been used, according to Ted GoBauer, manager. The brewery is now selling Rogue Lager beer. Harrison was driving. Cooksey's auto did not figure in the accident, officers said. Maurer signed the complaint against Peck. In another case brought before justice court this morning, Orme D. Welch, 38, a local machinist and electrician, pleaded not guilty to charges of driving while intoxicated, and will appear for trial at 9:30 a. m. Tuesday. He was arrested by state police at 1:15 a. m. Sunday on East Main street. According to city police reports, another accident which occurred at 4:30 p. m. Saturday on Midway road, Roy Criswell, 42, of Midway road, received hand and wrist cuts. His car skidded off the highway and turned over in a ditch.

GAELS WIN, 7 TO 0, OVER BRONCOS ON RAINY DAY BREAK

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 19.—(AP)—All was sunshine and roses for the Gaelling Gaels of St. Mary's college today because of rain-soaked breaks which gave them a 7-0 victory over their traditional rivals, the Santa Clara Broncos. The Gaels, rated as underdogs for the first time in years against their nearest foe, played deliberately for the breaks and driving rain and a quagmire field allowed down both teams at Kezar stadium here yesterday. St. Mary's finally drew the winning nobby in the third period when, Bronco Santa Clara half, attempted to punt after receiving a wobbly pass from center, behind his own goal line. The slippery ball slid off Bronco's toe and Penning, Gael left end, fell on it for a touchdown. Keillog, Gael fullback, converted. It was a bitter defeat for the Broncos, who had hoped to win their first "little big game" since 1923. They outplayed and outgained the Gaels while the 80,000 spectators who braved the storm cheered them on.

TWO WOUNDED IN BEER HALL FIGHT

LAFAYETTE, Ore., Nov. 19.—(UP)—Two persons were wounded and four arrested in a beer hall fight Sunday. A gun brought into play by City Marshal John Rainey wounded Cid Allen, 31, and his brother Wayne, 25, both of Dayton. Rainey had been called to the tavern to quell the doer, said to have started when the proprietor objected to conduct of the Alena and their four companions. Rainey said he opened fire only after he had been fired by a black-jack which Wayne Allen had wrested from him.

OREGON GRANGERS SEEK CONVENTION

HARTFORD, Conn., Nov. 19.—(AP)—The National Grange selected California as the site for its 1935 convention today as it settled down to dispose of a mass of business after six days devoted principally to ritual and preliminaries. Two ballots were required, with California getting 28 votes, four short of the necessary majority on the first ballot and 38 on the second. Many invitations for the 1934 and subsequent conventions were received. Oregon, through Ray W. Gill of Portland, invited the organization to meet in that state in 1937. Following its usual policy, the Grange merely designated the state for its 1935 meeting, leaving it to the executive committee to select the city.

"In a few months," said the budget reporter, "Germany will be stronger on the land than in 1914."

REASSURING WORD VOICED BY F. R. ON GEORGIA ARRIVAL

All Is Well and New Deal Progressing Says President — "We Are Coming Back" Confident Assertion

By Francis M. Stephenson WARM SPRINGS, Ga., Nov. 19.—(AP)—President Roosevelt, with the pronouncement that "all is well" and that the New Deal is progressing in its present program, particularly for cheaper power, settled down at his "other home" today for a Thanksgiving visit. Traveling across the southland after an inspection of the Tennessee valley power and land utilization program, Mr. Roosevelt said yesterday in two significant talks that the New Deal is permanent, and called for cooperation from the "obstructionists few in number." He expressed confidence that "we are coming back." Cheaper Power Aim The experiment for cheap power and human rehabilitation in the Tennessee valley, he said, "is going to be copied in every state in the union before we get through." This was interpreted to mean that Mr. Roosevelt, in his talk at Tupelo, Miss., endorsed municipal power plants such as exists there, and gave an ultimatum to private power companies to cooperate for cheaper rates. The president asserted a "deep seated belief" that "the people of this nation understand what we are trying to do, are cooperating with what we are trying to do and have made up their minds that we are going to do it." Extemporaneous Talk His frank talk at Tupelo, before a crowd of eager folk assembled on the hillside, was extemporaneous. By chance, his words were taken down by a stenographer, and Mr. Roosevelt authorized publication of this report without change. "Today," he said, "I see not only hope but I see determination—know-

SYD BROWN SPENT $47 IN CAMPAIGN

Syd I. Brown, successful democratic candidate for sheriff at the general election, spent $47.50 in his campaign, according to a statement of expenses filed with the county clerk. All the candidates in the last election, with the exception of Ed Holtenbeck of Prospect, republican candidate for constable for the Medford district, have filed their expense statements. The final date for filing is November 21.

ROSEBURG, Ore., Nov. 19.—(UP)—A sentence of one year in the state penitentiary was imposed in the circuit court today on George Manning, a transient, who entered a plea of guilty to a charge of burglary. Manning was arrested by city officers, who reported that he was in possession of loot taken Friday night in a burglary at the Al Stevens home in Roseburg. Nick Bosko, Seattle, arrested by state police for illegal possession and transportation of alcohol, was fined $400 and sentenced to six months in the county jail.

THREE NEGROES HELD IN SLAYING OF TWO GIRLS

CLIFTON FORGE, Va., Nov. 19.—(AP)—The bodies of two young girls, their skulls crushed by heavy blows, were found in woods near here early this morning by a searching party and shortly afterwards authorities arrested three negroes and rushed them to Roanoke for safe keeping. The two white children, Alice E. Hill, 13, and Ellen Hill, 9, had been missing since Sunday night after they had visited the farm on which one of the arrested negroes lived. The negroes arrested were Philip Jones, 25, Chester Smith, Jr., about 30, and Jones' wife, Commonweath's Attorney M. J. Putnam, stated that he had a confession from Jones that he killed the children, and that in the alleged confession Jones sought to implicate Smith. Smith, however, denied any part in the crime. Coroner Louis A. Houff, said the girls, children of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Hill, of Clifton Forge, died of fractured skulls. He said the older girl had been assaulted. The coroner said a shotgun, the stock broken and bearing bloodstains, was found under the Jones home. He said the younger child had evidently been killed first, and that the two had been dead for about 1 1/2 hours at the time the bodies, bound together with fender twine, were found about 100 yards from the Jones dwelling.

Sauerkraut Treat Will Be Provided People On Relief

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—(AP)—Sauerkraut is to be added to the diet of families on relief rolls in a number of states. Disclosing the purchase by the federal surplus relief corporation of 25,000 tons of surplus cabbage in New York state, relief officials expressed the hope that much of the cabbage would be made into sauerkraut by state relief administrations. "They want the product to pep up the winter diet of some of the relief families instead of it all being consumed at once."

PIERCE ADMITS STEALING $4000 AT CENTRAL PT.

Drury Francis Pierce, Central Point farmhand, indicted by the last grand jury, on a charge of grand larceny, entered a plea of guilty this morning in circuit court. Sentence will be imposed Wednesday morning. Pierce was charged with the theft of $4000 from his mother-in-law, Mrs. Margaret Lange. The money was hidden in a "root house." Pierce allegedly found the money, and re-hid it under the barn floor. Pierce in entering his plea of guilty said it was "with the understanding that I be allowed to make a statement before sentence is passed." Pierce was represented by Attorney Joseph P. Feigel. A continuance was granted in the sentencing of Milton Merithew, 60, found guilty by a circuit court jury of a statutory offense involving a minor girl of the Evans Creek district. The jury, in its verdict, recommended leniency. The court directed the district attorney's office to make an investigation. District Attorney Coddling informed the court it would require "two or three more days." The court said "there are two or three points upon which I desire more light." Merithew was represented by Attorney Enright, who intimated that an appeal might be taken, because of the court order excluding the public from the courtroom during the trial.

Blaze Destroys Drury Garage

City fire department was called to the Allen B. Drury residence, 1013 South Oakdale avenue, at 12:05 this noon to extinguish a fire which destroyed the garage there. The building was almost completely burned when the firemen arrived, the department reported. Chief Roy Elliott said the fire probably started in a card board box of ashes in the garage. A justice of the peace court conviction for drunken driving, also stands against Enright, and the sentence of the higher court was the minimum for a second violation. The jail sentence was suspended in the justice court conviction. At the expiration of the eight days stay of execution, unless the offer has been accepted, an order of commitment to the county jail will be issued the district attorney said.

WILL ROGERS SAYS: BEVERLY HILLS, Cal., Nov. 17.—Huey Long hung one on me. He stopped me. He asked me for $1000 for his legal opinion. He could have stopped me for 50 just as easy but I am sending him my note for a thousand for according to his own law of Louisiana he can't collect it anyhow. Minnesota, from what we can all hear, is the best team east of any mountains and if professional jealousy among their own conference don't stop 'em they should be in the Rose Bowl New Year's but if they don't I am pulling for Huey's kindergarten. Stanford will play 'em and we will have Sinclair debate Huey between halves and Sister Aimee and myself will referee the debate.

90-DAY JAIL TERM $100 FINE METED ATTORNEY ENRIGHT

Court Grants Eight-Day Stay of Execution for Man Convicted of Drunken Driving — New Trial Is Denied

A sentence of 90 days in the county jail, and a fine of $100, with a stay of execution for eight days, was imposed upon Attorney Thomas J. Enright this morning by Circuit Judge H. D. Norton, for conviction of driving an auto while intoxicated. Before imposing sentence the court denied a motion filed by Enright for a new trial. The motion was based upon the constitutionality of the Oregon ten-man jury verdict law, and the claim by the defendant that after his arrest, he was examined by Dr. W. W. Holt at the request of the state police. Enright contended this examination a defendant giving evidence against himself contrary to the constitution. Verdict Unanimous The court in denying the motion said that the jury's verdict had been unanimous, and that the second contention applied only in federal courts. The court in passing sentence said, "the court will not permit personal acquaintance to interfere with duty," and that "no concession would be granted a member of the bar, from whom a higher observance of the law should be expected, than the layman."

Attorney F. E. Kelly, in behalf of Enright, said, "the offer of the court has been very liberal," and suggested that Enright be given "some slight extension for the cleaning up of his local affairs." The court held that only 20 days from the time of conviction—November 7—would be granted, the same as in all other cases, where sentence was suspended, when defendants agreed to depart from this state. Idaho Move Suggested The offer was that Enright resign from the Southern Oregon Bar association, and it was suggested that he move to Idaho, where he has a license to practice law. Enright asked until January 1 to comply. The request was denied.

At that time, District Attorney Carl Helm will submit the case against Dan Bowman of Mission, charged with second degree murder of Fred Lampkin, Pendleton publisher, to the inquestorial body.
