The debt limitations or restrictions contained in or provided by the Charter of said City or any amendment thereof limiting or restricting the total indebtedness of the said City may incur or any provision of said Charter or amendment of said Charter regulating the issuance or sale of bonds shall not apply to the bonds hereby authorized or the indebtedness created by the issuance of such bonds.

Sec. 5. The proceeds from the sale of such bonds shall be placed by the City Treasurer in a special fund to be known as the "Medford Sewage Disposal Construction Fund," and shall be used for no other purpose than constructing and providing for said City a sewage plant and facilities for the disposal and treatment of sewage and to acquire easements, rights of way, real and personal property, and equipment therefor, and for legal and engineering expense in connection therewith.

Sec. 6. The City of Medford may pay monthly into the said sinking fund such amount as the Council shall determine reasonable in compensation for services and facilities afforded and benefits received by said City from said sewage disposal plant for municipal uses and purposes.

Sec. 7. The Council is hereby authorized to adopt plans and specification for such sewage disposal plant and to estimate the cost of such plant and to enter into such contracts as shall be necessary and proper to construct such plant and to do any and all acts and things necessary or requisite to be done to that end and to order the cost and expenses thereof to be paid from the said construction fund.

LIVING CORPSE IS DIFFICULT DRAMA

ASHLAND, Nov. 22.—(Spl.) "I have found the part of Fedya in 'The Living Corpse,' the greatest dramatic challenge I have ever had," said Prof. Angus L. Bowmer, when asked about his part in the play which he and Mrs. Bowmer are directing.

"Tolstoy was such a student of human nature that each of his characters show a subtlety in personality that changes the aspect of the part every time the characterization is repeated by the actor," he continued.

This will be the ninth production of Mr. Bowmer in this city.

He stated this production is also the most difficult play from the technical standpoint they have attempted in Ashland. There are more scenes and as many actual changes of costumes as in the difficult "Andrew Jackson," written by Mr. Bowmer.

Tolstoy's play will be presented at the Southern Oregon Normal school auditorium on Friday and Saturday nights of this week.
