ASHLAND LEGION WILL GIVE AGED 'MELLO-DRAMMER'

On Thanksgiving night the Ashland post of the American Legion will present the great "mello-dramma," "Ten Nights in a Bar Room," at the Ashland armory. The performance, staged together with a variety show, will start at 8 o'clock and will last until midnight. The proceeds will go for the benefit of the Ashland Kilty band.

"Ten Nights in a Bar Room" was an outstanding success in the late '20s and early '30s and has seen a revival throughout the country during the last two years. The presentation will show the contrast between the play witnessed by the present generation's grandfathers and the today's run of murder and sex productions.

The play is being directed and played by an all-star cast of Ashland people, who will also take part in vaudeville entertainment interspersed among the acts. Impersonations will be made of such celebrities as Mae West, Graham McNamee and Ed Wynn, the Fire Chief, A. Singing Waters' quartet will offer numbers, and a comedy fan dance will be presented.

Ashland armory will be converted into an old-time music hall for the occasion. The floor will be covered with sawdust, and wooden tables, lighted by candles, will be arranged facing the stage, so that the audience will have an unobstructed view of the vaudeville numbers, and will be able to take part in them as they mix with the crowd.

The price of admission, 60 cents, also entitles one to table reservations. Tickets may be obtained at the Toggery in Medford, and at the Ashland armory on Thanksgiving night.

Committee in charge of the entertainment are as follows: Professor I. E. Vining and Henry Enders, play directors; William Grenbemer, properties; A. Clifton Piles, publicity; Paul McDonald, business manager; Paul Taylor, refreshments; Ed Dunn, advertising; Dr. R. L. Burdick, singing; Violet Whittle, vaudeville.

William Briggs and Owen Silver, commander of the Ashland post, will be supervisors of all committees.

Communications

Favors Rogers' Suggestion.

To the Editor: I believe the enclosure should be taken seriously and that both the daily and weekly publications of Medford should do their part to put this present before our small public here in the valley.

It could be done through the co-operation of the American Legion and Veterans of Foreign Wars. The D. A. R.'s or any other group who might wish to contribute to a successful portrayal of this epochal event, "The Making of the Constitution." It could be given at the high school in case the Holly theater could not be obtained without charge for such a patriotic purpose. A small charge, not over 25 cents—might be asked, to add to the funds of the Community Chest or to meet the ever present needs of local charity.

There is so much that is alien and subversive at work purposefully in our nation today that I believe all Americans, however antipodal their political convictions may be, should unite in defense of the ancient faith in behalf of the common good.

ARIEL BURTON POMEROY.
November 23.

The enclosure follows: Beverly Hills, Nov. 20.—Well, sir, here is something I would like to see all your cities and towns do. The L. A. Bar association put on a pageant called "The Making of the Constitution." (They say it was originated in Kansas City.) Well, it's a great thing, it shows Benjamin Franklin, Washington, Madison, Hamilton and all those old "rope wig" fighting during the making of our constitution. Young as well as old will profit by it and really enjoy it. Write and get your information from the L. A. Bar association. You can put it on for some good charity or free admission. I am not press agent for any bar association, I just saw it and it was great and it's a great thing to do at this time. It's not expensive to put on. Just the renting of the costumes is all. Do this and you will thank me some day. Yours, Will Rogers.

Support is Appreciated.

To the Editor: The defeat of the Orange power bill at the election on November 6 is a convincing proof that the people of Oregon approve your stand against increased indebtedness. The substantial majority is a testimonial not only to the influence of your newspaper but to the sound commonsense of Oregon voters.

The nightmare of an enormous increase of public debt has been banished, at least temporarily, and the interest of taxpayers and more than 40,000 Oregon investors safeguarded. In their behalf permit me to congratulate you upon your sound judgment and express appreciation of your efforts for good government.

The Suttons adored Parades

Jane and Horace enjoyed a good parade

ing goodness of flavor," wrathfully spoke Horace. "The Penwicks always serve Hills Bros. Coffee. They say it has unvarying flavor-perfection. I'm bringing home some tonight!" He did. Jane sipped her first steaming cup, uttered "Ah-h" soulfully, filled with delight. Now Jane depends entirely on the circus for parades, and on Hills Bros. for constant coffee delight.

JANE SUTTON adored parades. Horace Sutton liked them too—but not the kind Jane liked. That sounds complicated. It isn't. Jane had a regular parade of different brands of coffee marching across the dining table—new one each week. "It's fun to change," said Jane. "It'd be more fun to have unchang-
