

CAVALRYWOMEN TRAIN FOR EMERGENCY SERVICE

Ninety-five women of the Santa Monica, Cal., bay region have organized a feminine cavalry patrol known as the "Fourth Squadron" for possible duty in time of need. (Associated Press Photo)

CHINESE DEFENDER OF SHANGHAI HAILED BY COLONY

The party of General Toai Ting Kai, the man who held off the Japanese army during the siege of Shanghai, moving through the congested streets of San Francisco's Chinatown where he was greeted by 7,000 countrymen. It was the greatest reception ever accorded a visit to the quarters.

JUNE FORGETS—BUT NOT THE LAW

Little June Robles (shown at her school desk, right), kidnaped from her Tucson, Ariz., home last April, has all but forgotten the harrowing incident, but the federal authorities haven't. They are prosecuting Oscar H. Robson (inset, left) on charges of extortion. He is the father of two children, Bobby, 9, and Betty, 7, (upper right) and a view of his Tucson home is shown (left). (Associated Press Photos)

FILIPINO FAMILIES MADE HOMELESS

This is a typical scene of the plight thousands of Filipino families were in after a 97-mile typhoon struck Manila and central Luzon. The bamboo-thatched huts were toppled over and wrecked. (Associated Press Photo)

BEAVER-TRIMMED ENSEMBLE --- AND A HAT A LA RUSS

One of this fall's favorite versions of the smart suit is shown at left—a luxurious fall ensemble lavishly trimmed with beaver, the three-quarter length coat matching a brown wool dress. At right, Grace Bradley of the films wears a turban of beige wool, trimmed in sable, with more than a hint of Russia about it. (Associated Press Photos)

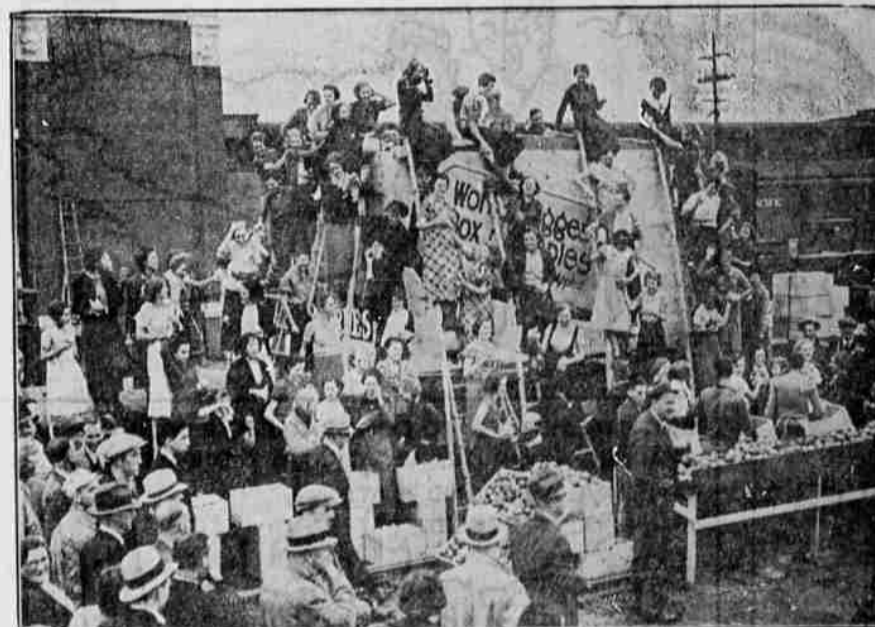

Among the 10,000 men and women attending funeral services for the five Kelayres, Pa., miners slain from ambush during an election-day parade were leaders of the democratic party in Pennsylvania. Shown here, left to right, as they prepared to march in the procession are Senator-Elect Joseph Guffey; Gov.-Elect George H. Earle, and David Lawrence, state democratic chairman. (Associated Press Photo)

RICKENBACKER STREAKS ACROSS CONTINENT

Taking off from the Burbank, Cal., airport, Capt. Eddie Rickenbacker started a one-stop flight to New York in an effort to establish a new coast-to-coast record for air transports. He hoped to break his own record of 13 hours and two minutes. Passengers were aboard. (Associated Press Photo)

WORLD'S LARGEST APPLE BOX SHIPPED TO EAST

This is how the world's largest apple box was packed for shipment. Each of the 75,760 apples that went into the box which was prepared by the apple industry of Yakima valley was individually hand wrapped. Seven expert packers and two supervisors worked 30 hours to fill the box which was shipped from Yakima, Wash., to Detroit, Mich. (Associated Press Photo)

New Legion Chief

Delegates to the national convention of the American Legion at Miami chose Frank Belgrano, San Francisco banker, to head their organization as commander for the coming year. (Associated Press Photo)

Saves Life of Pal

Paul Nielson, 16, (above) steward's assistant aboard the motor liner Amerika, arrived in San Francisco as a hero. He dived into the ocean off Guatemala and saved his cabin mate, Knute Grundahl, 14, who had jumped overboard into a school of sharks.

The latest word in small fighting ships, the U.S.S. Worden was launched from the Puget Sound, Wash., navy yard building dock amid traditional ceremonies. The newest destroyer of the navy is the third of the name to serve in the fleet. It is shown floating free after the scagates of the dock had been opened. (Associated Press Photo)

Student Murdered

Laurence L. Lyon, graduate of Yale and medical student at Southern California, was shot and fatally wounded by bandits in Los Angeles. Two negroes were held for the crime. (Associated Press Photo)

South Sea Styles Adapted To Desert

Paulette Goddard, motion picture actress, whose name has been romantically linked with that of Charles Chaplin, wearing the slightly American version of the native costume of Tahiti at Palm Springs, Cal. (Associated Press Photo)

Surrender To Police

Ben Greengrass (left) and Jack Kirschner (right) charged with the murder of Sam Daugherty in San Francisco a year ago walked into the hall of justice and surrendered. Daugherty had registered in a San Francisco hotel under the name of Howard Courtland of Reno, Nev., with his wife, daughter and father-in-law several days before his body was found on a highway south of the city. (Associated Press Photo)

Accepts New Job

Dr. Willard E. Givens has resigned as superintendent of the Oakland, Cal., schools to become secretary of the National Education Association. (Associated Press Photo)

SEATTLE GIRL IN THE MOVIES NOW

Nineteen-year old Faye Hammar arrived in Hollywood and was given a role in a motion picture as a result of winning a beauty contest in the Pacific Northwest. (Associated Press Photo)