Now at Studio

NOW AT STUDIO—ONE COL. HD
"The Girl From Missouri," starring Jean Harlow and Franchot Tone, comes to the Studio theater today.
Miss Harlow essays one of her most amusing characterizations, that of Eddie Chapman, a girl who embarks upon a social-climbing career because she is determined to get financial security and position along with her marriage ring.
The picture fits with lightning rapidity from awfully penthouses of New York's ragged skyline to the pleasure palaces of Florida and back again.

Helen Hayes Film at Craterian

An exceptional program is being offered Medford theatergoers at the Craterian theater for three days starting today where Helen Hayes in "What Every Woman Knows" is being shown with a two-reel musical, "La Cucaracha," on the same program.
For those who are seeking valuable entertainment qualities, the film version of Sir James Barrie's famous play should prove a revelation—particularly as it has the same star, Miss Hayes, in the role she made such a hit on the stage. Its romance is new and refreshingly unique. There is a heart throb in its love interest and a delightful human touch is said to characterize the drama, while the comedy, of which there is an abundant amount, is said to sparkle with spontaneity.
The story shows Helen Hayes married to Brian Aberne, a marriage arranged by her family; Aberne to marry the girl, and the family to arrange for the completion of his education. It is this surprising situation that makes for a great deal of the comedy situations. The wife, however, pushes on the husband to success and a seat in parliament, only to have his head turned by his egotism that makes him believe he alone is responsible for his success. How she brings him back to his senses and makes him realize his wife's great love, forms the fitting climax to what is said to be one of the year's ten best pictures.

Mrs. Nichol Recovering—Mrs. Said Nichol of 510 South Grace street, who underwent a major operation at the Community hospital Tuesday, is expected along as well as is her sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Breedlove.

Comedy, Mystery at Rialto

Combining comedy, tense drama and melodrama, "Their Big Moment," co-starring Zasu Pitts and Slim Summerville, at the Rialto theater today and Monday, is said to offer something far off the beaten path in screen entertainment.
"Their Big Moment" is the story of a vaudeville magician and his two assistants who solve a murder mystery and bring the culprits to bay by contacting the spirit world. Zasu Pitts and Slim Summerville, who are co-starred in this comedy-melodrama, are seen as the magician's assistants, and it is the psychic power of the woman that reaches beyond the realm of the physical to bring consterna-

"Death Takes A Holiday"

The photoplay which must be included on anyone's list of the ten best pictures of 1934 opens today at the Roxy theater.
It is "Death Takes a Holiday," starring Fredric March, Gail Patrick and Evelyn Venable.

tion down upon the heads of the criminals.
Supporting the two stars, Julie Haydon portrays the beautiful widow around whom the plot revolves, and Ralph Morgan has the role of a scheming physician. William Gaxton plays the magician, and Bruce Cabot, Kay Johnson, Tamara Geva, J. Huntley Gordon and Edward Brady.
