again depending upon those considered "reactionary" by his own men, since the army is not fundamentally a political organization.

Discontent has been rumored in ranks of the parli storm troops, whose leaders were summarily executed during the "purge."

Cupid Takes Holiday—It was learned the measure is being enforced so rigorously that all marriages of army men, or police, irrespective of their rank, have been postponed. Christmas is a popular wedding time for military men in Germany.

ROME, Nov. 27.—(AP)—Concern was expressed by political observers today over reports of a near state of emergency in Germany.

Coming at a moment when the international situation is so delicate, due in part to Yugoslav charges of Hungarian complicity in the Marseille assassinations, the development was received with alarm.

Cat Attacked Girl—KINSTON, N. C.—(UP)—The small daughter of W. Langston, East Kinston, was walking complacently down the street, when a cat, without warning, attacked her and bit her foot through her shoe. A man coming to the aid of the child could not beat the cat off. He trampled it to death.

Mason Jar Used 60 Years—SCIO, Ore.—(UP)—Mrs. Ed Fleming today exhibited a Mason jar which has been in use as long as she can remember, around 60 years. She also showed a five-gallon stone jar which was purchased by her husband's father in 1872.

TIGERS ENTRAIN IN MORNING FOR PORTLAND GAME

proper diet, the officials have arranged for a training table at the high school. The boys have been eating at this training table since Monday. They have been "just one happy family" and are in the best of shape.

Band Not Going—According to Principal Menegat, the band will not make the trip in one body as they did in 1932 because of the expense.

Players who will make the trip are: Ronald Baker, Jim Bayliss, John Dickinson, Paul Dorf, Keith Estes, Ray Ettinger, Bob Fowler, Leo Oberland, Herbert Gifford, Earl Harrison, Bob Hinman, Burdette Kindred, Stan Kunzman, Ray Lewis, Bennett Lewis, Bob Ottomano, Joe Pierce, Don Stewart, Bob Smith, Ole Severson, Walt Young, Cyril Saunders, John Millard. Coach D. K. Burgher, Assistant Coach E. M. Kirtley and Principal Paul Menegat will accompany the boys.

Wagering has been rather quiet, although local fans are confident that the Tigers will bring home the bacon.

May Play in Mud—If rain continues to drench the Pacific northwest, Multnomah stadium will probably be a sea of mud and the team that possesses the most weight and can get the breaks with no doubt be the winner, say the dyed-in-the-wool sport fans.

Contrary to reports that DeWitt, Washington star fullback, is a man about the size of Ghehardi, it develops that he is about the size of Owen Bates. DeWitt was recently named on the first string lineup of the Oregonian's 1934 honor roll.

DeWitt does the passing, kicking, field goaling and most of the yard gaining for his team. He is supposed to do all of these with an equal ability along with backing up the line.

While Coach Jenks uses one man for these jobs, Coach Burgher uses three—Bates for the line plugging, Ghehardi passing with a loss or two, and Smith and field generalizing by Brown.

Adams a Star—The Portland interscholastic center, H. Adams, is a real star, according to the Portland papers. Adams has turned in a remarkable job at center this year. He seldom misses a pass to a back, is always on the alert for flat passes and can hold his own with any center in keeping players out of the center of the line.

Look to Stewart—Medford fans feel that Stewart will be the center who will give an account of himself in comparison with the Star Washington center.

If Stewart plays the fine brand of ball that he played in the Eureka high game, and the brand that he played in the Klamath Falls game, he will more than take care of himself. Incidentally, Baer, the center Stewart played against in the Eureka tilt, was selected the best center in northern California, and that takes in a lot of territory. It takes in all of the territory down to San Francisco along the coast. Stewart gave him a few pointers on how a good center works.

PAT O'BRIEN BOXES SIXTY-FOUR ROUNDS—In "The Personality Kid," a romance of the prize ring, which comes to the studio theatre tomorrow, Pat O'Brien fights sixty-four gruelling rounds. Not that many rounds of fighting show in the picture as the time consumed, without counting the minute rest period, would amount to more than three hours.

Glenda Farrell and Claire Dodd have the leading feminine roles.

NEW YORK CITY PLANS SALE TAX

NEW YORK, Nov. 27.—(AP)—A bill for a 2 per cent municipal sales tax was rushed into form today as the principal measure of an emergency tax program designed to produce revenue totaling more than $61,000,000, the estimated cost of New York City's unemployment relief program through 1935.

Mayor LA Guardia, former foe of the sales tax, has agreed to the proposed municipal levy. Proponents estimated it would yield $40,000,000 annually.

Merchants are organizing to oppose the bill.

PLAY, CORN FED BABIES THANKSGIVING FEATURE BEAVER CREEK SCHOOL

BIG APPLAGATE, Nov. 27.—(Sp.)—Whether the author intended his little play to signify the garnering of the harvest or not, the Big Applagate Community club is presenting "Corn-fed Babies" as the principal feature of the Thanksgiving program at the Beaver creek school house Wednesday evening, Nov. 28.

The comedy portrays the agonies of embarrassment which a young couple can suffer by leading their employer to believe a new baby has come to their home. The cast includes Stanley Raymer, Miss Lucille Reeder, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Walker, and Mrs. Truman Lewis.

A group of O.C.C. boys will present a short skit exemplifying the buffoonery behind the microphone. Wayne (Red) Carpenter, as "Uncle John," has reached great proficiency as a spinner of bad time tales, and his gruesome characterization is bound to excite even the grown-ups.

Other dramatic stunts will include "The Lover's Errand," and "The Bathroom Door." The public is cordially invited to attend the program. There will be a small admission charge, and home made candy will be sold.

The Applagate school gave a successful Thanksgiving program at the school house Saturday evening, where a new stage has been completed by the manual training class in charge of Wm. Ludwig, upper grade teacher. A fish pond and bazaar were featured.

Real Jack and Beanstalk—ABERDEEN, Wash.—(UP)—Jack and the Bean Stalk had nothing on Nicholas Radinsky, gardener of Aberdeen. Common garden beans planted near his house climbed poles 22 feet above the ground and were still going at last reports. The crop was picked with a ladder.

Fire Didn't Halt Fair Fans—RALEIGH, N. C.—(UP)—The North Carolina fair, held here recently, was plagued by fire and water when one of the main exhibit buildings burned, but that did not dim the enthusiasm of fair "fans," and the attendance for the week was one of the largest in the fair's history.

Ye Poet's Corner

Townsend Club Welcome Song (Tune: "Marching Thru' Georgia.")
Welcome all ye townsend true,
We've formed a townsend band;
We hope you'll come here every time
And lend a helping hand.
There's work for everyone to do
To prove just who is who,
As we go marching with Townsend.

—Chorus—
Hurray! Hurray! We're all awake today,
Hurray! Hurray! We're surely on our way.
We'll get the old folks' pension, too,
And show them who is who,
As we go marching with Townsend.

We're working for the pension to help everyone in need.
If everybody joins the club 'Twill help us to succeed;
We'll drive depression from the land,
Crash honor by the hand.
As we go marching with Townsend.
By Mrs. Inez M. Putney.
