

WRESTLING CARD THURSDAY NIGHT DRAWS INTEREST

Interest in Thursday night's "International" wrestling card at the armory indicates that a large crowd will turn out to celebrate Thanksgiving night at the two-ply grunt and grimace show.

Red Devil, meanie who wrestles with his head concealed by a scarlet hood, will see action in the main event against Hans Schultz, German bone-bender, who made his bow here last week against Al Karsick, the Russian Lion. Although the popular German took two out of three falls from "Awful Al" with little trouble, he will have a 235-pound wildcat to compete with when he tangles with the mystery man.

Two 220-pound newcomers, both of whom rank with the country's leaders, will match muscle for an hour or two out of three falls in the opening bout. These matmen are Ole Anderson of Denmark, and Rudie Neustadt, who will demonstrate the Austrian type of matwork.

INGRAM'S JOB IS GIVEN ALLISON

BERKELEY, Cal., Nov. 28.—(AP)—William "Navy Bill" Ingram assumed the role of private business man today while into his shoes as head football coach at the University of California stepped Leonard B. "Stub" Allison, a former star player at Carleton college, Minnesota.

In a shift so sudden it surprised even Allison, the executive committee of the Associated Students accepted Ingram's resignation last night and promptly appointed the man who has been his first assistant for four years.

The committee's action came a few hours after Ingram had submitted the resignation to William Monahan, graduate manager, stating he was accepting "a wonderful opportunity to become settled in private business life."

ARREST WRESTLER WHO HIT REFEREE

SALEM, Ore., Nov. 28.—(AP)—Ole Clingman, City, won two out of three falls to defeat Duke Ruppenthal, Milwaukee, Wis., in the main wrestling event here last night, but that event was overshadowed in interest by another, not scheduled on the program.

After Referee Pat Regan awarded the opening match to Bill Carzell, Jackson, Miss., over Pug Ryan, Los Angeles, on a foul, Ryan opened hostilities against Regan. District Attorney W. E. Trindle, sitting in the audience, summoned the sheriff, obtained a warrant and ordered Ryan's arrest. The wrestler, through an attorney, posted $50 bail and was to appear before the justice of the peace today.

WALLULIS GETS DRAW WITH VETERAN FIGHTER

SEATTLE, Wash., Nov. 28.—(AP)—Frank Wallulis, Roslyn, Wash., heavy-weight and former Washington state college football player, may not be the best fighter in the world but he had proved today that he still has "gridiron" courage.

He gained a draw with Ford Smith, Kallispell, Mont., better, in a six-round bout here last night after he had been knocked flat in the third. He came back shooting in the pulverizing fight which has won him 14 knockout victories in 17 professional bouts, and finally landed in the fifth to flatten Smith and even up the score.

Red Demon Faces German

The "Red Demon," mysterious unknown of the wrestling racket, who will face Hans Schultz, giant German, in the main match at the Armory tomorrow night. Rudie Neustadt, Austrian, and Ole Anderson, Denmark, another pair of huge and rough mat artists, will open the double-barreled card.

PANTHERS PLACE FIVE ON ALL-EASTERN TEAM

By EDWARD J. NEIL, Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK, Nov. 28.—(AP)—Pittsburgh's Panthers, dominating the all-star setting as they did the eastern gridiron, today captured five places on the 1934 all-eastern eleven chosen for the Associated Press annually by a poll of the sectional football experts.

First Team—
Ends: Lester Burden, Fordham (26); Joe Bogdanaki, Colgate (25).
Tackles: Jim Steen, Syracuse (31).
Blade Cutter (Navy) (27).
Guards: Chas. Hartwig, Pitts'burgh (23); Kenneth Ormiston, Pitts'burgh (23).
Centers: Geo. Shotwell, Pitts'burgh (20).
Quarter: Miller Munjan, Pitts'burgh (20).
Halves: Fred Borries, Navy (35).
Jack Bumker, Army (24).
Fullback: Isadore Weinstein, Pitt (30).

The reaction of those who have seen the mighty Pitt juggernaut roll through Washington and Jefferson, West Virginia, Southern California, Notre Dame, Navy and Nebraska, and alone of the nation's eleven to force Minnesota to the utmost, is simple. The wonder is Pitt didn't win all eleven places.

Second Team—
Larry Kelley, Yale (24).
Ed Furey, Columbia (15).
Ed Harvey, Holy Cross (17).
Lew Brooks, Colgate (15).
Robert Stillman, Army (20).
Robert Gundlach, Harvard (18).
Mose Kalbaugh, Princeton (19).
Kate Jedicke, Princeton (18).
Bill Shepherd, W. Maryland (19).
Garry Levan, Princeton (16).
Dave Smukler, Temple (19).

SONS BASKETBALL LEADS BOWLERS DEFEAT GATES

ASHLAND, Nov. 28.—(Spl.)—Basketball season will officially be inaugurated here this week end when Southern Oregon Normal school opens its season against Multnomah club of Portland. Negotiations were completed Tuesday for two games at the junior high gym in Ashland on Friday and Saturday nights.

Long recognized as one of the outstanding independent teams on the Pacific coast, Coach Ray Smith's outfit consists of a galaxy of ex-university and normal school players. The team's biggest threats will be Cliff Horner, three-year varsity player at the University of Oregon, and Sam Botenberg, former gridiron and court star at Oregon.

Ed Kunkle, another ex-Oregon man, performs at center for the club, with Benjamin, former player at Monmouth, and Len Yandle, known as a SON'S star of other years, rounding out the first team. Kidd and Gettle, together with Coach Smith, fill out the roster.

GAELS RESPECT OREGON ATTACK

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 28.—(AP)—Despite the fact that St. Mary's Gaels are three-to-one favorites to beat University of Oregon in the Thanksgiving day grid battle at Kezar stadium tomorrow, Coach "Slip" Madigan has almost completely revamped his backfield in an attempt to stop the Webfooters' powerful running attack.

The Gaels' final practice today will consist of a light defensive workout, with much attention being given to the famous "crusher" play which Oregon used to defeat St. Mary's last year.

ANGLERS BOW TO MINERS AS RAINS PERMIT ACTIVITY

GRANTS PASS, Nov. 28.—(Spl.)—Long continued rains have put Rogue river up to winter stage and placer mines on many of the tributaries are pouring like a flowing torrent of red or yellow oxide paint. From now until March the famous southern Oregon placer mines will operate day and night, while the water lasts and hundreds of thousands of dollars in native gold will be added to the wealth of the nation.

Sport fishing, which during the vacation period, is one of the greatest revenue producing resources of southern Oregon, will be a secondary consideration and the placer miners will have their day. And here's hoping they will have a successful and prosperous season.

There was excellent bait fishing in the Rogue and its two larger tributaries, and Applegate and Illinois, during the greater part of last week. Good catches of steelhead were made on nearly all sections of the river. Large trout are also very plentiful in the river at this time and whenever water conditions will permit, there will be good fishing for them until the season closes on December 31st.

While the water was clear enough a number of silverhead salmon were caught with spoons. In fact, there seems to be a larger run of all kinds of the fish that come at this time of year than for many seasons past, and whenever weather and water conditions are favorable, there will be periods of good fishing all thru the winter months.

Most of our fishing non-resident anglers have departed for their distant homes, loud in their praises of the Rogue river and its excellent game fish. A few still remain, hoping there will come another spell of good weather that will give them another chance before winter really sets in.

Urges Aid for MMI
To the Editor:
Dear Sir:—I noticed in your issue of November 22 where the Hines lumber mill of Burns, Ore., was considering the question of closing the mill and a group of business men there got together to prevent such a calamity, and it just strikes me that we have a similar condition here in Medford, and that our business men, lumber yards and chamber of commerce would do well if they would go and do likewise.

We are all very proud of our Oregon lumber mill when it is running and only too ready to complain to the management when it closes down. When we consider that the permanent closing of the mill would mean that about 150 families would move away from here because the heads of those families depend wholly on this mill to maintain their residences here, I urge those who are in a position to lend assistance to see if something can not be done to keep this industry going, at least the greater part of the year, for I am sure it means much more to Medford and Jackson county than most of us realize.

Sams Valley

SAMS VALLEY, Nov. 28.—(Spl.)—The comedy, "A Family Affair," given by the high school Friday night, was well attended. The cast won many compliments on the acting, and kept the audience in laughter throughout the performance.

Grangers from Sams Valley who attended the meeting of the Eagle Point Grange Tuesday night were Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Empey, Miss Erma May, Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Wilson, Mrs. J. L. Prink, R. E. Sealon, John Wilson, Mrs. John Holst, Jerome Fitzgerald, Betty Wilson, Wesley McDonough and Mrs. O. T. Wilson. Mr. and Mrs. Empey were given the third and fourth degrees by the Eagle Point degree staff.

News of the death of Mrs. Minnie Moore at Central Point came as a shock to her many friends here, where she had spent a portion of her life. Deepest sympathy is extended to the young daughter whom death has deprived of both parents, also to other relatives of the deceased.

An interesting program was enjoyed at the meeting of the Sams Valley Grange, November 17. Numbers consisted of songs, Melvin Smith and Wesley McDonough; reading, Dorothy Straus; solos, Mrs. Chas. Dugan; Grange Journal, Mrs. O. T. Wilson; solos, Frank Hansen; funny comments, R. E. Sealon. Mr. Sealon commented on the idea of the lecturer assigning him to such a number on the program just after his defeat in the election. Nevertheless, the speaker kept his audience laughing merrily during the ten minutes he spoke. During the business session the members voted to initiate their new candidates and a class from Rogue River at the next meeting, December 1. A cakewalk was conducted by Mrs. Dick Straus to raise funds for the Jackson County Health association. Refreshments were served by the H. M. C. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Tonn of Lake Creek were visitors present.

Miss Maltin conducted a meeting of the Sams Valley extension unit at the schoolhouse, Thursday afternoon, when the ladies were instructed in the use of the guide pattern.

Mrs. Luke Ryan and son Homer and daughter Elizabeth, accompanied by Richard Sprouse, all of Bellefour, Cal., spent last week in the valley, visiting friends and attending to business matters.

Ladies' club will be entertained at its next meeting, December 6, by Mrs. Mike Koger, Mrs. Dick and Mrs. B. H. Straus. The meeting will honor members whose birthdays come in October, November and December.

Slight Rainfall—Between 5 a. m. and 5 p. m. Tuesday, there was only .01 of an inch of rainfall, reports from the federal weather bureau show.
