

THOROUGHBREDS THRILL CROWD ON INAUGURAL DAY

Some 20,000 turf fans turned out for the opening of the new $1,000,000 Bay Meadows course near San Mateo, Cal. The upper photo shows some of the crowd and part of the track. Lower: the finish of the fifth race with Nabua, first; Electric Gaff, second, and Bitter Root, third. (Associated Press Photos)

SYMPATHETIC EYES APPRAISE NEW BOY KING

A little 11-year-old boy leaves a London hotel to begin a trip back to his native land where he is to become king. Here is the scene, showing the predominance of kindly-eyed matrons in the crowd as King Peter of Yugoslavia leaves with his grandmother, the Dowager Queen Marie of Rumania, on the journey occasioned by the assassination of the boy's father, King Alexander, in Marseille. (Associated Press Photo)

BRITISH FLIERS WIN LONDON TO MELBOURNE AIR RACE

Pilot C. W. A. Scott and Campbell Black, co-pilot, are shown in the top picture after completing their 11,323 mile flight from London to Melbourne, Australia, to win first place in the $50,000 prize dash. They covered the distance in 71 hours. Their plane is shown as it landed at the end of the tremendous flight in the lower photo. (Associated Press Photos)

FATALLY WOUNDED IN RIOT

With his wife at his bedside a priest administered the last rites to Andrew Kontishion just before he died of wounds received when an election parade was swept by bullets at Kelayres, Pa. Three persons were killed outright and 15 wounded. (Associated Press Photo)

New Hauptmann Aid

"For the interest of my husband," Mrs. Richard Bruno Hauptmann, has announced that Edward J. Reilly (above) has been retained as defense attorney for her husband, accused of murder in the Lindbergh case, in place of James M. Fawcett. (Associated Press Photo)

'Stops The Show' At Insull's Trial

Mrs. Hary R. Jones, white-haired farm wife of Riddett, Ill., brought jurors forward in their seats at the when she told an indignant story of losing $15,000 in the Corporation Securities company. Prosecutors at the trial claim the stock was worth less. (Associated Press Photo)

POISONED CANDY FATAL TO CHILD

Poison-coated marshmallows they found in a Denver junk yard proved fatal to one child and resulted in serious illness for eight other youngsters. A group of other children is shown examining the barrel in which the candy was found. All except two of the stricken children were members of the same family. (Associated Press Photo)

THESE HUNTERS LUCKY AS DUCK SEASON OPENS

With the opening of the duck-shooting season, this party of hunters journeyed into the rice marshes near Stuttgart, Ark., and bagged their quota in a hurry. Left to right: L. P. Wrape, Searcy, Ark.; L. K. Duncan and C. B. Smith of Little Rock, and Paul McCoy of Stuttgart. The duck season has opened with new shooting restrictions in many states. (Associated Press Photo)

Gandhi's Aid In U. S.

Madeline Slade, secretary to Mahatma Gandhi, India's mystic, is shown as she arrived in New York for a lecture tour on Gandhi's work in India. (Associated Press Photo)

ISLANDS IN LEAGUE'S INQUIRY

Shown in the above map are the islands figuring in the mandate situation at Geneva where a Japanese diplomat was questioned concerning reports of the construction of naval bases on the former German islands. In the midst of the group is Guam, a United States possession. A spokesman of the Japanese foreign office at Tokyo labeled the "auspicious" as groundless.

STANFORD ROMPS TO VICTORY OVER BRUIN SQUAD

"Bones" Hamilton, Indian halfback and acting Captain, carrying the ball just out of reach of the flying tackle of Capt. "Pants" Livesay of the University of California at Los Angeles, in a football game there. The Stanford team won easily, 27 to 0. (Associated Press Photo)

TAKING A CUE FROM THE GAY '90'S

Synthetic aigrettes on the svelte black fall hat this young lady is wearing betray a "gay nineties" motif in current fashions. The hat is of velvet, the dress of black rough crepe with a novelty cape in front of the popular galyak. (Associated Press Photo)

The two children of Oscar Robson, held in Phoenix, Ariz., on extortion charges in connection with the kidnaping of six-year-old June Robles last April, are pictured in the inset. They are Bobby, 9, and Betty, 7. The new picture of Mrs. Fernando Robles and her daughter, June, was taken as the mother was about to take her home from school in Tucson, Ariz. The family has guarded against possible kidnap attempts although the case appeared solved with the arrest of Robson. (Associated Press Photo)

MAX SHOWS BUDDY HOW IT'S DONE

Max Baer, world's heavyweight champion, giving a few pointers to his younger brother, 19, on how to win fight success. Buddy (left) weighs a mere 219 pounds and is 19 years old. He is fighting professionally in California rings. (Associated Press Photo)