Historical Burlesque at Studio

Considering the time propitious for a burlesque on the current trend of historical and costume pictures, Bert Wheeler and Robert Woolsey will star in "Cockeyed Cavaliers," coming to the Studio theater, in which they entertain the middle ages.

Modern comedy, melody and pulchritude set against the medieval era provide the hilarity. The story is told in rhythmic dialogue.

RED BLUFF WILL HEAR LAKE SONG OFFICERS 'MORRO CASTLE' JAILED

RED BLUFF, Calif., Dec. 1.—(Sp)—A number of Medford men have been invited to be guests of the Red Bluff Chamber of Commerce, at noon, next Wednesday, when "A Song to Crater Lake" will be sung at a luncheon meeting of that organization. The event is of interest to Medford since Miss Viola M. Phillips, who wrote the beautiful words of the song and Fred Alton Haight, who composed the music, both reside in that city.

A large delegation from Red Bluff heard the song at the annual convention of the Shasta-Cascade Wonderland association in Medford in October, and were so pleased with it they wanted it sung here. They heard the song rendered in connection with the Wonderful Travelogue, to which it seemed particularly adapted and enhanced the value of the picture.

NILES 'SHAKE UP' PORTLAND POLICE

PORTLAND, Dec. 1.—(P)—Harry M. Niles today became Portland's chief of police, succeeding Colonel B. K. Lawson whom he replaced in a temporary capacity a month ago.

DAMP WASH

wonderful new home washing service
makes a picnic of washday

WHY sentence yourself to a day a week in the damp, dreary basement? What do you expect to gain, wearing yourself out, taking chances with your health, lifting, straining yourself, doing the family washing? Maybe you think you're saving money. But you're not. Listen. Damp Wash—the marvelous new home washing service—is positively cheaper than home washing.

Damp Wash gives you a day a week — FOR FUN!

Wouldn't you like to have more time to spend with your children—enjoying life with them? Do you think your husband likes to see you make a drudge of yourself? To tell you the truth, he hates washday as much as you do! Then why don't you make up your mind, right now, that you're going to stop being a washwoman? That you're going to take a whole day this week—and every week—for fun. Just take a minute tomorrow morning—phone and tell us which day you want us to call for your bundle. We'll wash your clothes carefully and thoroughly. We'll coax out the dirt in rich, foamy, warm suds of purest soap. We'll rinse them clear in gallons and gallons of sparkling, rain-soft water. Then we'll send them back to you, ready to iron. Don't worry about the expense, either. For Damp Wash only costs 52 cents for a big 13-pound bundle, and 4 cents for each additional pound. Which you must admit is "cheap enough!"
