

Pete Belcastro Promises to Strip Red Mask From Demon Grappler

JOCKY ITALIAN READY TO GIVE Foe THE WORKS

ough Night Ahead for Masked Meanie Is Word to Fans—Ticket Sale Shows Big Crowd Going

Pete Belcastro, belligerent Italian grappler, swept aside all rumors that he will not be able to appear in Medford tonight, and in a telephone call last evening from Sacramento, added cockily that Red Devil, 235-pound mystery man, is in for the worst beating of his life when they tangle at the armory in the main event of a two-night card.

Promoter Mack Lillard said he has never seen so much cockiness in one man outside of baseball's Dizzy Dean. Belcastro vows that he will keep the mysterious meanie so busy trying to hang onto his mask that he won't have time to try any of his devilment. Referee Ray Frisbie, who will be arbiter in both bouts, says he is going to let Belcastro and Red Devil fight to the finish, without trying too much interference.

ough Night Ahead

Consequently, the stage is set for one of the roughest bouts that has ever been brought to Medford. Belcastro has always gained the boos of local fans, but will be the favorite tonight. It will be the first time that local followers of the grunt and grime have seen the hooded demon matched against one of his own kind.

With the hope that tonight's bout may end the career of mysticism that has put the big "who-is-he" in wrestling limelight this year, fans are wondering whether or not Belcastro has the nerve and skill to tear off the scarlet head gear.

The ornery Italian will count upon his spectacular drop-kick to flatten the mystery man, who offers an especially big, but elusive, target for just such maneuvers. It will take all of Belcastro's skill to keep out of the vicious choke holds and away from the jarring haymakers with which Red Devil punished Hans Schultz, the German, last week, before clamping on a reverse head chancery which he refused to break at the referee's command.

Fans Enthused

Promoter Mack Lillard says advance ticket sales indicate the largest crowd in many months, but that the customers are favoring the seats not too close to the ring.

Jack Poulsen, Canadian wrestler, has an injured wrist that will prevent his appearance in the semi-final tonight, but Promoter Mack Lillard has signed Hans Schultz to meet Mike Sterlich, Yugoslavian mat artist, in the first half of the program.

Both Schultz and Sterlich, recent comers to the Medford arena, have been adopted by the customers as favorites. Their tussle promises an exhibition of fast, aggressive mat-work of the scientific style. The German was victimized by Red Devil last week, but when given the chance he performs with clean, powerful technique that will make him a handful for the wiry Yugoslav.

SINGH IS WINNER OVER BACAGALUPI

PORTLAND, Dec. 6.—(AP)—Jagad Singh, 216 pounds, Punjab, India, scored a two straight-fall victory over Louis Bacagalupi, 250, Hollywood, here last night. Ole Anderson, 214, Oakland, won two out of three falls over Hans Schultz, 210, Dallas, Texas. Both bouts were crowd thrillers, filled with plenty of rough wrestling.

Mike Mazurki, 230, New York and Hal Rumberg, 225, Spokane, went three rounds to a draw. Harry Kent, 215, Newberg, took one fall and the match from Jim Maloney, 212, Pasadena.

It was announced Joe Savoldi and Paul Boesch, the dropkick specialists, would feature next week's card.

BAER WILL BATTLE IOWA LIGHT HEAVY

DES MOINES, Ia., Dec. 6.—(AP)—Max Baer, heavyweight champion of the world, will fight tonight for the first time since he won the title from Primo Carnera last June.

The California title holder, who has done little except motion picture work and vaudeville tours for several months, will face Johnny Miller, A. V. L., light heavyweight, in a four-round bout at the coliseum.

GOOFY AND DIZZY NOT THAT WAY DURING GAME

By PAUL MICKELSON Associated Press Sports Writer.

CHICAGO, Dec. 6.—(AP)—Something should be done about rechristening of star ball players.

Vernon Gomez, star southpaw of the New York Yankees, is called "Goofy," but he won the American league pitching championship last season by a margin of 94 percentage points. Jerome Herman Dean of the world's championship St. Louis Cardinals, known far and wide as "Dizzy," was easily the greatest pitcher of the year in the National League.

Final official averages, released by the American league today, proved Gomez was far from "Goofy" when he got out on that pitching hill for the Yankees. Not only did he win the most games, 25 in all as against five defeats, but he also had an earned run average of 2.33. He led the league with 25 complete games and hurled nine games in which the opposing team made less than five hits.

He pitched the largest number of innings, 282, and topped the circuit in the art of striking out batters, fanning 158. His control was so good he didn't hit a single batter.

Mel Harder, Cleveland right-hander with a roundhouse curve, ranked second to Gomez in the earned run average with a mark of 2.61. But Lynnwood "Schm-Boy" Howe was runner-up in the matter of games won and lost with a record of 24 and 8 for 750. The Detroit star, who tied the record by winning 16 consecutive games, had an earned run average of 2.45.

STEELE TECHNICALS HIBBARD IN FOURTH

WALLA WALLA, Dec. 6.—(AP)—Scoring five knockouts in the fourth round, Freddie Steele, 162, Tacoma, won a technical knockout here last night from Jack Hibbard, 164, Walla Walla.

From Glendale, Mrs. M. C. Smallwood of Clatsop, Ore., is attending to business in Medford today, arriving this morning on the Oregonian.

FOOTBALL GATE SHOWS INCREASE CURRENT SEASON

NEW YORK, Dec. 6.—(AP)—College football attendance, rebounding from the low point reached in 1932, showed continued gains in all sections of the United States in the season now nearing an end, a compilation by the Associated Press today shows.

Of 32 representative teams chosen for the survey, 24 reported gains this year over last with only 8 failing to draw more customers.

The increase was not so great as a whole, nor were any individual gains as large this year as in 1933 but it was general and not confined to any one section.

The middle west showed almost as good a gain as did the east and south—the leaders in this year's turnstile parade—and only the far west showed a decline as a section. There the fall off was largely at Southern California. The Trojans, muddling through their worst season in years, drew only 223,000 fans to seven home games as compared to 400,000 to the same number in 1933.

In the last Yale, Princeton and Fordham all showed small declines but their losses were more than made up by Navy, Army, Columbia—mashing in on its rose bowl publicity—Pittsburgh and Pennsylvania.

SONS BASKETEERS IN OREGON SERIES

ASHLAND, Dec. 6.—(Sp.)—Howard Hobson's skyscraping Southern Oregon Normal school basketball squad will get its first major test of the current season when it tangles with Billy Rinehart's university of Oregon varsity at Eugene tonight and Friday night.

It will be the second time in history that the SONS have played a series with the Webfoots, the first happening two years ago when the Hobsonites won three out of four, to the surprise of everyone.

Oregon finished second in the Pacific Coast conference, Northern Division, last year and Coach Hobson expects two of the toughest encounters his team will have to meet in the series this weekend.

The SONS have two games already under their belts, a pair of decisive victories over the strong Multnomah club of Portland, played at Ashland last weekend while Oregon has yet to see a regular game, although the squad has been practicing for two months.

to announce that with an additional outfielder he hopes to acquire soon the New York Giants will be ready and waiting for the 1935 season.

Wearing a hunting jacket and leather boots, the Giant manager, preparing for another day of fence building on his land at Collierville, paused to clear up the status of Carl Hubbell.

"Carl Hubbell is not for sale—that's final," Terry said.

He said an announcement he made in Louisville recently he had tried to send Hubbell to the Pirates for Larry French and Freddy Lindstrom was made in an attempt to block a trade strengthening the Chicago Cubs, a club he considers a powerful 1935 rival for the Giants.

GRIDMEN DINE AT CHURCH TONIGHT

By Harold Grove

Members of the 1934 mythical state football champions will be guests of honor at a banquet tonight at the First Christian church on South Oakdale. First helpings will be dished out promptly at 6 o'clock.

Five turkeys and 25 pounds of potatoes, sweet and Irish, are on the menu along with pies, cakes, fruits and everything that goes to fill a hungry football player.

Disregarding past customs, all boys who were in a football uniform at the end of the regular practice sessions of the Medford football aggregation will be on hand to partake.

The football team is expected to be in excellent condition for the banquet. Don Stewart, Bill Bates, Stan Kunzman, Bob Smith and Burdette Kindred, the best "esters" on the squad stated that if they "dish it out" we can "take it."

The Tiger starting lineup will not be announced but it is expected that everyone will have a chance.

RUNIC STONE GIVES UP ANCIENT SECRETS

YARMOUTH, N. S.—(UP)—Nova Scotia's famous runic stone, whose mystery inscriptions have baffled some of Canada's greatest Runology scholars, is at last giving up its secret to a Washington school teacher.

The stone, found at the head of Yarmouth harbor, is now on exhibition in the public library here. Photo.

ographs and other data on the stone were forwarded to Prof. Olaf Stanwood, county superintendent of schools in Benton county, Washington, and a student of Runology, who, after studying them, has advised authorities here that the runes were made by Norsemen more than nine centuries ago.

PENDLETON, Dec. 6.—(AP)—Indications were strong here today for snow flurries. Some fine particles of snow or hail were noticed this morning. The temperature dropped to 29 last night.
