

Let's Make this a Good Time Christmas

Let's GIVE This Christmas—That Will
Speed the Return of PROSPERITY

MORE and more, we have indications that better times are here . . . that prosperity is returning. Let us make this Christmas an old time one . . . let's banish the formerly popular idea of conservatism and GIVE this year . . . The spending of money will do much to hasten good times . . . it will stimulate business; it will create jobs for those who need work; it will put money into circulation . . . so necessary to prosperity. "Rainy Days" are giving way to sunshine of improved economic conditions . . . Hasten the return of the "Good Old Days" by making it an old fashion GIVING Christmas!
