

HITLER BATTLING TO RETURN PRIDE OF GERMAN RACE

Dictatorship Seen As Only Solution for Ills Besetting Country — Seeks Pure Race, Free of Idiots

BERLIN (UP)—Hitler's program has brought him more power than any modern ruler and more than most rulers of history.

Feeling as a youth economic and social inequality, and sharing Germany's defeat-psychosis after the World war, Hitler swore that if there were two things he would accomplish in his career, they were to give the under-dog a chance and to restore to the Germans their national pride and honor.

Two Sources of Strength
The movement which he founded, and for which he fought for 13 years, draws strength from nationalism on its political side, and from socialism on its economic.

Parliamentary democracy and liberalism are, Hitler believes, responsible for Germany's postwar misfortunes. To him, the only solution is the Fuehrerprinzip which one man has taken over the entire authority from parties and legislative bodies.

Complementary to the Fuehrerprinzip is the conception of an Authoritative State wherein former political groups warring for power through parliamentary majority, were eliminated, and where the national socialist movement alone becomes merged with the state.

Hitler's state is also totalitarian, subjecting all public units like schools, universities, press, radio, theaters, church, to the aims and forms of national socialism itself.

Radical Campaign
Side by side with, and actually part of, the struggle to create a unified Reich, is the radical campaign. This aims to evolve a pure Germanic people (Volk), freed in time of crises, degenerates, idiots through the sterilization program, and free all intellectual, cultural, and financial fields.

The national socialist racial theory sees the people as the supreme factor. In time, it is hoped, the sphere of national socialism influence and power shall be extended to all German-speaking peoples: Switzerland, Czechoslovakia, Austria, Western Poland, Lithuania, and possibly even parts of Belgium, Holland and Denmark.

On the economic (socialist) side of the program, Hitler's drive has been for the little man, against the big industrialist and landowners.

Trade Unions Abolished
Through the abolition of trade unions and their substitution by the Nazi labor front, and by the merging of former employers' organizations into various sections of the "plan for the reorganization of industry," the Nazis have "co-ordinated" the board of directors' table with the workman's lathe, in theory at least.

Two things are important in the national socialist economic scheme: re-employment and the stimulation of autarchy, that is the making of Germany independent of foreign raw materials. Each of these strikes, a strong note of "nationalism," as with all things in Germany today.

The proof is in the wear.

Once 'It' Girl Now Old-Fashioned; Swaps Career Pursuit for Baby

By ROBBIN COONS

HOLLYWOOD—Five years ago nobody would have presumed to call Clara Bow an "old-fashioned girl."

Today Hollywood's one-time impetuous redhead, the flaming "it" girl of many reckless-youth movies, is just that. The parade has passed her by, and "old-fashioned Clara" sits contentedly on the sidelines watching it go.

Clara and Rex Bell, whose marriage has survived the usual Hollywood round of rumors that it would not be expecting an addition to the family some time before Christmas. In that respect, Clara is right up to the minute as Hollywood fashions go. It's quite the thing for a movie star to have children.

She Didn't Like Talkies
But having children—in the Hollywood mode of today—is a business that causes your up-to-date screen idol to withdraw from fame only temporarily.

Therein lies Clara Bow's "quaintness."
Clara had withdrawn from all activity in pictures months before prospective motherhood demanded that she do so.

Of course, there is nothing to prevent her coming back to pictures after the event if she cares to—but "career madness" is something that has not afflicted the redhead in recent years.

Clara never liked talkies, and had a bad case of "microphone fright" that did not help things. She acquiesced this. And two years ago, after her marriage to Rex Bell, the young western star, and a long, care-free retirement on his ranch, she came back to make "Call Her Savage" and then "Hoopla."

It was the late Sam Hark, independent producer, who urged her to make talkies under his management, and he released the films through Fox.

Talked About Retirement
But even while she was making the pictures, Clara was talking about permanent retirement. During filming of the first, the erstwhile Brooklyn redhead said she was not sure she would ever make another. Pictures somehow had lost their importance.

There were "so many things I want to do and see, and so much I don't know that I want to learn," that Clara's enthusiasm for camera fame had waned. She did make "Hoopla," however, and that was her last screen appearance.

Since her marriage she has liked, very frankly, the role of Mrs. Rex Bell. And Rex, a likeable young stalwart, never allowed himself to become "Mr. Clara Bow."

So Clara Bow is just an "old-fashioned girl" who retired before she entered upon her role of mother, instead of following the current Hollywood mode of having babies, in a manner of speaking, "between pictures."

Rex says the name of the expected heir or heiress hasn't been decided yet. Clara has selected many, but each day finds a new one on the list, and old choices are discarded.

Baking Hints

Always sift flour and K C baking powder together at least three times. The more sifting, the lighter, finer texture the cakes, biscuits, etc., will be.

To mix a cake, first cream butter and sugar thoroughly, then add yolks if used. Then, to this mixture, alternately add moisture and the flour that has been sifted with baking powder and stir until smooth and glossy, adding beaten egg whites after thoroughly mixing.

For cakes, have your oven slow to moderate at first, until the cake is fully risen; then increase the heat, so as to just brown lightly.

Here are a few choice recipes. You will like them.

K C Everyday White Cake
1/2 cup butter (4 oz.)
1 cup granulated sugar (8 oz.)
1/2 cup milk
2 cups flour (8 oz.)
2 level teaspoonfuls K C baking powder
Whites 3 eggs
1 teaspoon vanilla extract
K C Baking Powder Biscuit
2 cups flour (8 oz.)
2 level teaspoonfuls K C baking powder
4 level teaspoonfuls shortening (2 oz.)
About 2-3 cup milk or water.
1/2 teaspoonful salt.

K C Bran Muffins
2 1/2 cups uncooked bran
2 cups flour (8 oz.)
1 1/2 teaspoonfuls salt
2 eggs
1 1/2 level teaspoonfuls K C baking powder
4 tablespoonfuls sugar (2 oz.)
3 tablespoonfuls melted fat (1 1/2 oz.)

K C Doughnuts
1/4 cup granulated sugar (6 oz.)
1 cup sweet milk
3 tablespoonfuls melted butter (1 1/2 oz.)
3 cups flour (12 oz.)
1 teaspoon mace
1 teaspoon salt
2 eggs, whites and yolks beaten separately.
2 level teaspoonfuls K C baking powder.

Note—Permitting the bran to soak in the milk for 1 to 3 hours before adding the other ingredients adds greatly to its palatability. Bake 35 to 40 minutes at 350 to 375 degrees.

Facts About Salt

Modern hostesses who are faced with the problem of seating their guests in the proper order at the table would have envied the simple arrangements of Shakespeare's time. In those days, according to the Leslie Research Bureau, a salt cellar was placed in the middle of the long table. Guests of honor were placed above the salt; while those "below the salt" were less highly regarded.

While our modern governments depend upon hundreds of taxes, it is interesting to note the amazing fact, says the Leslie Research Bureau, that the great Roman empire was originally financed largely by the income from the sale of salt.

Although salt is obtained principally from water, it has been found most effective to keep it in a dry place. It was only in recent years that a salt was produced which would remain satisfactory under all sorts of climatic conditions. This product is manufactured by the Leslie California Salt Company and sold in the famous 3-pound red carton. If an ordinary understated package of salts lasts you three weeks, according to the Leslie Research Bureau, a full 3-pound package will last you the original three weeks plus four days more. (A difference amounting to two months of "free salt" a year!)

A comparatively small island in Louisiana supplied the Confederate cause with twenty-two million pounds of salt in 11 months during the Civil war.

Colorful Former Governor Passes
TUSCALOOSA, Ala., Dec. 7.—(AP)—Former Governor Woodward Brandon, 85, whose booming 'Alabama casts 24 votes for Oscar W. Underwood' gained him national prominence at the 1924 Democratic national convention in New York, died here early today of a brain complication, tentatively diagnosed as a cerebral hemorrhage. Mr. Brandon was one of Alabama's most colorful governors, carrying out his idea of being "Plain Bill Brandon." The mule he once drove as a street car conductor in Tuscaloosa headed the parade when he was inaugurated governor.

VIENNA, Dec. 7.—(AP)—Austria decided today to grant the United States request for extradition of Captain Ivan Paderjay, wanted in connection with the disappearance of his bride, Agnes Tufverson, Detroit and New York attorney. Paderjay is charged with bigamy in New York, the grounds for the extradition. He has been a prisoner of the Austrian government for six months. Miss Tufverson was last heard from in January, less than a month after she had wed Paderjay in New York.
