18 Tables in Play At Bridge Tourney Town Club Friday

Eighteen tables were in play at the bridge tournament conducted Friday evening at the Town club, the second in a series planned for the winter.

Mrs. Gus Newbury was in charge of the duplicate tourney, with Mrs. Robert Norris and Mrs. C. Glenn Smith winning north and south, while Mr. and Mrs. Homer Marx won the east and west.

In the progressive tournament, high score for north and south was held by Mr. and Mrs. William McAllister, and high for east and west by Mrs. H. D. Reid and Mrs. William Vawter. The latter tournament was under the supervision of Mrs. Donald Clark.

Mrs. Ray Lenox was official scorekeeper for the evening.

At the close of play, refreshments were served.

'Wooden Soldiers' Is Play Presented By Mission Society

The Women's Missionary society met in regular session on Wednesday afternoon at the church.

Mrs. F. J. Wilnot, president of the organization, conducted the business period which was followed by a brief prayer service. The devotional service "On earth, peace and good will," was led by Mrs. Lough. Mrs. Everett Eads had charge of the mission study, which was given as a review of the points studied during the preceding months.

Mrs. Walter Hindred, program leader, presented the topic, "The World a Friendly Neighborhood." "The World is a Family," stories of friendliness, was the title of a talk by Mrs. A. D. Curry. Mrs. R. W. Gray gave a paper entitled, "A Study in Color."

A peace play, "Wooden Soldiers," given by Mrs. Jewett and Mrs. Marjorie Pierce, carried a gripping message and was much appreciated by the audience.

Mrs. Lote Young, of Central Point, closed the program with a solo appropriate to the occasion. She was accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Alma Wade. The missionary benediction was given and a social hour followed. Thirty-nine members and friends were present.

Christmas Play At Club Given Friday

A delightful play, "Entertaining for Father Christmas," was presented for the pleasure of the Lincoln Service club at the Friday meeting. At the close of the program, a business session was held, during which time future plans of the club were discussed. Refreshments were served and a social hour enjoyed.

The cast for the play follows: Mother, Miss Vera Humphrey; children and neighbor children, Lillian Newton, Doris Rohrer, Clara Gill, Michiko Kamikawa, Bobby Smith, Kenneth Beer, Dick Morgan and Jack Kennedy; Father Christmas, Jack Haney; French boy, Jack Edmonds; Dame de Noel, Kathryn Shelley; Swedish girl, Dorothy Dickinson; Brownie, Clifford Pence; Fairies, Barbaraetta Landize, Dolores Bismark and Betty Ann Shaw; Spanish boy, Ralph Brock; Italian girl, Norma Contrall; English warts, Peggy Daley and Hugh Scovell; German bugaboo, Carleton Bismark; German child, Ruth Kinder; Russian child, Helen Cox; Babushka, Lorraine Groves; Dutch girl, Betty Whipple; American girl, Doris Rohrer; English wait, Jennette Showers.

Several Visitors At Club Luncheon

The Wenona club held its regular covered dish luncheon and business meeting Thursday afternoon at the home of Florence Rush.

Guests for the afternoon were: Mrs. Mae Miller of Halsey, Ore.; Mrs. Robert Montgomery of Phoenix; and Mrs. Earl Miling, Mrs. Gladys Waltermire and Mrs. Inez Hayes of this city.

Assisting the hostess were Edmere Watson and Blanche Rinabarger.

The following officers were elected for the coming year: Harriet Watson, president; Dorotha Watkins, vice-president; Joanita Thornton, secretary and treasurer; Florence Rush, reporter.

The next meeting will be in form of a Christmas card party to be held at the home of Nellie Purdin, 333 North Holly street, December 20.

Delphians' Concert On Thursday to Be Mendelssohn Music

The Post-Delphian program for December, a "Mendelssohn Concert," will be held on Thursday evening, December 13, at 8 o'clock at the Baldwin recital hall. Each member is permitted to invite two guests and there will not be any charge for admission.

Inspired by a radio program heard over the NBC network entitled "Masters Immortal," Mrs. Royal E. Bebb, chairman of the committee, wrote asking permission to use their material for the Delphian program. Very graciously the writer of the script, Forrest Barnes, replied and forwarded the script on Mendelssohn.

Assisting Mrs. Bebb in preparing the program are Mrs. Burdette Dodge and Mrs. I. E. Schuler, who will read the script.

With much enthusiasm is the announcement made that Antoinette Petrova, Detcheva, concerto-pianist, will be guest artist on this program. Mme. Detcheva is a graduate of the Royal Conservatory of Music, Sofia and Vienna State Academy of Music, and was soloist with the Bach society in Vienna for two seasons.

James Stevens, well-known baritone, will sing the distinguished aria, "Oh, God, Have Mercy," from the Oratorio "St. Paul," written by Mendelssohn.

Other assisting artists will be Mrs. C. I. Drummond, Mrs. Rawles Moore, Marian Moore, Mrs. H. E. Marsh, Mrs. R. C. Mulholland, Mrs. H. O. Pucker and Mrs. Royal E. Bebb.

Eagle Point Club Plans Christmas Party at Meeting

The Eagle Point Civic Improvement club met at the attractive club room Thursday, Dec. 6, to perfect plans for a Christmas tree and party which is to be held on December 20. Thirty-three members were present.

The Civic club, noted for its hospitality, served luncheon at four o'clock. Hostesses were Mrs. Royal Brown, Miss Lelah Gallion and Mrs. Will Brown. The room was attractive with baskets of chrysanthemums.

Another colorful event last week of the civic improvement club was a joint show given with the Home Economists in honor of Mrs. Lorraine Winslow, a recent bride.

Mrs. Winslow is the former Miss Fern Simpson, who was a teacher at Eagle Point high school.

The club room was lovely with large baskets of autumn leaves, and the tables were decorated in a color scheme of yellow carried out with bowls of flowers and yellow tapers.

A covered dish luncheon was served at 4 o'clock. The program, presented by the Civic Improvement club, was presented by Miss Yetta Olson, music teacher in the high school, as chairman of the program committee. Miss Olson was assisted by Miss Donna Earl, Miss Wilda Darnelle and several of the high school teachers.

The reception committee was Mrs. Walter Clements, Mrs. M. L. Pruitt, Mrs. Lottie Van Scoy and Mrs. Royal Brown.

Officers for Year Selected Thursday At Royal Neighbors

The Royal Neighbors met in a business session Thursday evening, and new members were obligated.

Edward Farras' Observe Wedding Anniversary

By Mrs. L. H. Smith

CENTRAL POINT, Dec. 8.—(Spl.)—Honoring the fiftieth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Edward L. Farras on Tuesday, Dec. 4, at their home in Central Point, relatives from various central points arrived for the

Prof. A. J. Hanby officiating, using the ring service. Mrs. Hattie Laville years ago were in the receiving line. Assisting in serving were Mrs. Edward Jones, Mrs. Cliff Smith, Mrs. Ethel Chastain, Mrs. Mabel Hanson and Miss Arlene Hay. At nine o'clock a marriage ceremony took place with wedding feast, served at noon from a large and beautifully appointed table.

Included in the group were their only son, Fred Farras and wife, Lillian of San Francisco, Miss Anna Dean, a niece from Oakland, Calif., Miss Alice Singletary, niece of Porter, Mr. and Mrs. Arden Rodenberger, of Klamath Falls, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Whitte and son Charles Edward, all of Rogue River, Mrs. Lydia Dean and Mr. and Mrs. James Open of Grants Pass.

Dean house was observed from 7 to 10 o'clock in the evening for all friends who desired to call. Over two hundred responded to the invitation. Misses Dorothy and Marjory Jones in quaint costumes of more than 50 was bridesmaid, and Harvey Walters best man.

The bride's wedding gown was of white satin, with train, and veil caught with bandeau. Mrs. Don Platt sang "I Love You Truly," and the wedding march was played by Mrs. C. A. Eide, as the party took their places beneath a white and gold wedding bell, making a striking picture.

Many beautiful gifts, cards, telegrams, and flowers were received by them.

Mrs. Farras (nee Clara Dean) has spent her entire life in Rogue river valley, and Mr. Farras came here with his parents from Missouri when he was a small child, residing here since.

D. A. R. News

The December meeting of Crater Lake chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, will be held at the home of Mrs. Volney Dixon, 326 West Tenth street on Saturday, December 15 at two o'clock. This will be the group's annual Christmas party, with a Christmas program and each member will bring a little gift for the members.

Mrs. Dames B. G. Harding, Glenn Taylor and Bert Lowry will be assistant hostesses.

Of absorbing interest to Daughters of the American Revolution is the work of the Genealogical Research committee. Although the chairman of this work changes little from year to year, its scope is constantly broadening. Unpublished records, from any available source, are copied and placed in the D. A. R. library for the use of future generations.

The preservation of old cemetery records is one of the major projects at present and members throughout Oregon, as well as other states, are visiting old cemeteries, copying names and dates from headstones and monuments. Some of these records are almost obliterated by time and the elements and in a few years would be lost.

These records will be alphabetized and typed and will be of inestimable historical value.

Mrs. H. C. Galey of Ashland is at present, state chairman of this committee and Mrs. J. H. Cochran is local chairman.

Mrs. Edna George, King Will Entertainment Circle

The Ever Ready circle will meet at the home of Mrs. George and Mrs. King, 204 North Ivy, on Tuesday, Dec. 11. A covered dish luncheon will be served at 1:00 o'clock. Every lady is asked to bring her own service.

Mrs. Hewitt has charge of the decorations. The members are anticipating a pleasant afternoon.

Activities of Legion Auxiliary

A covered dish dinner will be served by the auxiliary, Monday evening, December 10, at 6:00 p. m. preceding the regular business meeting. This will be for the Legion and Auxiliary and everyone is asked to bring his own service. Those who have not been notified by the committee in charge may bring any covered dish they wish.

Auxiliary members are asked to bring articles to be used in filling Christmas baskets, such as oranges, candy, etc., Monday evening.

This is hospital and rehabilitation month, and Mrs. John Fuhrer, chairman of hospitalization has submitted the following article:

As the festive days of Christmas are near at hand, let us not forget the less fortunate ones, especially the shut-ins at the Veterans hospitals.

At the 1933 national convention delegates approved the jelly campaign through the medium of the American Legion auxiliary, and every member is urged to do her part to take care of our local community service, child welfare and rehabilitation of our war veterans.

Because of the experiences of the times many departments had to economize in the hospital family so it is up to every local post and the auxiliary to see that the patients at the Portland and Roseburg veterans' hospital receive a merry Christmas.

The local American Legion auxiliary sends a cash donation every Christmas, besides a paid subscription to some magazine. They also send the Mail Tribune to both the Roseburg and Portland hospitals, so that any patient from the Rogue River valley may keep in touch with the home news.

Foreign and Home Missionary Groups May Meet Jointly

The auxiliary meeting of the W. F. M. S. of the First M. E. church was held in the church parlors Tuesday afternoon with Mesdames C. C. Van Scoyoc, Koppen, and Mortensen as hostesses. Mrs. Wiley conducted the business session. The matter of two missionary societies holding joint meetings each month was discussed with a committee appointed to confer with the home society.

A letter was read from Mrs. Fletcher, the base secretary reporting favorably of no cuts in operations for the year.

The devotional period was conducted by Mrs. Van Dyke, the topic being "The Message of Praise," 96th Psalm, closing with prayer and singing in concert "The Morning Light is Breaking."

Mrs. C. Meeker led the study program, subject "Music and the Message." Response "Music and the Message" was given with a verse of a hymn, bearing on the topic. Clippings were given individually on music typical of Paganism, contrasting with the music of Christianity.

Mrs. O. V. Myers gave the book review, relating the viewpoint of the Japanese woman. In conclusion the hostesses served cake and coffee.

Pocahontas Lodge Admits Six Candidates. Initiation was held Friday night at Westonska council six candidates being instructed into the mysteries of the degree. They were Hazel Anderson, Gladys Waltermire, Lillian Pahl, Lyla Young, Edna Watkins and Rose Singler.

At the close of the business hour, refreshments were served by Sarah Galle, Gladys Lawrentz and Juanita Thornton.

Next Friday evening, December 14, a dance will be held. Members and their invited friends are cordially invited.

Mrs. Young Invites to Her Home. Mrs. Clara Young, of 318 South Oakdale avenue, is to be hostess on Thursday at 1:30 o'clock dessert bridge, members of the Building Bridge club having been invited. She is to be assisted by Mrs. Dorian and Mrs. Taylor. This is to be the last meeting prior to the holidays.

Last week the club was entertained at the home of Mrs. H. C. Prodette. High score at contract was held by Mrs. A. Duff and Mrs. Bigelow held high in auction.

Announce Annual Turkey Dinner. Past Noble Grands club will meet in the Oddfellows hall for the annual turkey dinner. Husbands of the members have been invited. Each member has been requested to bring two gifts.

Word has just reached Medford that one of its residents, Mrs. Delroy Getchell, has received a signal honor in the recognition by the National League of American Pen Women and the Minnesota state branch, through the inclusion of her poetry in "Minnesota Poets, an Anthology of Verse," compiled and edited by Mrs. Maude C. Schlipin of Minneapolis, vice-president of the National League and president of the Minnesota branch.

The book is the first anthology of Minnesota poets and is also a history of poetic literature of the state of Minnesota. Containing the work of more than 80 writers and more than 200 poems, the volume is said to be not only a book for Minnesotans, but a book for all lovers of poetry wherever they may live.

The anthology differs from the usual collection of poetry in that it includes biographical sketches of each author, the sketch concerning Mrs. Getchell being as follows:

"Alice McClure Getchell is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas C. McClure, one of the most prominent of the pioneer families of Minnesota. She was salutatorian of her class when she was graduated from St. Mary's Hall, Fairbault. Later she went to the Anne Brown school in New York city to study music, art and literature.

"After her marriage in 1908 to Delroy Getchell, banker of Minneapolis, Mr. and Mrs. Getchell established their home at Medford, Oregon. While a member of the literature division of the Oregon Federation of Women's Clubs, she prepared the only complete bibliography of Oregon Indian Myths. It has since been distributed by the Oregon State Library.

"Mrs. Getchell began to write poetry in 1922, after a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hergeshelmer, at which time Mr. Hergeshelmer turned to her and said, 'You should write.' Mrs. Getchell's two poems, 'Ode to Multnomah Falls' and 'Crater Lake' were chosen from hundreds of poems by Fred H. Kiser, former scenic photographer of the Pacific coast, as 'the most beautiful descriptive poems' of those scenic wonders. Mrs. Getchell, with her family, lives at 1131 South Oakdale avenue, Medford, Oregon."

Many gifted poets, once residents of Minnesota and now passed on, are included in the state anthology. Among them is Hazel Hall of St. Paul, who moved to Portland, Oregon and died in 1924.

Kenneth Rand, also included, known for his achievements in verse as "the modern Poe" wrote the beautiful poem, "Limited Service Only"
