

SECONDARY CAGE LOOP WILL HAVE B CLASS QUINTS

To classify boys in the Jackson county secondary high school basketball league in "A" and "B" groups, for inter-school competition, officials of the league have announced a three-point system which has been submitted to the secondary high schools in the valley.

The classification is based on age, height and weight, and is being put into effect so that boys who come under "B" class may participate in basketball games scheduled in most cases as preliminaries to regular secondary high school contests.

The plan, consisting of a table from which any boy from the age of 13 to and including 19 years may be grouped in either class, was obtained from Mr. Coleman of O. S. C., prominent state basketball official. It has been used in several leagues, and is to be given its trial this year in Jackson county.

The county association will provide a trophy for the "B" class championship team, to be selected in a tournament similar to the one which begins Friday for the "A" class quintets. Schools unable to form "B" class teams may organize "second teams" for competition with other "B" teams, by mutual agreement, but such games will not count as competition for the "B" class quintet. It was pointed out by H. D. Jewett, principal of Central Point high school, and league president.

Eligibility rules of the O. S. A. A. will apply to players in the lower class, any one of whom may be moved into "A" class, in which class he must remain for the season.

CRIMSON TIDE WORKS HARD FOR STANFORD

UNIVERSITY, Ala., Dec. 13.—(AP)—More hard work was on the books today for Alabama's crimson tide, which yesterday since the scrimmage close on Thanksgiving as the players buckled down to preparations for the Rose Bowl encounter with Stanford New Year's.

Originally scheduled for today, yesterday's scrimmage was ordered unexpectedly by Coach Frank Thomas when bitter cold of the past two days was replaced by football weather.

Under the Big Ten freshman rule no player is permitted more than three years of intercollegiate competition.

A. A. A. WEAR BETTER CLOTHES Suits and Overcoats to measure, $21.50 up. Klein the Tailor, Upstairs.

USE THE CHOKE ONLY 1/2 AS LONG with THERMALIZED Super-SHELL THE ONLY THERMALIZED GASOLINE

JONES WATCHES LITTLE DROP LONG PUT

Lawson Little, present holder of the British and American amateur golf championships, managed to break away from his studies at Stanford university long enough to show Bobby Jones, former world's king, how he putted his way to fame. Little is shown here dropping a long putt during a match in San Francisco, with Jones crouched to Little's left looking on. Jones and Stuart Hawley, California champ, turned back Little and Ernest Peiper, Jr., San Jose, Calif., youth, 4 and 3. (Associated Press Photo)

JACKSONVILLE LOSES TO WILLIAMS CREEK IN PRACTICE GAMES

JACKSONVILLE, Dec. 13.—(Sp.)—A large crowd of basketball fans saw three good practice games between Jacksonville and Williams Creeks in the local gymnasium, Tuesday night.

The first game, between Jacksonville's "B" string and Williams Creeks' second string, ended in a 15-11 victory for Jacksonville.

The lineup was as follows: For Williams Creeks—Sanford, forward; Grey, forward; Britton, center; White, center; Stone, guard, and Boat, guard.

The second game, between Jacksonville's "A" team and Williams Creeks' first string, ended in a 23-21 victory for Williams Creeks.

The Jacksonville team was away off form.

Lineup was as follows: For Williams Creeks—Luman, forward; Webb, forward; Kline, center; Verdine, guard, and Moon, guard.

The last game, which was between the Jacksonville town team and the Jacksonville town team, was played with a basketball, but could easily have been mistaken for a football game. They all went home with bruises and lumps.

CHECKER CHAMPIONSHIP WON BY TOLEDO PLAYER

DETROIT, Mich., Dec. 13.—(AP)—Assa A. Long of Toledo was the world's champion checker player today by virtue of his victory over Newell W. Banks of Detroit here yesterday. Long won, 7 to 3, and 27 draws.

Use Mail Tribune want ads.

BOWLING

It took four games for the City Cleaners to eke out a victory over the Texaco outfit in their match at the Elks' lodge last night. After each had won a game the two teams rolled a dead heat in the third canto, scoring 853 apiece.

The lineups were as follows: For City Cleaners—Watson, 1st; Smith, 2nd; York, 3rd; Coleman, 4th; Handicap—70 70 70 210 70

Table with 5 columns: Name, 1st, 2nd, 3rd, Total 4th. Rows include Watson, Sherwood, Smith, York, Coleman, Handicap, and Totals.

For Texaco—Jerome, 1st; DeVore, 2nd; Rose, 3rd; White, 4th; Handicap—98 98 98 294 98

Table with 5 columns: Name, 1st, 2nd, 3rd, Total 4th. Rows include Jerome, DeVore, Rose, White, Handicap, and Totals.

BASEBALL CZARS MAKE NO SWAPS

NEW YORK, Dec. 13.—(AP)—There is a strong probability that the current major league baseball meeting may wind up tonight without a single major deal to put an edge on the otherwise dull and lifeless proceedings.

The unheeded situation developed when the three-cornered swap between the New York, Pittsburgh and the always-willing Philadelphia Nationals began wobbling and threatened to go by the boards entirely.

Until midnight the thing seemed in the bag, with the Giants sending a young pitcher, and a wad of cash to Philadelphia in return for George Davis, an outfielder for whom Bill Terry has cried since the day he sent him away; the Phillies, for their part, were to turn the cash and Catcher Al Todd over to the Pirates in exchange for Lloyd Waner and Earl Grace, a catcher.

Use Mail Tribune want ads.

Advertisement for tomato juice glasses. 'Set of 6 decorated tomato juice glasses ($1.20 Value) free'. Includes image of a glass and 'G-H-B CALIFORNIA HOME BRAND' logo.

GOLD HILL HOOPSTERS VISIT PHOENIX FRIDAY FOR SEASON OPENER

Phoenix cagers will play their first scheduled game of the season at Phoenix, Friday. The Gold Hill boys, who are reputed to have a very good team, will be their opponents.

Probable starting lineup is: Jack Hill, Eddie Glover, George Handley, the Hill, Eddie, Jim Newlin. Subs are Eugene Scherrer, Norven Parry, Howard Klinger.

Lineup for preliminary game is: Chris Barker, Martin May, Lyle Schiffrer, Francis McTernolds, Donald Barnes. Subs are Elmer Barnea, Merle O'Connor, Tom Hensler, James Harris and Benjamin Swisher.

Sell-out Looms For Rose Bowl Gridiron Classic

PASADENA, Calif., Dec. 13.—(AP)—With 30,000 of the $8,000 available tickets already sold and orders continuing to roll in, the possibility of a sellout for the Rose Bowl game here New Year's day between Stanford and Alabama, was seen today.

Al Masters, graduate manager of Stanford, said the advance sale was as heavy as the entire sale for the Columbia game played in the rain last year and well ahead of that for Stanford's 1926 Rose Bowl game with Alabama.

Sturmstroming trip of the Pacific coast. Hughes, after his high school days, was a member of the University of Oregon football squad, where he won all-coast center honors.

Bill Morgan, another Medford high school star, received high praise for his playing last Sunday at New York in the game between the New York Giants and Chicago Bears for the professional football championship.

Besides the above mentioned honors, the two local athletes benefited financially.

IRISH HOOPERS FRIDAY IRIS HHOOPERS FRIDAY

For the second time the team of the St. Mary's basketball team tangles with the Sams Valley five Friday at Medford in the girls' gym at the senior high school.

ATTENTION: The Featherweight Portable Singer Machine can now be seen at No. 3 North Bartlett Singer Sewing Machine Company.

JUMPING JOE KICKS EVERYONE IN SIGHT IN PORTLAND MATCH

PORTLAND, Ore., Dec. 13.—(AP)—Here's the picture; you pick the winner.

Jumping Joe Savoldi, 220, Three Oaks, Mich., and Paul Boesch, 200, Brooklyn, N. Y., divided the first two falls of their wrestling match here last night. Then a flying dropkick spiraled Referee Vern Harrington from the ring.

Boesch then flattened Savoldi, pressed his shoulders to the mat and looked about frantically for someone to award the fall.

Finally Savoldi squirmed free and pinned Boesch as Harrington stepped back into the ring.

The crowd went home puzzled, but theorizing.

In a lively three-round semi-final Bonnie Muir, 205, Australia, and Mike Maszucki, 230, Los Angeles, wrestled a no-fall draw.

PAYMENTS OF ALIMONY ARE PROSPERITY SIGN

DENVER, Colo., Dec. 13.—(AP)—Add improved business conditions notes.

The registry of the district court reports payments of alimony and support money totaled about $126,000 for the first 11 months of this year, compared to $113,787 for all of 1933.

HUGHES LAUDED AS PRO PIGSKIN STAR

Bernie Hughes, former Medford high school football star, a member of the Chicago Bears, professional football team, was voted by mid-west sports writers the position of center on the second team of the all-American pro football squad.

Hughes is now with the Chicago Cards, coached by Paul Schlessler, former O. S. C. coach, on a barnstorming trip of the Pacific coast.

YOU MAY WIN FIRST PRIZE—X-Tra Egg Producer

—MAKER OF LARGER EGGS—

Egg Contest to End Dec. 15, 1934

All feeders of X-Tra Egg Producer have the privilege of taking part in this contest. The poultryman offering the largest dozen of hen eggs, regular, wins first prize. Bring in a dozen of eggs Friday or Saturday of this week—you may win first prize.

F. E. SAMSON CO.

Phone 833, 229 N. Riverside

SONS DRUB CCC QUINTET, 56 TO 4

ASHLAND, Dec. 13.—(Sp.)—A doubleheader at Ashland last night, the Southern Oregon Normal basketball team defeated the Yreka, California CCC quintet 56-4 and Ashland high dropped an exciting 38-29 verdict to the strong SONS freshmen outfit.

Wayne Scott, two year All-State man from Silverton, connected for twelve markers to lead the way for the SONS youngsters. The game was bitterly contested, the lead changing hands no less than ten times, with the SONS coming from behind in the last two minutes to ice the game.

In the main encounter, the SONS vastly held their opponents scoreless until the final minute of play. Wardlow Howell led the steady scoring parade with sixteen points while Old Hughes, former Medford's entire squad saw action. Half time count was 31-0.

Use Mail Tribune want ads.

JOE SAVOLDI MAY GRACE NEXT CARD

Promoter Mack Lillard announced today that Jumping Joe Savoldi, who ranks among wrestlers as the most famous kicker-upper, may extend his Medford visit for a week, after meeting Pete Belcastro, Italian wildcat, in Saturday night's main event.

Lillard is making negotiations with Savoldi, favored to win his match from Belcastro, for an appearance on next week's card against the winner of this week's semi-final bout between Red Devil, hooded demon, and Bonny Muir, popular Australian champ. Both Red Devil and Muir would like to take a crack at the "Greek god," especially the demon, who was at least temporarily put out of the running by a match last Thursday at the hands of Belcastro.

Should Pete, on the other hand, pull a fast one and win from Savoldi, he would then be in line for an appearance with the winner of the curtain raiser.

Use Mail Tribune want ads.

ASK FOR—REGAL in Quality AMBER in Color Thoroughly Aged BEER A QUALITY BREW On Draught or Bottle At Your Dealer REGAL AMBER DISTRIBUTORS 147 No. Hollis Phone 1274

GOOD APPLEJACK BRANDY... THAT'S THE DRINK FOR CHRISTMAS! USE HILDICK IN COCKTAILS, PUNCHES TOM-AND-JERRY —OR ON PLUM PUDDING! Tradition says "brandy" for Christmas. Be sure you get Hildick—the straight, mellow applejack brandy that's made only from sound, selected apples. Use Hildick just as you would whisky or brandy. Makes a fine Christmas Present. HILDICK Applejack BRANDY For recipe booklet, write Van Landingham Co., Bell Bldg., Portland

NOW AVAILABLE IN OREGON Great News! 100 PROOF RYE WHISKEY AGED-IN-WOOD 75¢ A PINT Here's a price for a straight 100 proof rye that makes Town Tavern one of America's greatest whiskey values! And remember it's good rye, because it is distilled under the supervision of National Distillers — stored in charred oak barrels 'til it's mellow and smooth. Try it today! TOWN TAVERN Straight Rye Whiskey 75c a Pint for No. 179-C

SAVE MONEY ON FERTILIZER by having your soil analyzed The modern, efficient soils analysis shows you what available elements you have in your soil so you won't waste money buying plant food elements already there. The first step in an intelligent effort to produce more Fancy and Extra Fancy Pears and Apples in a proper knowledge of the soil. The soil of every area is different from the soil of every other area. The thing to do is find out what plant foods your soils have and give them the right amount of what else they need. New Method for Soils Analysis Lillyco Soilchemist, Frank Mechener, makes a soil analysis to determine the nutrient conditions within the soil before making fertilizer recommendations, and the plant food content present, as indicated by this modern soil test, represents only the AVAILABLE supply and usually is quite different from ordinary soil analysis as made in the past which indicated the total mineral elements. We can on request usually supply the name of one of your neighbors who is successfully following a fertilizer program based on soils analysis. You can obtain a Lillyco Soil Analysis by placing a request through your distributor: American Fruit Growers, Medford. Pinnacle Packing Co., Medford. F. E. Sampson Co., Medford.