Two Features at Rialto

Fay Wray

Fay Wray has the role of member in a group of international jewel thieves in "Cheating Cheaters," on the Rialto theater's double feature program for today and Saturday. When the group finds their prospective "suckers" turn out to be competitors in "the racket," hilarious situations arise.

Cast of Funmakers In Craterian Film

With a great all-star cast of funmakers and heart-breakers, "The Captain Hates the Sea," opened yesterday at the Craterian theater to a vastly entertained audience. Directed by Lewis Milestone, the popular Wallace Smith novel presents a shipload of intrigue, surprising mishaps, romance and staggering surprises.

The cast is an imposing one. Leading roles are played by Victor McLaglen, John Gilbert, Alison Skipworth, Wynne Gibson, Helen Vinson, Walter Connolly, Fred Keatinge, Leon Errol, Walter Catlett and Tala Birell. Their adventures aboard the ship become interrelated in dramatic patterns. There is a crook fleeing with valuable negotiable papers he has stolen; a detective on his trail; the crook's accomplice, a girl, who, because of the detective, is obliged to pose as an innocent librarian; a newspaperman who has fallen as a Hollywood scenario writer, and who is returning to New York to try and forget the actress with whom he has fallen in love; a woman with a past, traveling with her husband who is ashamed of her past; and other colorful characters.

Precipitation Noted—Considerable precipitation was noted by the U. S. weather bureau at the municipal airport for the last 24-hour period. Up until 8 p. m. yesterday 31 of an inch of rain had fallen, and in the following 12 hours, 16 of an inch.

Tom Tyler at Roxy Saturday

Playing a desperate lone hand in a reckless, uncertain game, with life as the stake, Tom Tyler hits the trail again in "Fighting Hero," which comes to the Roxy theater tomorrow

Starts Sunday

Girls, melody and laughs play an equal part in campus comedy, "College Rhythm," coming Sunday to the Craterian theater, with Joe Penner heading the featured part.

"College Rhythm" presents Penner, Lanny Ross, Jack Oakie, Helen Mack, Lyda Roberti and Mary Brian in a story about the campus cut-ups who turned the department store business into a college football campaign.

The story has its beginning at State College, where Jack Oakie, as "Low and Klaus" Finnegan, a football hero, becomes Lanny Ross' deadly rival for the love of Mary Brian.

Their rivalry is carried over into the business world, but temporarily submerged when Oakie gets a job in the store owned by Lanny Ross' father.

Here he gets the bright idea of introducing collegiate atmosphere—beautiful girls, cheering sections and football teams—into department store business as a means of whipping up sales. Everything goes beautifully until their competitors start stealing their thunder.

The climax of the film comes after the big football game when Lanny Ross realizes that he does not love Mary Brian after all, but his father's demure little secretary, played by Helen Mack.

Half of Japan's factory workers are employed in the textile trades.
