

HUEY AND COACH HAVE RUN-IN ON TEAM HANDLING

Kingfish Barred by Biff Jones From Making 'Pep' Talk to Squad After First Half in Saturday's Game

BATON ROUGE, La., Dec. 17.—(AP)—Football officials of Louisiana State university attempted today to smooth the ruffled feelings of Senator Huey P. Long, Louisiana's political dictator, and Lawrence "Biff" Jones, Tiger football coach after their run-in on the football field Saturday over direction of the team.

Huey Long, became annoyed when Oregon led Louisiana State in the first half of their game Saturday, and he gave voice to his opinion on how the team was being handled. He sought to make a "pep" talk to the team at the half, but Biff Jones objected.

Coch Defies Dictator
The argument between so heated that his coach threw his hat to the ground and shook his finger under the senator's nose and refused to allow the senator in the team's room. The team came out at the half and won the game by one point, 14 to 13.

Both Long and Jones have refused to discuss the matter. Friends of both men are pessimistic over the prospects of patching up the break. Long is not accustomed to having his will blocked and Jones has insisted for the last two years that Senator Long let him run the team without interference. The coach came to Louisiana from West Point with that understanding.

The outbreak Saturday was an offshoot of Senator Long's fierce over making Abe Mickal, Tiger star, a state senator in a burlesque election on the college campus. Jones ordered Mickal not to report to the capitol for induction in office. That peeved the senator.

Says Jones Can't Quit
Senator Long said last night that Jones could not resign as he was in Louisiana on a military assignment from the war department. The war department at Washington declined to comment.

After the game Jones told university officials he would resign but he was persuaded to delay such action until Senator Long could be consulted. While the senator declines to comment on the incident, he did not appear enthused over the prospects of Jones remaining.

"Jones is a fair coach," he said. "There are some better and some worse."

STANFORD HAMPERED BY ILLS AND EXAMS

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Calif., Dec. 17.—(AP)—With doubt still hanging over whether the all-American star, Bobby Grayson, fullback, and James "Monk" Moscrip, end, will be able to see any extended play on New Year's day, Stanford's football team resumes practice today for its encounter with Alabama in the rose bowl classic.

Harrassed by end-quarter examinations and numerous injuries intermittent practice has been held during the past week.

OSSIE SOLEM HINTED TO SUCCEED HANLEY

CHICAGO, Dec. 17.—(AP)—Northwestern university was engaged in its search for a new head football coach—who may turn out to be Ossie Solem of Iowa—today, while Dick Hanley started looking for another job.

It was reported a "trade" of coaches between Iowa and Northwestern might follow Hanley's resignation yesterday, with Solem moving to Evanston, and the former Wildcat coach going to Iowa City.

BOWLING

Captain George Gates couldn't get steam up in his bowling team in their match Sunday with the Weeks and Orr quintet and lost two out of three to the furniture men who thus maintained their tie with the City Cleaners for league leadership.

Eads Transfer won the weekly prize for high match total with 2670 pins and Sanderson won the high individual match total with 603 pins.

OREGON HOOPERS WILL PLAY SONS

ASHLAND, Dec. 17.—(Sp.)—A rare treat is in store for southern Oregon basketball fans Christmas eve and Christmas night, when Billy Rinehart and his University of Oregon basketball team journeys to Ashland for a two-game series with the gigantic Southern Oregon Normal school team.

The games, to be played in the Junior high gym, will be the third and fourth staged between these two teams this year and the seventh and eighth in history.

The scores with the tallest team on the Pacific coast, split even with the Websters in a two-game series early in the season and hold an all-time lead in games won, 4-2.

Oregon finished second in the Pacific coast conference, northern division last year and is rated one of two teams to beat in the coming campaign. Washington, coast champions, is the other.

The two games will mark the high spot in the Southern Oregon Normal schedule, although several Northwest conference teams and barnstorming aggregations will be met, later.

NEW WRESTLING TALENT SOUGHT

With three of Saturday night's grapplers leaving this week for other fields, and with the fourth, Pete Belcastro, injured from his out-of-the-ring dive in the main event, Promoter Mack Lillard is up in the air today, as far as lining up the next card is concerned.

The promoter, announced that Jumping Joe Savoldi, at whom Belcastro's dive had been aimed, has departed for Chicago and his home at Three Oaks, overlooking Lake Michigan, and will not remain in Medford as had been hoped.

Red Devil, true to his reputation for mystery, is leaving for parts unknown, and his victim in the semifinal last Saturday night, Bonny Atter, took the south bound plane to Oakland Saturday night.

Despite the departures of these three grapplers and Belcastro's injuries, Lillard is at work lining up a new program for this week.

FOUR MORE WORKOUTS FOR ALABAMA SQUAD

UNIVERSITY, Ala., Dec. 17.—(AP)—Only four more workouts on the home field remained today for Alabama's unbeaten and untied football team before the crimson tide rolls west.

Coch Frank Thomas indicated the tide might have one more rough scrimmage before entraining for Pasadena Friday and the rose bowl contest with Stanford's Indians on New Year's day.

Long workouts with details on offense and defense were certain, as the tide hopes to be prepared for any flanking attempts, aerial shows or straight power smashes the Indians have cooked up for them.

ELKS OF GRANTS PASS ENJOY RING PROGRAM AS YULE FUND SMOKER

By Guy Teague
Attended by some 200 regular and visiting members, Grants Pass B. P. O. E. lodge held their annual stag smoker Saturday evening in that city.

The entire evening was filled with first class entertainment climaxed with five fast boxing bouts, that kept the audience in a continual uproar.

Headlining the evening's flistic card, Buzz Zimmerman technically knocked out Red Smith in the first round. In the preliminary bouts, Snyder defeated Kowderka in three rounds, while the matches between Stryker and Ellis, Davis and Bennett were even affairs both going to three round draws. These bouts were staged with CCG talent, furnished by Lieut. Jerome Geary of Camp Carberry.

Two other special bouts were provided for the entertainment of the assembled Elks. The first bout going as the curtain raiser, witnessed two young 85-pounders mixing blows for a three round draw. The second special event of the fight card came as a result of the short match between Buzz Zimmerman and Red Smith. Joe Gorham and Sammy Waite, former fight luminaries of the eastern states, put on a three-round comical exhibition that stole the show.

Proceeds from the smoker will go into the Elks charity fund to provide Christmas gifts for youngsters, and to distribute large baskets of food to the needy of Josephine county, both of these events are scheduled on the night of December 21. Due to the crowded conditions of last year, the Elks' Christmas tree will be located will be located at the Grants Pass armory in order to accommodate the throng of children that is expected to attend on December 21.

TURKEY SHOW IS LARGEST OF KIND

The annual Northwestern Turkey show, conducted at Oakland, Oregon December 12, to 15, was the largest of its kind ever conducted in the United States, according to a report brought to Medford today, in which it was announced that several Jackson and Josephine county growers received prizes.

There were 1018 entries in the show, conducted in the turkey building at Oakland, with 506 in the live class, and 512 in the dressed class, said to be larger than any such division ever shown.

Among those winning prizes from this section were James Milton of Rogue River, who placed 21st, out of a class of 65 young bronze hens. Mr. Milton also received the $5 prize given by the First National bank of Medford for the best display from Jackson county.

B. V. Hagerman of Selma rated 22nd and 30th place in the class of old toms, of which there were 39. Mr. Hagerman also was awarded the $5 prize given by the Josephine County bank of Grants Pass for the outstanding display from Josephine county.

S. E. Parrett of Grants Pass placed 5th in the young tom group of 35, while Mr. Hagerman of Selma placed 22nd.

21 RACE HORSES BURN IN INCENDIARY BLAZE

TORONTO, Dec. 17.—(AP)—Twenty-one race horses, including Ladder, owned by Frank E. Selke, and White Thorn owned by Selke and Conn Smythe, manager of the Toronto ice hockey team, were killed today in a fire believed to have been of incendiary origin at the Thornhill race track.

The first fire broke out in two unoccupied stables and was extinguished with little damage. While firemen were at work there however, a stable a half mile away was seen in flames, and Neil McArthur, caretaker, said that six fires were set in various parts of the track.

CHRISTMAS PLAY BY DRAMA CLUB

The Dramatic club of the Medford high school will present tomorrow afternoon at 1 o'clock "A Christmas Chime" as its usual Christmas play for students and friends of the Medford high school, according to an announcement late today by Mrs. L. H. Early, head of the dramatic club.

Characters for the play are: Joe Terrill, Dolph Jones; Gladys Terrill, wife of Joe; Betty Vilm; Dolly Waklee, Mildred Drury; Ted Owen, Bob Murphy.

The story is based on the reunion of a couple who previously broke off their engagement. The Terrills invited Dolly and Ted, whom they thought to be engaged, to their house for the Christmas holidays and ten minutes before they were to arrive the Terrills discover that the two have broken off their engagement and neither is coming if the other does. No truce is signed and the Terrills get them under the same roof. However, neither knew about the other's being there.

The play is interesting throughout and it is hoped that the students will enjoy it, according to Mrs. Early.

PORTLAND PUCKSTERS TROUNCE EDMONTONS

PORTLAND, Ore., Dec. 17.—(AP)—The unfortunate Edmonton Eskimos suffered their sixth consecutive defeat in the Northwest Ice Hockey league last night when the rampaging Portland Buckaroos set them down, 3 to 0.

The man flying through the air with the greatest of ease is J. H. Wallsmith of West Lafayette, Ind., and he's doing it to add pep to the cheering of Purdue university students at football games. The picture was snapped an instant after P. H. Sweet of St. Petersburg, Fla., yell leader, had flipped Wallsmith, an assistant, from the ground. (Associated Press Photo).

The victory put Portland in a tie with Vancouver for second place.

3. An expansion of subsistence homesteading with a further decentralization of industry.

4. Federal assistance to and control of the mineral industries to "minimize waste of natural resources, maintain reasonable wage standards and protect investments."

5. Surveys looking to the development of power, irrigation and flood control in 17 watersheds.

6. An end to heavy losses of soil caused by "uncontrolled erosion."

7. Better programs for "socially useful" public works and a lump sum from which the president could allot money under at least a six-year plan.

8. A permanent five-member planning agency to serve as an advisory "general staff" for the president to co-ordinate "long-time public works planning, land use, water resources, mineral policy and mapping."

The report made many other recommendations, covering increased land purchases; addition to forests, parks and wild life refuges; land uses, irrigation, grazing land extensions, Indian policies and state and regional planning.

The board, which began its study last summer at the request of Mr. Roosevelt, was headed by Secretary Ickes. Other members were Secretaries Perkins, Dern, Wallace, and Roper; Harry L. Hopkins, relief administrator; Frederic A. Delano, Wesley C. Mitchell and Charles E. Merriam.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 17.—(AP)—Establishment of a permanent land planning section of the national resources board was recommended today in the board's report to President Roosevelt.

To take advantage of information already in the hands of government officials the board suggested that an advisory committee to the land planning section be set up, composed of representatives of the federal bureaus primarily concerned.
