HOME LOAN EASING SUGGESTED BY F. R.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 18.—(AP)—A letter to the 48 governors suggesting modification of home loan restrictions to permit greater use of the federal housing program was made public today by President Roosevelt.

Mr. Roosevelt sent it at the request of James A. Moffett, housing administrator, who explained that "there are in the states various statutory limitations upon loans and investments which restrict ability to

IMPORT TAX CUT MAY BE KEY TO CHEAPER LIQUOR

WASHINGTON, Dec. 18.—(AP)—A move was gaining strength on Capitol Hill today to let domestic taxes on liquor stay where they are and force prices down through the give-and-take treaties with foreign nations.

Chairman Hill (D. Wash.) of the ways and means subcommittee which is studying the tax laws was one advocate of such a plan. Others feel "there are in the states various statutory limitations upon loans and investments which restrict ability to

MORE PROSECUTION LOOMS IN KIDNAP

OKLAHOMA CITY, Dec. 18.—(AP)—Federal officials today were laying the ground work for further prosecution in the Charles F. Urschel kidnaping, an investigation that has taken agents from one section of the country to the other.

Sixteen already have been convicted in the snatch case, a seventeenth has pleaded guilty, and federal indictments have been returned against four others—a record for kidnaping cases.

U. S. BISON TO RENEW BLOOD OF POLISH HERD

WARSAW (AP)—American bison presented to President Monckicki by Polish-Americans will serve to multiply Poland's depleted bison stock.

The war completely wiped out the animals in Poland but a fresh herd of 27 is now in Bialowiesza national forest. Of these thirteen are of pure European origin, the remainder being crossed with the American breed.

WASHER Albert Bates, pleaded guilty yesterday to a charge of conspiracy in the case after he, her son Edward Feldman; Alvin H. Scott, and two of the lawyers in the case were indicted. The two attorneys were Ben B. Laska, famous criminal attorney of Denver, who defended Bates, and James C. Mathers, Oklahoma City, who also aided in the defense.
