

Virginia Van Wie Rated Outstanding Feminine Sports Star 1934

THIRD CAPTURE OF GOLF TITLE WINS SPOTLIGHT

Helen Jacobs, Tennis Star, Rated Second in Poll of Nation's Sports Writers and Editors for Season

By ALAN GOULD (Associated Press Sports Editor.) NEW YORK, Dec. 20.—(AP)—To Virginia VanWie, 25-year-old girl who captured the United States women's golf championship this year for the third successive time, goes the distinction of being rated the outstanding feminine sports star of 1934. First women golfer to win this honor in the four-year history of the Associated Press sports poll, Miss VanWie gained the No. 1 ranking position, in competition with rivals in all women's sports, by vote of the country's sports editors and writers.

Although the poll disclosed a wide range of opinion, Miss VanWie finished with a substantial margin over her three closest rivals, Helen Jacobs, three-time national tennis champion; Lenore Knight and Katherine Rawls, famous swimmers, who were ranked in that order by the voting fraternity of experts.

Miss VanWie was put at the head of the list by 27 out of 123 observers and accumulated a total of 177 points, figured on the basis of all placings. Miss Jacobs, winner of the 1933 Associated Press poll, trailed Miss Knight in first place nominations, 16 to 19, but won second position on points with a total of 131 to Miss Knight's 89. Miss Rawls, the little Florida girl who holds all-around swimming honors, obtained 11 first place votes and 72 points.

Habe Is Fifth. Mildred (Habe) Didrikson, the Texas girl who was a 1932 Olympic sensation and won the No. 1 ranking position in that year's poll, finished fifth with 20 points, one more than Stella Walsh, Cleveland Polish girl and Olympic sprinting champion. Miss Didrikson, although not so conspicuous since she turned professional, attracted attention this year because of her latest demonstration of versatility by scoring a 77 in golf tournament.

Miss Didrikson and Olive McKean, Seattle swimming star, each received four votes for first place. Miss Walsh received three, Gienna Collett Vase and Eleanor Holm Jarrett, two each, and Dorothy Boudin, Anne Townsend, Maureen Orcutt and Mrs. Lela Hall, noted trapshooters, one each.

SINGH AND BOESCH ASHLAND DEFEATS GRAPPLE TO DRAW CRESCENT TWICE

PORTLAND, Dec. 20.—(AP)—Jagat Singh and Paul Boesch both left the ring unconquered after each gained a fall in a stirring 60-minute wrestling match here last night.

Singh, 215, the pudgy Hindu from Punjab, gained the first fall when Boesch missed a drop kick and was left unprotected for a body slam.

But Boesch, 220, Brooklyn, N. Y., later connected with a double drop kick which he followed up with a body press for a fall.

Earl McCready, 228-pound Canadian, used a flying body scissors and then was awarded the next fall on a foul in his match with Louie Becagalupi, 225, Hollywood.

A "buckaroo" hold was the undoing of Don Wagner, 226, Corvallis, in his match with Harry Kent, 225, Hillsboro. While Wagner was riding Kent with a body scissors, Kent lurches backward and crushed Wagner to the mat.

Ken Schilling, showed up very nicely, being a tower of strength on defense. Ashland high meets Dunsmuir high at Ashland Thursday night of this week.
