FIRE BOYS NEED ADDITIONAL TOYS FOR RENOVATION

In a last minute appeal to the people of Medford and vicinity, the Medford fire department is asking that their present supply of old and discarded toys be replenished. From present indications the annual drive to procure these articles for renovation will fall far short of the mark set for this year.

In co-operation with the Lady Lions, the local firemen are gathering up all the unwanted and around the city of Medford. These articles are repaired and painted by the city firemen and distributed to the less fortunate youngsters whose parents are not able to afford the little things that bring joy to the hearts of the kiddies.

The Lady Lions club, telephone 834-Y, are handling the distribution and collection of the toys and playthings. For the convenience of anyone having these articles, who does not want to keep them, call the Medford fire department at 849, or the Lady Lions club, and they will be immediately picked up.

"Babbitt"

"Babbitt" greatest of the Sinclair Lewis novels which brought to that distinguished author the honor of being the first American to win the Nobel prize in literature, is scheduled as the feature attraction at the Craterian theater for Sunday and Monday.

Transferred to the screen with all its subtle humor, its philosophy, its dramatic situations and its irony, and given a remarkable cast headed by Aline MacMahon and Guy Kibbee, the film version of "Babbitt" is expected to rival in popularity the book on which it is based.

Pocatello Kid

Ken Maynard plays a dual role in "The Pocatello Kid," which will be on the bill at the Rialto theater tomorrow.

In it Ken will be seen as the Pocatello Kid, an escaped convict seeking to escape from the pursuing posse, and as Jim Bledsoe, his brother, renegade sheriff, the tool of a band of unscrupulous cattle rustlers.

The action of the drama is fast and continuous.

A number of new tricks will be performed by "Tarzan," Ken Maynard's wonderful trained horse.

PLAINTIFF WINS, BUT LOSES $79

A result wherein a plaintiff in a civil action "loses when she wins" has arisen in the damage action of Ruby Knight against Charles Dodson and wife, according to Attorney Gus Newbury, a verdict giving Mrs. Knight $50 from Mrs. Dodson was returned by a Jackson county jury last month. No award was returned against Dodson.

Mrs. Knight was granted judgment against Mrs. Dodson for $81, making the total $81. Judgment was rendered against Mrs. Knight, in favor of Dodson, for $160. The two judgments, for and against, leave Mrs. Knight loser in the case by $79.

Mrs. Knight sued the Dodson's for $2500, alleged damages, as the result of a neighborhood fuss last summer in which a child was slapped. The litigants live on Beatty street this city.

CODDING WILL ATTEND PROSECUTORS MEETING

District Attorney George A. Coddling left last night for Portland to attend the annual meeting of the district attorneys of Oregon. He will introduce a resolution calling upon the next session of the Legislature to restore to the Oregon Criminal Syndicalism law the portion eliminated. The resolution holds that in its present form the criminal syndicalism law "is inadequate to curb the activities of organizations and agitators seeking to overthrow the American government by force."

The resolution combats the efforts of upstate organizations to have the criminal syndicalism law repealed.

"Among the Missing," at Rialto

"Among the Missing" at the Rialto theater for today and Saturday features a popular cast in the persons of Richard Cromwell, Henrietta Crosman, Billie Seward and Arthur Kohl. Dealing with a gang of jewel thieves, the story concerns an old woman, "Aunt Martha," played by Henrietta Crosman, who disappears from home only to become involved with the robbers, acting as their cook.

The situations that arise offer many surprises and thrills which lead to a startling climax.

Powell and Loy in "Evelyn Prentice"

After making big hits with their parts in "Manhattan Melodrama" and again in "The Thin Man," one expects a great deal from the team of William Powell and Myrna Loy. And "Evelyn Prentice," which opened yesterday at the Craterian theater comes through in fine style, with both stars again delivering memorable performances.

Again playing husband and wife, "Evelyn Prentice" has Powell and Miss Loy this time enmeshed in an amusing problem, worked out in one of the most dramatic courtroom scenes presented on the screen in many a month.

It is the drama of a great criminal attorney, who, on the eve of a second honeymoon with his wife, finds her enmeshed in the tangled maze of motives and evidence in which he is struggling to save a woman's life.

Myrna Loy, as Evelyn Prentice, the wife, whose mistake leads to the dramatic highlights of the picture, once again proves herself one of the most versatile actresses on the screen.

Numerous bits of comedy remind one of the light bits of the former picture, "The Thin Man," with the same delightful charm prevailing throughout the entire production.

he received word from Red Devil, who has reached El Paso, Texas, saying that the mysterious man wants to get a return engagement with Pete Belcastro, the Italian grappler who kicked him out of the ring here two weeks ago. Lillard says the hooded demon is on the warpath for Belcastro, and will meet him in a free-for-all, winner-take-all or any other type of match. Accordingly, the promoter is negotiating with Pete for the return tussle.

While the belligerent Italian is making up his mind Lillard will attempt also to sign up such big-time grapplers as Paul Borsch, the Brooklyn drop-kicker, or Louis Bagacalupi, the terrible Italian.
