

6 PER CENT BOOST IN WINTER WHEAT SEEDING IS SHOWN

Tendency to Expand Planting May Lead to Curb on Spring Seeding—Soil Still Too Dry in Drought Area

WASHINGTON, Dec. 21.—(AP) Production of winter wheat next year was estimated today at 475,000,000 bushels by the department of agriculture on the basis of seeding and condition of the crop on December 1. An increase of 6 per cent over 1933 seedings shown in the important winter wheat states of the great plains area, the crop reporting board said. "In the 1934 drought area, where forage and pasture were severely reduced, some of the fall seeding is probably attributable to seeding for pasture."

Expansion Seen "In some of the states there appears to be a tendency to expand winter wheat acreage which, if carried through the winter, would lead to reduction in spring wheat seeding next spring."

"Dry soil conditions still continued in the western part of these states from Kansas to Texas."

"The condition of the crop on December 1 indicates that abandonment of winter wheat will again be above average. Based on past relationships, it appears that abandonment of 1934 seedings will be in the neighborhood of 18 per cent."

"Abandonment of the 1933 seedings was 21.3 per cent, and the 10-year average is 12.2 per cent."

"A comparatively low yield per acre also is indicated by the condition and weather studies which indicate a winter wheat production to be harvested in 1935 of about 475,000,000 bushels. The 1933 crop was 408,034,000 bushels and the five-year average is 632,061,000 bushels."

Conditions Shown The condition on December 1 and acreage seeded to winter wheat in important producing states are:

Pennsylvania, condition 88 per cent, acreage 903,000; Ohio, 81 and 1,871,000; Indiana, 85 and 1,910,000; Illinois, 92 and 1,924,000; Michigan, 89 and 808,000; Missouri, 93 and 1,938,000; Nebraska, 79 and 3,247,000; Kansas, 71 and 13,049,000; Oklahoma, 76 and 4,685,000; Texas, 55 and 4,372,000; Montana, 82 and 906,000; Washington, 81 and 1,248,000; Oregon, 89 and 783,000.

MARTIN WANTS BOARD TO ADVISE HIM ONLY

PORTLAND, Ore., Dec. 20.—(UP)—A sub-committee of Governor-elect Charles H. Martin's state planning board, advised bluntly by Martin that the board is designed to advise him and not to dabble in legislation, met here today to discuss the proposed enabling act to authorize the board.

"My conception of this board is that it is to advise me," said General Martin. "You are an arm of my administration. If you start advising the legislature, you will take away my control."

AFTER CHRISTMAS

We go right on living after Christmas. In fact, with "the children" home from school and such visiting as the holidays usually inspire, we are as busy as ever. However, the right kind of a plan will help to give the hostess, or mother, more time to enter into the pleasures of the season. We offer some "whole meal" dishes which will be easy to prepare and easy to serve as our contribution to this plan for more time to enjoy after-Christmas days.

Noodle Ring With Creamed Ham

- (or left-over turkey)
- Noodle ring:
  - 3/4 cup noodles.
  - 3 eggs.
  - 1/4 teaspoon salt.

  - 1/2 cup cream.
- Creamed Ham:
  - 1 cup sliced ham.
  - 1 cup white sauce.
  - 1 tablespoon pimento strips.
  - 2 tablespoons green pepper strips.
  - 1 egg yolk.

Seasoning to taste. 3/4 cup mushrooms. Break the noodles into small pieces and cook until tender in rapidly boiling water. Drain. Beat the eggs until light then add the salt, onion, cheese and cream and combine with noodles. Pour into a buttered ring mold and bake at 325 degrees for 35 minutes. Place on platter and fill with creamed ham made as follows:

ART CLASS DOING CREDITABLE WORK

The art appreciation and oil painting class being instructed by Vivian Norman Barto under the adult eduational provision, is doing some creditable work.

The pupils completed their Thanksgiving and Christmas card projects and have advanced until they are able to do very attractive studies.

At the last lesson Mrs. Elmer Chamberlain and Mrs. John Kathon each completed landscapes of some merit and at the previous lesson Mrs. Charles Willis and Mrs. William Moore took home very worthy completed subjects, and others are doing good work.

In art appreciation and current events, lives and goings of world's artists, lives of old masters, copies of their work and many subjects of interest to artists, are taken up, studied and discussed, while the most pertinent world's news of the week comes in for notice. These lessons are free and anyone who feels an urge towards the artistic is most cordially invited to come to class. Paints and materials cost comparatively little, but each pupil is striving to own his or her own outfit, and will in time.

"Come Anyway, if you have no paint, and a way will be found to help you," is the instructor's invitation.

The class at present meets at the home of Mrs. Barto's mother, Mrs. Catherine N. Law, on Tuesdays and Fridays, at 1:30 p. m.

Cheese Cloth Cheated Soot.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn.—(UP)—Office workers of the Tennessee Valley authority here have struck on a simple remedy for soot which blows in through the windows. Over the open portion of the windows the workers have strung cheese cloth, which lets in the fresh air, but not the soot. As a result, desks are again spotless.

CAPITOL JANITORS MAKE READY FOR COMING SOLONS

For statehouse janitors are getting ready for Monday, January 14, when 30 senators and 60 representatives will open the 38th legislative assembly of the state of Oregon.

In the house, where a large oil painting of Jason Lee hangs above the desk which John E. Cooter, Toledo, Lincoln county, will occupy as speaker, a crew of workmen will be busy for nearly a month getting things in order.

The clock, stopped at 2:47 o'clock, is being made ready to tick off the minutes of 40 days and nights and to be stopped again if necessary while debate runs over the prescribed limit of the session.

In the senate chamber, above the desk where Harry L. Corbett, Multnomah county, expects to act as president, hangs a likeness of Dr. John McLoughlin, freshly dusted.

Decks shine with polish. The clock, its hands pointing to 7:37, has been oiled. Committee rooms are ready for long sessions.

The board of control has appropriated $850 for supplies. Legislators need envelopes, letterheads, legal size typing paper, blotters, carbon paper, typewriter ribbons, rubber bands, ink, mullage, paper clips, letter files, desk pads, erasers, stenographers' note-books, stamp pads, pencils, pen points and holders, rulers, scales, waste baskets, twine, binders for bills, index tabs, mimeograph stencils and letter trays.

CITY Lights Up Again. ALLIANCE, O.—(UP)—The city's street lights, half of which were discontinued early in the year as an economy measure, have been turned on again. Safety Director Mark Montague said the semi-darkened city had saved $12,000 by the move.
