Degree of Honor Has Yule Program

Music and readings fitting to the Christmas season marked an enjoyable meeting of the Degree of Honor society attended by a large number Thursday in the women's club rooms of the city hall.

Presented by the Juvenile Degree of Honor club members, the program was begun by singing Christmas carols, with Louisa Parker accompanying at the piano. Old Santa was present at the Christmas tree, and candy, nuts and gifts were distributed to everyone. Many of the members enjoyed dancing after the program.

The numbers were "Christmas Hurrah", Maurice Campbell; "Christmas Cheer", Marjorie Goddard; a harmonica solo, Marie Dietrich; a number by three tiny tots, Dickey Coats, Maxine Powell and Billy Powell; Yuletide songs by Naomi Hubler; "Song of Christmas," Shirley Goodman; "Jean's Christmas Gift," Jean Denman; tap dance by Virginia Hawley and Barbaretta Landize, accompanied by Mrs. Hawley at the piano; reading, "Mrs. Santa," Naomi Hubler; vocal duet, Jimmie Schultz and Paul Wagner; "Last Christmas Wishes" by the Juvenile club president, Catherine Campbell.

The service cap was presented to Ethel Bizer, and Jimmy Schultz was presented with earned honors, both presentations being made by the juvenile club director, Ida M. Wilson.

The next regular meeting of the Degree of Honor is to be held at the club rooms January 3, to install the officers for 1935. The Juvenile Degree of Honor will hold its next meeting January 5, and large attendances are urged at both meetings. The juvenile club will also install its new officers.

Mr. and Mrs. Lenox
Have Holiday Guests.

Mr. and Mrs. John G. Gore of Eugene are guests of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Lenox of 48 Rose avenue. Friends of Mr. Gore will be glad to learn he is convalescing from a recent operation.

Mrs. Edith Reader and daughter, Sarah Leigh of San Francisco are also guests over the holidays at the Lenox home. Mrs. Reader is a sister of Mrs. Lenox.

Hundred Attend Neighbors' Meet

Royal Neighbors with their families and invited friends, numbering about 100, met Thursday evening at the K. of P. hall where the following splendid program was enjoyed while the kiddies were waiting for Santa to appear.

Opening number, "Silent Night," by all present, with Margaretha Garrett at the piano; "Toy Maker's Dream," Vernon Thatcher, Margaretha Garrett, accompanist.

Miss La Murfe Beck, who is home from Mills for the holidays, gave two lovely solos, "Christmas Dawn" and "My Sister's Best Feller" with Marie Silvia at the piano; piano duet by Helen Richmond and Kenneth Jones; violin solo, "Oh Little Town of Bethlehem," Stanley Jones, accompanied by Cosetta Jones; group songs, "The Christmas Tree," Mary Glascock, Beverly Lovell; Darrell Shirley and Virginia Lovell; group of songs, Beverly Pearson, Annie Scripser, with Lucile Pearson with violin; violin solo, Frankie Silvia with Marie Silvia accompanying.

Piano solo, "Artel" by Margaretha Garrett; recitation, "Santa Is Coming," Elmer Bahay; arrival of Santa and distribution of treats and presents for all.

Illness prevented most of the serving committee from acting so a no-host committee served refreshments, bringing to a close a very pleasant Yuletide party.

Church Group Is Given Xmas Play

Sunny Sisters of the Presbyterian church met last week at the country home of Mrs. D. W. Luke. Luncheon was served at 1 p. m. by the hostess assisted by Miss Burr, Mrs. Arch Work, Mrs. Fanny Pickett, Mrs. J. H. Cochran and Mrs. N. C. Chaney.

Following luncheon a beautiful service was conducted by Mrs. Frank Albert. She read bible prophecies foretelling the coming of the Savior. It was a beautiful and impressive service.

After the business meeting, which was presided over by Mrs. Louis Brown, a Christmas play was given, entitled "What's the matter with Christmas?" The play was presented by Mrs. Hanby, Mrs. Arch Work, Mrs. J. H. Cochran, Mrs. Louis Brown, Mrs. A. C. Clemons, Mrs. Ralph Sweeney, Mrs. William Young and Elizabeth Burr.

Mrs. Heard's Aunt Holds Reunion On Century Birthday

ALBANY, Ore., Dec. 22.—(Sp.)—Mrs. Angelina Carter, of 22, northern Benton county, who celebrated her hundredth birthday on December 18, will be honored today at a family reunion to be held in her home. Mrs. Carter expects nearly all of her lineal descendants, of whom there are 44, including 4 children, 27 grandchildren, 29 great-grandchildren, 3 great-great-grandchildren and 5 great-great-great-grandchildren, six generations in all.

Mrs. Carter refuses to accept aid with her household and lives alone, preparing her own meals and even splitting the wood if none of her relatives are about.

She was born December 18, 1834, in Missouri, the daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Leander Bellu.

Coming with her parents to Oregon in 1843 Angelina was married to Tolbert Carter near Dallas in 1850. Mr. Carter died in 1899. The couple moved to the Wells community in 1852 and Mrs. Carter has resided on the same farm ever since.

Mrs. Carter is an aunt of Mrs. C. C. Heard, who lives on the highway south of Medford.

Junior Musicians Have Xmas Party

The Junior Musicians met for their regular meeting and Christmas party at the studio of their teacher, Mrs. Effie Yeoman, Thursday evening. Gifts were exchanged among the members and an interesting program to which each one contributed was enjoyed.

Musical games and contests were held and all sang carols for their guests. Katherine Gentner played "Humoresque" by Dvorak, and the story of "Funeral March" by the Marionettes" was read and then interpreted at two pianos by Mrs. Yeoman and Mrs. Sims.

Refreshments of popcorn balls were served.

Members present were: Katherine Gentner, Laura Gentner, Philip Henselman, Rhoebe Swem, Katherine Youmans, Grace Youmans, Norene Bohner, Joan Willard, Robert Pittenger, Joyce Sims, Neva Croucher, Donald Croucher. The guests were Mesdames Croucher, Sims, Gentner and Bobby Forsythe.

The next meeting is to be held January 9.

Miss Helen Smith
High in Bridge Score

On Friday evening a public card party was held at the Redmen hall, sponsored by the Wenonah club. The committee in charge of the cards was Sarah Tolle and Velma Singler.

High scores in bridge were held by Helen Smith and Jack Dooms and low scores were received by Florence Rush and Harold Waltermire. In pinchle high scores went to Carrie Milnes and Otis Hubbard, while low scores were held by Gladys Dooms and Ed Pettit. In 500 high score went to Maude Abbott and low to Maggie Eskline.

Refreshments were served by Carrie Milnes, Dorothy Watkins, Lena Gunther, Maggie Erskine, Mabel Quenbush and Mary Zundell.

Guild Has Annual White Xmas Tree

The Greater Lake Guild had its annual White Christmas tree Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Everett Faber. Mrs. W. E. Tunny gave a fine Christmas devotional on the subject "Our Savior from the Eternal Past to the Eternal Future."

The following program was then presented: Duet, "Oh Little Town of Bethlehem" by Mrs. James Grigaby and Mrs. Gerald Barr accompanied by Mrs. Wm. McAllister; reading, "Star in Bethlehem" by Mrs. Jewett of Central Point; vocal solo, "Once in Royal David's City" by Mrs. Maurine Duncan accompanied by Mrs. Barr.

Mrs. Faber read the story entitled "A Christmas Vision." Refreshments and Christmas candle favors were served by the hostesses, Mrs. Faber, Mrs. Barr and Mrs. Grigaby.

Mrs. Myers Hostess to Fidelity Circle

Mrs. O. V. Myers was hostess to the Fidelity circle of the First M. E. church at her home on the old North Pacific highway Tuesday afternoon. A dessert luncheon was served at 1:30, after which the business meeting was held. Mrs. Koppes, president of the circle, presided at the meeting. Devotions were led by Mrs. Smith.

At the close of the business meeting a fat Santa appeared and distributed gifts from a tiny Christmas tree.

Those present were: Mesdames Agnes Koppes, C. H. Berry, E. C. Koppes, A. E. Lyman, Mabel Barrett, E. G. Roseborough, Mary Smith, E. Hitzler, C. C. Van Scoyoc, Alma Mortensen, Ray Anderson, H. C. Morris, Nellie Wall, and the hostess, Mrs. Myers.

Christmas Program Given By Washington School

Teachers of the Washington school were in charge of an interesting program Friday evening at the school, in the annual Christmas party given by the P.-T. A. Each room presented a number in the entertainment.

The children and teachers filled 25 baskets to be distributed on Christmas to families in the rural districts, and those in charge expressed their appreciation for the generous contributions. Santa Claus was present at the Christmas tree, giving a treat to each child. A large attendance enjoyed the program.

Give Yourself This Christmas Present
52 Weeks in the Year!

DAMP WASH SERVICE 52c
For 13 lb. Bundle to each add. pound

THIS is the month you want to get washday out of your home. Just before Christmas when you have so many interesting and important things to do—and there you are, spending hours in the steamy basement, wearing yourself out, doing the family washing!

Think of that. Think of this. By sending your washing to us this week, and every week from now on, you'll really be giving yourself 52 Christmas presents a year! You'll be giving yourself 52 extra days to do the things you really enjoy doing. And you'll save money besides. For our marvelous new Damp Wash Service actually costs less than you're paying for your washday supplies. In fact, the money you save this way, will be like an extra Christmas fund.

You'll love the way we wash your clothes, too. For we coax out every trace of soil and dirt in rich warm suds of purest soap. Then we rinse them in gallons and gallons of rain-soft water. And we only charge 52 cents for the average size bundle of 13 pounds, and 4 cents for each additional pound.

Step to the phone — call our number, and tell us to send for your bundle. We'll be there any day you say. And Merry Christmas to you every week next year.
