

Theatrical and Amusement Page

Local and Personal

Mrs. Bates Ill—Mrs. Henry Bates has been confined to her home the past ten days with flu. She is slowly improving.

On Furlough—Herbert Hawkins, member of the CCC district, left yesterday morning on the train for Eugene, on furlough.

Arrive from East—Mrs. Nellie Crawford and her mother, of Otto, Wyo., arrived by train yesterday and will make their home at Phoenix.

Here Shopping—Mrs. Myrtle Whipple of Rogue River was in Medford yesterday shopping, having arrived on the morning train.

At Sacred Heart—John R. Knight, well known violinist, was taken to the Sacred Heart hospital Thursday morning for medical attention.

Goes to Portland—Mrs. Esther Church Leake left by train last evening for Portland to spend the Christmas holidays with her husband.

Here from Portland—O. P. Brown and W. Sundberg, both of the Publishers Service Bureau, Portland, are in Medford this week attending to business.

Leave for North—Mr. and Mrs. James W. Grigsby and James Grigsby, Jr., left Saturday for Stayton, Ore., to spend the holidays visiting with Mrs. Grigsby's mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Yantis.

Groves Arrive—Mr. and Mrs. M. O. Groves of San Francisco, arrived yesterday by train to visit in Medford over the holidays with Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Witham, and with Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Penland of Fern Valley.

Here from Portland—Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Robertson of Portland arrived yesterday by train to spend the week end visiting here with Mrs. Robertson's mother, Mrs. W. R. Pittenger, and with her brother, C. C. Pittenger.

Gentner Back—L. G. Gentner, of the Southern Oregon experiment station returned from Corvallis Thursday afternoon, where he spent four days attending the annual conference of agriculture and home economics staffs at Oregon State college.

Holiday in South—Mrs. C. M. Houston and daughter, Ethel M. Houston, left on Friday evening's train to spend the holiday vacation with relatives in San Francisco and San Jose, Cal. Miss Houston will return the first of the year to resume her teaching in Jackson school while Mrs. Houston will extend her visit to about the middle of January.

Underpass Open—The underpass on the Pacific highway north of Ashland is now open to traffic, first cars having passed through the new section Saturday afternoon. The project, necessitating several months' work, eliminates a section of narrow highway, and removed, in the railway crossing, one of the most dangerous traffic hazards on the highway.

To Portland—W. M. Van Scoyoc left last night by train for Portland.

Rev. Reynolds Leaves—Rev. L. A. Reynolds left yesterday on the morning train for Portland.

Leaves for South—Lotta Caldwell left for San Francisco last evening by train.

To Marshfield—Miss Kathryn Fiedberg left yesterday by train for Marshfield, to spend the holidays at her home. She is attending St. Mary's Academy in this city.

Visiting From North—Misses Dorothy Rogers and Anne Forbes of Seattle, Yakima and Takoma, arrived in Medford last week and are visiting with Miss Rogers' uncle, W. D. Yant, of Central Point.

Gray Visits—Earl Gray, former Medford high school student, is visiting in Medford over the holidays at his home, having arrived from March Field, Cal., where he is with the army air corps.

Car Found—City police received word Friday from the Eugene police department, stating that the Chevrolet car belonging to F. A. Hubbard of Fort Klammath, stolen from the rear of the Model rooms the night of Dec. 11, was found in Eugene.

Zamzra Apprehended—Joseph Lester Zamzra, 16, of 402 1/2 1/2th New- town, was given a $10 suspended fine in city court on charges of violating a basic traffic rule, following an accident Friday morning in which his car collided at Fourth and Central streets with an auto driven by J. E. Randles, of 413 South Central.

Poster Drives Truck—Contrary to a misstatement Friday in the Mail Tribune concerning an accident Thursday morning at the intersection of Fourth and 1st streets, the Medford-Crescent City truck line vehicle was being driven by Clarence Foster, of Grants Pass. The car which collided with the truck was being driven by Harry C. Ows, of 124 Hamilton street, this city.

Week End Visitor—Miss Dorothy McArthur, of the general Standard Oil offices at San Francisco, arrived yesterday on the ship to spend the week end in Medford with her mother, Mrs. J. W. Day, Miss McArthur, formerly with the Standard Oil Co. offices in this city, will be accompanied south by Miss Anna Castagneto of Nampa, Idaho, who is her house guest in Medford.

Janouch Returns—Karl Janouch, supervisor of Rogue River national forest, returned Thursday morning by train from Portland, having attended a committee meeting held for the purpose of making preparations for the expansion of the forest service development program to be begun when advocated in congress. Janouch was a member of a committee of three appointed by the Portland regional offices, other members were Superintendents Plumb of Olympia national forest, and Superintendent John Irwin, of Umatilla.

Edward G. Robinson at Rialto

"The Man With Two Faces," a melodramatic murder mystery thriller, opens at the Rialto theater today with Edward G. Robinson in the stellar role.

Studio Today

A poignant and strikingly human treatment of an age-old theme is said to be given in the picturization of the famous novel by Somerset Maugham, "Of Human Bondage," which opens today at the studio theater.

Air Commander Weds—NEW YORK, Dec. 22.—(AP)—Commander Charles Rosendahl of the United States navy, former commander of the dirigible Los Angeles and survivor of the crash of the Shenandoah, and Miss Jean Wilson of Los Angeles were married today in the Little Church Around the Corner.

"Babbitt" Opens at Craterian

"Babbitt," Sinclair Lewis' best-selling novel, comes to the Craterian theater today, with Aline MacMahon and Guy Kibbee in the leading roles. The book was read and enjoyed by millions. It depicts, in a colorful and picturesque way, the follies of a fairly successful business man who is so convinced of his own shrewdness that he falls an easy prey of a scheming banker and politician and later is played for a sucker by a designing widow who punctures his egoism and nearly causes his ruin.

Burns and Allen Featured at Roxy

George Burns and Gracie Allen are of on another merry frolic, this time in "Many Happy Returns," opening today at the Roxy theater. Most of the funny business centers about the dizzy personality of Miss Allen. Presented as a love-stick girl, enamored of Radio Announcer George Burns, she wrecks her father's department store business through insane mismanagement and is accepted by her radio idol only when he is offered $30 for every mile he takes her from home.

John Henry Devlin. Funeral services for the late John Henry Devlin will be held at the Sacred Heart Catholic church Monday morning at 10 a. m. Rev. Father Wm. J. Meagher and Rev. Father Francis W. Black officiating. Interment in the Jacksonville cemetery. Rosary will be held at the Perpetual Home this evening at 7:30.

P. G. E. Rates Reduced. PORTLAND, Ore., Dec. 22.—(AP)—Franklin T. Griffith, president of the Portland General Electric company, which today announced a 15 per cent voluntary reduction in rates in Washington, Yamhill and Clatsop counties, said the reduction had been in mind for a year. Use Mail Tribune want ads.

STORM WARNINGS ON OREGON COAST

PORTLAND, Ore., Dec. 22.—(AP)—Storm warnings were ordered up at the mouth of the Columbia river and at Washington coast stations today. The weather bureau reported increasing southwest winds which were expected to reach gale force this afternoon and tonight. Small craft warnings were flying along the Oregon and Washington coastlines.

LEGION TREE FOR CHILDREN TODAY

This afternoon (Sunday) at 2:00 o'clock, the annual Christmas tree for children will be presented in the senior high school auditorium by Medford post of the American Legion. Earl Fox, commander, announces that between 1500 and 2000 packages will be distributed to all children under 10 years of age who attend, and that a program of music and dancing numbers entertaining to grownups will be presented. The annual Christmas night dance of the Legion is to be held Tuesday at Oriental Gardens, with plans being completed for a good party.

Shows Today—1:45 3:15—7:00—9:00
Adults—25c Kids—10c

RIALTO

The Ideal Xmas Gift—Hunt Theatres Coupon Book
AVAILABLE IN $2.50 and $5.00 SIZES.—ASK THE CASHIER

Today and Monday

The Modern Jekyll and Hyde!

HE WILL make you believe the impossible!

EDWARD G. Robinson in "The Man With Two Faces" with MARY ASTOR RICARDO CORTEZ MAE CLARKE

EXTRA! Young Romance Comedy "Three Cheers For Love" City of Golden Gate Newsreel

ALSO — Popeye Cartoon, "STRONG TO THE FINISH" SPOTLIGHT, "FLYING BODIES" HEADLINER, "ALL ON DECK" — NEWS Continuous Shows Sunday 1:30 to 11 p. m.

ROXY 20¢ ANYTIME KIDNEY 10¢ Starts TODAY

Hey, Guy! It's LOMBARDO... waving his magic baton at the Royal Canadians, bringing you "the sweetest music this side of heaven!"

By George, It's BURNS... the groom, the honeymoon counting his dowry and telephone poles, the no-accountant!

Goodness Gracie, It's ALLEN... the screen's most alluring dumbbell as a blushing bride! There was romance in her soul, but she married a heel!

MANY HAPPY RETURNS

A Musicomed Lay... the Merry, Merry Month of... with GUY LOMBARDO and his ROYAL CANADIANS GEORGE BURNS • GRACIE ALLEN

TODAY and MONDAY ONLY!

The Hilarious Encore to "Big Hearted Herbert"

They took his watch—and gave him the works!

He's a 100% Big Shot!... 25% wind bag... 25% smart alec... 25% sap... and even a wife like Aline MacMahon can't keep him out of trouble! Two glorious funsters at their best in the story that tore the doors off Main Street and made a hundred million Americans laugh at themselves—and like it!

SINCLAIR LEWIS' Babbitt
Now Made Real by those famous scream-mates—ALINE MACMAHON GUY KIBBEE
And CLAIRE DODD • MAXINE DOYLE • MINNA GOMBEL

• ADDED •
Our Gang Comedy "HONKEY DONKEY"
"TOYLAND BROADCAST" NEWSREEL

Xmas Day - A Gala Holiday Program!

On The Stage
"Sunkist Vanities"
25 People — 8 Acts
8 Piece Girl Band

On The Screen
"DESIREABLE"
with JEAN MUIR
GEORGE BRENT
JOHN HALLIDAY