To Kiddle — G. T. Blundell left Saturday by train for his home at Kiddle, Ore., having been employed here for the past four months.

To Corvallis — Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hoyer left Saturday by train for Corvallis to visit over the holidays with Mrs. Hoyer's mother, Mrs. A. Hawk.

Piano Class Wednesday — The Tuesday night piano class, under direction of Mrs. Minnie Guy, will meet on Wednesday this week in the county courthouse auditorium, at 7:30 p. m.

Forfeits Bail — Jack Bailey of this city forfeited $10 cash bail upon failing to appear in justice court last week, having been arrested by city police on drunkenness charges.

Here from Portland — Miss Ruth Nye of Portland arrived Saturday by train and is spending the holidays at Talent, visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Nye.

Package Found — A package containing a hot water bottle was found on the courthouse steps, and has been turned in to city police. The owner may recover it at the city police station by identifying it.

North for Holidays — Mrs. L. W. Myers of 1016 East Jackson street left Saturday by train for Portland, to spend the Christmas holidays visiting with her daughter, Mrs. Edith Chance, and her son, O. C. Myers.

Miss Chandler Leaves — Little Miss Adella Chandler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Chandler, left by train Saturday morning to spend the holidays at Portland, visiting with friends.

Stops Briefly — Mrs. T. J. Crabtree of Marshfield stopped in Medford briefly on the Shasta Saturday, to see her sons, Lawrence and Glenn, and families. Mrs. Crabtree is enroute to Old Mexico to spend the holidays.

Returns from North — Mrs. Carl Stuart returned Friday night from Walla Walla, Wash., where she had been called by the sudden death of her sister, Mrs. Thomas Gilkerson, who passed away last Monday night. The funeral was Thursday.

Holiday Visitors — Mrs. Etta Gunster of Portland arrived Saturday morning on the Oregonian to spend the Christmas holidays here visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Vance Wolgamott, here sister and brother-in-law.

Leave for Dallas — Mrs. Martha Bills and her granddaughter, Joyce Tompkins, left Saturday morning by train for Dallas, Ore., to spend the holidays with Mrs. Bills' son, Thomas Heckathorne.

Attends Funeral — Bert Neimoyer of Fresno, Cal., arrived Saturday morning by train to attend the funeral yesterday of his brother, the late Jean Neimoyer, who passed away Thursday evening.

Williams Fined — Clarence Williams, about 21, of 27 Tripp street, was fined $10 in city court Friday, having been arrested early Thursday by city police on charges of being drunk in a public place.

Morris Calls — E. R. Morris of Eugene, district supervisor of state liquor stores for the Oregon state liquor control commission, was in Medford on official business Friday and Saturday.

Reports Theft — Warren Kelso of route 4, box 136, reported to city police that he believes a suitcase and brown barracks bag were stolen out of a friend's car Friday night on South Front street. The suitcase contained a correspondence course with National Electric and Radio.

Azalea Bloom — Larkin Reynolds, upon arriving in Medford the latter part of last week from the north, displayed some azalea blooms which he said he found blooming abundantly near Myrtle Creek. Besides being apparently none the worse for the cold weather, the blossoms are quite fragrant.

Makes Canned Fruits — Mrs. D. H. Heller of Hugo, Ore., 12 miles north of Grants Pass, prepares many varieties of canned fruits and nuts in her home, which have gained considerable praise from Medford people who have purchased or been sent them for Christmas gifts. Such fruits and nuts as white figs, black and red cherries, peaches, quinces, apricots, almonds, walnuts and filberts are prepared by a process which retains their full flavor.

Another Christmas season's come, and with it new hopes are begun. We send to you a cheerful greeting—May our paths be often meeting.

Stage Show at Craterian Tomorrow

Mary Keith, with her sister, Theo, heads the cast of the "Sunkist Vanities" coming to the stage of the Craterian theater for tomorrow only in a stage revue said to be one of the most novel as well as entertaining units to play here.

Booked in here especially for the Christmas holiday, "Sunkist Vanities" has Harry Berry, producer of the revue as comedian, singer,

At Rialto Christmas Day

For their Christmas show, the Rialto theater has booked in a lively, entertaining comedy drama, "The Richest Girl in the World," with Miriam Hopkins and Joel McCrea heading the cast.

The story has Miss Hopkins as the world's wealthiest girl searching for complete happiness, for herself alone, rather than via her money, and the resultant complications that ensue when she meets the one man she considers might be interested in her, in spite of her wealth.

At Community—Among those receiving medical care at the Community hospital the latter part of the week were Cecil Jennings of 325 South Ivy street, Mrs. Florence Young of 1405 North Riverside, and Mrs. J. E. Bailey of Beatty street.

MERRY CHRISTMAS
...and what a swell show we'll have for you...!
STARTING TOMORROW
If I Were Dictator!

I would command every theatre-goer to see "The Richest Girl in the World."
BECAUSE... It has the beauty of "Little Women."
The nonchalant humor of "The Thin Man."
The delightful romance of "It Happened One Night."

BUT... since I am not a dictator I can only GUARANTEE A REFUND to anyone who does not agree that this picture is... GRAND ENTERTAINMENT!

Sincerely,
EINO HEMMILA,
