

Breaks Will Decide Rose Bowl Battle Declare Head Coaches

EXPECT EVEN ODDS IN WAGERING WHEN STRUGGLE STARTS

Teams To Be Full Strength For Annual Classic—Ideal Weather Forecast—Kick-off Scheduled for 2:15

To Broadcast Game
PASADENA, Calif., Dec. 31.—(AP)—The Stanford-Alabama Rose Bowl football game will be broadcast over the National Broadcasting network tomorrow afternoon, beginning approximately at 1:30 p. m. Pacific standard time from Station KFI.

By PAUL ZIMMERMAN
Associated Press Sports Writer
PASADENA, Cal., Dec. 31.—(AP)—Head coaches of the Alabama and Stanford football teams agreed today that victory in the Rose Bowl classic game tomorrow will go to the eleven capitalizing on the breaks.
"I feel that the two squads are so closely matched," said Coach Frank Thomas of the Crimson Tide, "that the breaks will decide this game. Naturally, I hope we get them."
Claude (Tiny) Thornhill boomed the same thought in his deep bass voice, but he enlarged upon it.
"The team that makes the breaks," said towering Tiny, "and then takes advantage of them, should win. I say, 'makes the breaks' because that is just what a good football team does."
"Blocked punts don't just happen. Most of the time they are premeditated bits of strategy. And fumbles come more often from hard, clean tackling than from bad handling of the ball."
These carefully chosen remarks were made before the two mentors took their squads to their final practice for the New Year's classic to be enacted before a capacity crowd of approximately 85,000 persons.
For the most part, the coaches feel their teams will be at full strength. Thomas of the southern eleven is still a bit dubious about Jim Angelich, first string halfback, who has a weakened ankle.
Near Full Strength
Thornhill is convinced every man save, possibly, Keith Topping, regular end, will be ready for a full and fierce battle.
While the odds on the game were quoted at 7 to 8 in favor of Alabama, six points, little betting was being done except at even money and it was expected there would be no favoritism by game time tomorrow.
Ideal weather was forecast. The opening kickoff was called for 2:15 p. m. Probable starting lineups:
Alabama—Stanford
Don Hutson—LT—James Mosebr
Bill Lee (C)—LT—Bob Reynolds

Gets Chance for Revenge

Red Demon, masked and mysterious grappler, will get his chance on Thursday night for revenge for the rough treatment handed him by Pete Belcastro, versatile Sacramento, in their recent match here when Pete drop-kicked his burly foe into the third row of ringside seats. The two have been signed by Promoter Mack Lillard for a return match.

EAST WEAKENED BY INJURIES TO BACKFIELD STAR

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 31.—(AP)—Another injury today weakened the squad of 22 college football players from beyond the Mississippi, as they wound up training for the tenth annual east-west charity contest here tomorrow.
Doug Nott, Detroit backfield star, limped from an ankle sprain grown stiffer since the injury occurred in a practice Saturday at the east's Berkeley camp.
The Detroit player joined "Pug" Lund, Minnesota halfback, recovering from a severe cold, on the doubtful list. Duane Purvis, Purdue halfback, has a torn knee tendon which is expected to keep him out of the game.
Though Nott and Lund were both expected to see some service in the game, their doubtful status and the injury to Purvis caused sentiment among fans to swing sharply to the 22 western stalwarts. Even money, instead of the previous 10 to 8 odds for the east, was reported available.
Andy Kerr and Dick Hanley, eastern coaches, indicated they may use an air attack against the heavy western line, leaving the ground assault burden to Izzy Weinstein, line smashing Pitt fullback.
A dry field with partly cloudy skies was indicated for the game by the weather bureau forecast.
Probable starting lineups announced by the rival coaches were:

Morse, Oregon
Maddox, Kansas State
Stacey, Oklahoma

Barber, S. F. U.

SKI JUMPING BARRED BY ADDITIONAL SNOW

GOVERNMENT CAMP, Ore., Dec. 31.—(AP)—Several thousand ski-jumping enthusiasts drove to this winter sports center for the opening winter tournament of the Cascade Ski club Sunday, only to receive the disappointing news that nearly three feet of new snow had necessitated a postponement of the scheduled tournament.
A brief period of sunshine early in the afternoon made it appear that the tournament might open on schedule, but a fresh snow flurry shortly before starting time eliminated any chance that the sports carnival might be held today.

NOT SO 'DIZZY' AT THAT

PETE AND DEMON SIGN TO GRAPPLE IN RETURN MATCH

After finally persuading Pete Belcastro, belligerent Italian wrestler, to risk his neck again at the hands of one of the toughest and roughest matmen with whom he has ever tracked grips and grunts, Promoter Mack Lillard announced today that he has made definite arrangements with the colorful Italian for a return bout with Red Devil, the mysterious miened, next Thursday night at the armory.
Hal Rumberg, 225-pound grappler from Spokane, will tangle in the semi-final of the double-barrelled card with Joe Hubka, former University of Nebraska athlete who took the wind out of Tony Catalano's sails last week.
A return tussle between Red Devil and Belcastro will give local fans just what they have been hoping for ever since they saw the cocky Italian snap out of a terrible lacing several weeks ago and drop-kick the big demon clear into the third row of spectators, as he was trying to climb into the ring.
Suffering from an injured back and carrying a wicked gleam in his eye for just such men as Belcastro, the hooded one packed up his scarlet draperies and hid himself to Texas, where he has been recovering from the kick and vowing vengeance ever since.
Pete, not so sure he wants to undergo another brow-beating like he received through most of the first match, has hemmed and hawed about the arrangement for several weeks, but finally hitched up his belt, told Lillard he'd send the big miened scampiering farther than Texas this time, and agreed to take another whack at him.

Land bank of Spokane, Production Credit Council, Federal Intermediate Corp., bank and Bank for Co-Operatives.

He received the highest vote among six candidates nominated and balloted on by the local directors of the Pacific northwest's 30 production credit associations. They make production loans to their stockholding members on a sound business basis at actual cost. Mr. Brown succeeds W. S. McCormack of Kallispell, a veteran member of the land bank board, whose term expired December 31.

They play Toledo high tonight, after which they will wind up their tour by playing Astoria, defending state champions, Tillamook and Salem. The last three games will be against tough competition.

More frequent service is expected to be afforded, Klippel said, "after all the kinks of operation have been ironed out by experience."

PORTLAND, Dec. 31.—(AP)—Heavy workouts were over and a day of rest was the prospect in store here today for the all-star high school football teams of Oregon and Washington, who meet in a charity game at Multnomah stadium on New Year's day.
Coach Porter Lathrop put his Washington squad through a skilful practice during Sunday morning, and then sent them through a light scrimmage session during the afternoon.
The Oregon group, under the tutelage of Coach Eric Waldorf, spent a much harder day, scrimmaging all during the afternoon and then tapering off the day's activities with an hour of signal drill.
The Washington team will have a considerable weight advantage over the Oregon group, averaging 192 pounds to the man.
The game is scheduled to start promptly at noon.
