Students Leave As Holidays End.
With the close of the Christmas holidays, during which Medford has been the scene of much entertainment and celebration among the younger set, many students are leaving to resume their studies at school. The spring vacation will find many of them returning to Medford for the next holiday during the winter and spring terms.

Among those leaving last evening by train were the Misses Frances and Lucile McCormick, who are returning to University of Oregon after spending the holidays at their home here.

Leaving on the afternoon bus yesterday were the Misses Elizabeth Eason, Marguerite Boyle, Gertrude Boyle and Ruby Stone, who are returning to Oregon State college, and Evelyn Leonard, who is entering O. S. C. this term.

Miss Sybil Jean Young left yesterday for Corvallis, where she is a student at Oregon State college.

Misses Suzette Stennett, Rosa Gore and Jeanne Quisenberry are among others leaving this week. Miss Stennett is returning to Oregon State college, Miss Gore and Miss Quisenberry to the university.

Bud Hayes left last night by train for the university with Robert Hall of San Francisco, guest here at the Dr. James C. Hayes' home before continuing north. John Wells returned to University of Oregon early this morning.

Leaving yesterday by auto were Tom Emmens, Noel Benson and Richard Reum, who will resume work at the university, as will Richard Steeter, Robert and Bill Prentice, David Lowry and Richard Proebstel.

Sam Kroschell and Wildon Colbaugh are among those returning to Oregon State college, while Tom White is leaving for University of Washington. Clarence Woods of Ashland, who has been spending the Christmas holidays with relatives and friends in southern Oregon, left last night by train for Eugene, where he is attending the university.

D. E. Moore left yesterday for Portland to return to school, having spent the holidays at his home in Medford.

Ramstroms Among Hosts on New Year's

Among hosts and hostesses on New Year's eve were Mr. and Mrs. H. Ramstrom and family of Green Acres, near Central Point. Sixty-five guests were invited and entertained at dancing as the old year ended and the new began. Refreshments were served during the evening.

As Mr. and Mrs. Ramstrom and family entertain each New Year's eve for their many friends, the party has become a custom at Green Acres.

Arthur Relief Corps To Install Officers

Chester A. Arthur Relief Corps No. 54 will hold installation of officers at the Armory Thursday, January 3, with an all-day meeting. A covered dish luncheon will be held at noon and members are requested to bring their own table service.

Members of Central Point Relief corps will be guests of the local corps.

Miss Sweeney and Guest Leave for North

Miss Mary Martha Sweeney who has spent the Christmas holidays here at her home, left last evening by train for Portland, accompanied by Miss Helen Funk of Eugene, Cal., her house guest. Both Miss Sweeney and Miss Funk are teaching at Beaverton, Ore.

Schrader Pupils Appear at Yreka

Five dancing students of Ted and Evelyn Schrader, former Pancho and Marco dancers, made their first appearance at Yreka, Cal., New Year's eve, dancing at the Broadway theater. The pupils were Jack Moran of Medford; Kent and Rosalou White, Irene McClellan and Floradale Campbell, all of Grants Pass.

St. Mark's Guild To Have Xmas Party

Next Friday, Jan. 4, a regular cafeteria luncheon and Christmas party will be held at St. Mark's Guild hall. Luncheon will be served at 1 p. m., followed by the Christmas party and a short business session. All members are urged to be present.

Women's Relief Corps To Hold Regular Meeting

The Women's Relief Corps will hold its regular meeting at 2 p. m. Thursday in the Armory. On account of illness the covered dish luncheon and the installation program have been postponed for two weeks.

Garden Club to Meet Tomorrow Evening

The regular January meeting of the Medford Garden club will be held tomorrow, Thursday, evening in the court house auditorium. All are urged to attend since an interesting program has been planned.

Miss Duell Returns Home After Visit Here

Miss Eleanor Duell of Klamath Falls, who has spent the past week visiting in Medford at the home of her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Wells, returned to Klamath Falls today.

Wenonah Club to Have Luncheon Meeting Thursday

At 1:30 tomorrow the Wenonah club will have a covered dish luncheon followed by a business meeting at the home of Blanche Rinsharger on Vancouver avenue.

DANCES ATTRACT MAJOR INTEREST NEW YEAR'S EVE

Looking back into the old year and those first few clamorous hours of the new, citizens of Medford found that 1934 ended and 1935 began in joyful but more than usually orderly fashion.

The local celebration was featured by dances, there being five major ones in the city besides those held in the vicinity at grange halls and many house parties.

Among the most successful of the dances was the one given at the Mike temple by members of the lodge, featuring Merle Carlson and his Columbia recording orchestra. More than 200 couples attended.

At Hotel Medford, the management sponsored a dinner dance beginning at 9 o'clock and lasting until 2 a. m., attended by about 80 couples. Music for this dance was furnished by Steve Whipple's orchestra. The guests were presented in parties of from six to 50.

Another dance was held at the Town Club, center of much activity during the Christmas season. Music for this dance was furnished by Al Stewart and his orchestra, who played until a late hour.

The annual Gold Chevron ball sponsored by the Veterans of Foreign Wars was held at Oriental Gardens, with music of two orchestras providing dancing in both the large and small halls.

Dancing was also enjoyed at Dreamland, to the music of Ditty Moore's orchestra. The evening was marked by many other dances at private homes, and by watch and theatre parties.

FATAL PLANE CRASH TO BE INVESTIGATED

ONTARIO, Ore., Jan. 2.—(AP)—A department of commerce inspector was on his way here today to investigate a plane crash in which a pilot and a student flier were killed near here last yesterday.

Cecil J. Graul, 47, Portland pilot, and Delvin Sweet, 27, of Payette, Idaho, his pupil, were fatally injured when their plane sideslipped and crashed into a bank of the Snake river, five miles north of Ontario.

The crumpled plane was found by the water's edge. Phone 542. We'll haul away your refuse. City Sanitary Service.

CHRYSAETHUM CIRCLE To Hold Meeting Tonight

At 7:30 this evening the Chrysaethum Circle No. 84, neighbors of Woodruff, will hold its regular business meeting in the I. O. O. F. hall.

All of the newly elected officers will be in the chairs as this is advance night, and the ritualistic work will be exemplified. Practice for the installation of officers will be held directly after the meeting. All officers and teams are asked to be present. Refreshments will be served.

SOCIETY—Degree of Honor To Install Officers

At their regular meeting in the women's club room of the city hall tomorrow the Degree of Honor Protective association will install their officers for the new year. Esther Hubler will succeed Mrs. Edith Elliot as president and Katharine Smith will become the new secretary.

Mr. and Mrs. Driv' Are Hosts on New Year's Eve

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Driv' entertained on New Year's Eve with a dinner for twelve at their home on the Old Stage Road.

NUDE FILM HEROINE MAY CAUSE BARRING OF GERMAN PICTURE

WASHINGTON, Jan. 2.—(AP)—A German motion picture, in which the heroine appears in one scene in the nude, has been subjected to the scrutiny of treasury department officials who will determine whether it is suitable for exhibition to the American public.

Mrs. Henry Morgenstau, Jr., wife of the treasury secretary, attended the preview last night, but her husband was unable to be present. The picture, called "Ecstasy," was impounded by the New York customs after it had been denounced by the Pope and by Fritz Mandel, millionaire husband of the heroine, who is called Hedy Kessler. Mandel is seeking to suppress the film because of the scene in which his wife appears unclothed.

No decision has been reached, a treasury official said last night, on whether the film will be released for general distribution.

CANADIAN RAIL DISASTER TAKES 15 LIVES

A misplaced switch was blamed for the catastrophic wreck near Hamilton, Ont., in which an express train plowed into the rear of an excursion train and caused at least 15 deaths and 31 injuries. The wreckage of one excursion train coach is shown in this picture, clearly illustrating the difficulties encountered by rescue crews in their efforts to reach possible additional victims pinned beneath the cars. # WILLIAM SPROULE EX-PRESIDENT OF S. P. DIES, AGED 76

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 2.—(AP)—William Sproule, who retired as president of the Southern Pacific company in 1928 after a railroad career of 46 years, is dead.

The 76-year-old transportation veteran, a one-time freight clerk, succumbed to a heart attack at his San Francisco home last night, shortly after he had returned from the Bohemian club with his friend and physician, Dr. W. B. Coffey.

Sproule, a native of Ireland, was in active charge of operations of the far flung railroad system from 1925 until his retirement. He was named president in 1911 but did not assume full control until the retirement of J. Kruttschnitt as chairman of the company's executive committee.

During a brief absence from railroading Sproule served as an executive of the American Smelting and Refining company and as president of the Wells Fargo Express company in 1910.

Besides his widow, Sproule leaves a step-son, and a step-daughter, John J. Baldwin and Mrs. Mary Louise Kelly of San Francisco and two sisters in Europe.

QUIET NEW YEARS CELEBRATION HAS ONLY 3 ARRESTS

In what seems to have been one of the quietest New Years in Medford's history, the state and city police drag nets gathered in only three too riotous celebrators, one of whom was George Kerr, 39, a truck driver of 731 South Central, who was nabbed by state police at 2:30 a. m. on January 1st, near the Oak Grove school on a charge of driving an automobile while under the influence of intoxicating liquor.

Kerr appeared in justice court this morning and was given a thirty day suspended sentence and a fine of $100 and costs. The suspended sentence is to be revoked if the fine is not paid.

Nabbed by city police for being drunk in a public place, and appearing in city court this morning, were L. C. Pool, 50, and Jim Grove, 43, both of this city. Pool agreed to work out his fine of ten dollars, and Grove paid the court the fine of ten dollars given him.

Also appearing in justice court was John Callup, 36, who was arrested by state police on charges of having stolen a coyote from a trap belonging to Bill Welch, of Eagle Point. Callup is reputed to have shot the coyote in the trap while on a hunting trip. He pleaded guilty, and was fined $25 and costs last Monday.

1934 WARMEST SINCE 1871 FOR PORTLAND

PORTLAND, Jan. 2.—(AP)—The year just ended was the warmest in Portland since 1871, when the keeping of weather records was started. The mean temperature for the entire year was 57 degrees. This was 2 of a degree higher than the mean for 1926, the previous "warmest" year on record.

A. A. WEAR BETTER CLOTHES. Suits and O'casts to measure, $21.50 up. Klein the Tailor, Upstairs.

Washington had taken a 7-6 lead in the first period.

Nicholson's speed made the difference between victory and defeat for his teammates and his brilliant runs electrified the crowd. Don Coons, another Salem player, also starred with his great kicking and passing.
