NEALON SERVICES AS COMMISSIONER LAUDED BY COURT

can't the people rule," and "the records have been mutilated" were born.

Nealon, with a display of moral and physical courage, weathered the sullen threats and efforts at intimidation. At his first county court session, Walter J. Jones of Rogue River, now serving prison sentences with Fehl and Banks, presented a petition demanding his resignation. He was also instrumental in the restoration of normalcy in this county, following the ballot thefts, which climaxed a period of confusion.

The resolution honoring Commissioner Nealon is as follows:

WHEREAS, the Honorable R. E. Nealon has been a member of this court for the past two years, having been appointed thereto at a time when the affairs of Jackson county were in a high state of confusion.

AND WHEREAS the said R. E. Nealon has given of his time and efforts in an amount far in excess of the remuneration provided for that office and has attended to the duties of the office in a highly efficient and satisfactory manner.

AND WHEREAS, the said R. E. Nealon is about to retire from the office of county commissioner of Jackson county, Oregon.

NOW THEREFORE the remaining members of the court hereby desire to express and make a public record of their deep appreciation of Mr. Nealon's services on behalf of the county, and extend to him their best wishes for the future.

JACKSON COUNTY COURT.

County Judge.
By Ralph Billings,
County Commissioner.

KIDNAP PLOTTED IN LINDY'S HOME, DEFENSE THEORY

She told how they had lived in New Rochelle at one time.

"Isn't it a fact," shouted Reilly, "that it was in New Rochelle that your husband first met Dr. Condon?"

"It is not." She shot back at him indignantly. "My husband never knew Dr. Condon until we met him in the Lindbergh house."

The rosy housekeeper was not a bit shaken by Reilly's verbal threats. She shot her answers back at him as fast as he asked her questions.

"Had your husband ever met Dr. Condon?"

"No."

"You didn't meet him—you and your husband—at New Rochelle in 1931?" rally exploded.

Her "no" came softly but firmly, and her glance held great reproof.

"You knew Violet Sharpe?"

"Only to say good morning."

"Did you know Violet Sharpe's husband?"

"I didn't know she had married."

"You had never heard of George Paine, a Londoner?"

"Of course not."

"Did you ever take a dislike to Violet Sharpe, the suicide?"

"No, I thought she was very nice."

BONUS ADVOCATE PREDICTS QUICK ACTION ON BILL

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4. — (AP) — The house Democratic leadership today began putting into effect its new policy of reducing Republican membership on committees.

Democratic members of the ways and means committee nominated 10 new members for the appropriations committee.

That meant the Republican membership was to be reduced from the 14 of the last congress to 9, and the Democratic membership was to be raised from 21 to 26.

The Democrats named for the 10 places, subject to a confirming vote by the house, were Thom of Ohio, O'Neal of Kentucky, Moran of Maine, Zioncheck of Washington, Johnson of Oklahoma, Turver of Georgia, McAndrews of Illinois, Umstead of North Carolina, Snyder of Pennsylvania and Dockweiler of California.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4.—(AP)—A bill to authorize another billion dollars of government-guaranteed bonds to aid distressed home owners, and earmark an additional $100,000,000 for home modernization, rebuilding and enlargement, was introduced today by Senator Wagner (D., N. Y.).

"The rescue of 2,000,000 American families from the terrible experience of foreclosure and eviction is one of the brightest pictures in the pageant of the New Deal," Wagner said in offering the measure.
