At Roxy Today

The conflict between two groups of boys, assuming every aspect of a real struggle between nations, has been powerfully cinematized in "No Greater Glory," showing today at the Roxy theater. The film is based on Ferenc Molnar's provocative and world-famous novel, "The Paul Street Boys." It is a story and a theme which no movie producer has heretofore undertaken to present.

Russ Columbo in Rialto Hit

Making his final appearance before the cameras, before his untimely death, Russ Columbo is starred with Roger Pryor and June Knight in "Wake Up and Dream" at the Rialto theater for today and Monday. The story deals with the hilarious adventures of a small-time vaudeville trio. Though desperately in need of a job, they flee an impending engagement in Atlantic City when they believe they are being sought by the police, and make their way to Hollywood, where their troubles really begin. Four song numbers are heard in the course of the picture, said to be the best in which Russ Columbo has appeared.
