

Local and Personal

Fishing Good—Reports from Grants Pass indicate that steelhead fishing in the Illinois river near that city is excellent.

Visitor from Klamath Falls—Don Neely of Klamath Falls was the guest of Miss Catherine Gribble over the week-end.

Leaves Hospital—Patients at the Community hospital who were able to leave for their homes Saturday included Betty H. Vimont and Harry Egbert.

Mining Man Calls—H. G. Myers of Boise, Ida., arrived by train this morning to spend several days in Medford, inspecting property of Pacific States Mines, with which he is affiliated.

Goes to San Jose—Cecil A. Poole left recently for San Jose, to start his lecture tour for the Rosecrater Brotherhood (Amore). His first lecture will be at Sacramento tonight.

Mrs. Laidley Ill—Mrs. George Laidley is confined to bed with the flu at her home at 518 West Second street, but is reported improved today.

To Grants Pass—Mrs. Ida Watkins was among those leaving on the Shasta this morning, enroute to Grants Pass, where he will spend a few days with her nephew, Walter J. Hess.

Select Snow Stock—Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Shors are spending several days in Portland, selecting spring shoe stock for Buster Brown Shoe store in this city, and will return to Medford the middle of this week.

Oregon Caves Open—Oregon Caves chateau, under the management of George C. Sabin, is open to the public, despite some snow on the ground, and guests are taking advantage of the winter scenery at the national monument, according to David H. Canfield, superintendent of Crater Lake national park, who returned the latter part of last week from a business trip to the caves. Canfield, with W. G. Carnes, chief of the western division, branch of plans and designs of the national park service, with offices in San Francisco, made an investigation of the caves proper. He said an interesting bit of wild life at the caves are the two does and three fawns, pets of the cook, which come to the chateau twice daily to be fed.

Volunteers to Meet—There will be a regular meeting of the volunteer firemen this evening at 7:30 at the fire hall, announcement today stated.

Forfeits Bail—Joe Winkle, who was to appear before City Judge Allan D. Curry at 10 o'clock this morning, on a disorderly conduct charge, forfeited $10 bail when he failed to appear.

Ill on Birthday—John L. Applegate, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Applegate of South Oakdale, is ill with the flu, and is in bed today, his 16th birthday. He is getting along nicely.

Advisory Committee Meets—The advisory committee for the SERA nursery school held a brief meeting in the city hall Saturday, but no legislation was undertaken, due to the absence of Mrs. Cool, the president.

SERA Class Interesting—The new SERA class in public speaking, which meets for the first time at 7:15 tonight at the Senior high school, promises to be an interesting one. The class is open to the public, and a large attendance is expected.

Phoenix Grange—Tomorrow night at 7 o'clock there will be a covered dish supper for members of the Phoenix Grange, in the newly decorated Grange hall. Each one is requested to bring a hot dish, and salad or dessert.

Get Steelhead on Fly—C. J. Chord and Al Knutson, local fishing enthusiasts, have again done what many people consider the impossible—caught three large steelhead on flies. The feat was accomplished over the week-end, while the Isaak Waltons were on a trip to the lower Rogue.

From California—Mr. and Mrs. John Godlove and their small son Tommy are visiting at the S. C. Godlove home here this week. Mr. Godlove was formerly with the Trowbridge Cabinet works here, but left about four years ago to live in Bishop, Cal. While in Medford the family will also visit with Mrs. John Craves and Mrs. Claude DeVoe, sisters of Mr. Godlove.

Charged with Fighting—A. Lewis, Robert Lewis (not one of the service station Lewis family), Everett Martin and Ben Geary were slated to appear in city court at 4 o'clock this afternoon, on charges of fighting in a local pool hall. They were arrested by city police at 10 o'clock Saturday night.

Hepburn Appealing In Quaint Picture Ever since Maude Adams humanized the lovable character of Babble in Sir James Barrie's never-to-be-forgotten story and play, "The Little Minister," this quaint document has endeared itself to theatre-goers everywhere.

And now Katharine Hepburn has made a splendid interpretation of the story as her new starring vehicle, which opened at the Craterian theatre yesterday.

There is the appealing romance of the little pastor, Gavin Dishart, for Babble—a romance that tugs at the heart and engenders a fine sentiment enchanting to the beholder.

Babble returns this love with all the nature of her sex—and to this love Hepburn gives a depth of tenderness and spirit which even she has never before revealed.

Sir James M. Barrie is a keen, penetrating, though whimsical, writer. He knows the feminine soul and his Babble is the eternal Eve and the ideal actress to portray his heroine most vividly.

Compact with human touches, this picture is embroidered with countless details of Babble's charm, and the whole story is played against a background charged with life in the quaint and colorful Scottish town of Thurmu.

"Damaged Lives" at Rialto Tomorrow Vital problems of sex and birth control will be the theme of the combined screen and stage attraction scheduled for the Rialto theatre starting tomorrow, "Damaged Lives."

The dramatic episode is a beautiful story teeming with emotional human interest. Mothers and intended brides will learn much of value from the thrilling scenes. Dr. Eugene E. Voltaire, graduate doctor and noted authority on sex problems and birth control, will discuss the vital problems of life, birth control, will be his theme to the women at the matinees, while the mysteries of sex life will be revealed to the men at the night shows. Dr. Voltaire will illustrate his talks with beautiful living models, featuring "Miss California," reputed to be America's most perfect woman.

Matinees have been set aside for ladies only while the evening shows will be held for men only.

Stage Headliners Coming Wednesday What promises to be one of the most talent-filled stage units yet to play here comes to the Craterian theatre Wednesday when Gene Cobb's "Rambles in Rhythm" will be on the stage for the one day engagement.

Headed by Cobb and his partner, Jack Gray, as "Smoke 'n' Honey Gal," the modern McIntyre and Heath of present day vaudeville, and with many headline acts also featured, "Rambles in Rhythm" holds much in the way of varied entertainment.

Glen Dale, musical comedy star who took his stage name from the place of his birth, Glendale, Cal., is no stranger to Medford, having headed two of the finest units Fanchon and Marco ever staged, both of which played here. He is also remembered as the leading man in many outstanding stage successes including "Rose Marie," "Showboat," "A Night in Spain" and "Louie 14th" among others.

Others in the revue include the Hollywood Adagio quartet, Dorothy LaRue, Jack Lowe, Magdalene Bryan.

Annual meeting of the Rogue Snowmen will be held at the Chamber of Commerce tonight at 8:00 o'clock it was announced by officers of the group. All members of the Snowmen and those interested in winter sports are invited to be present. The purpose of the meeting is to elect officers for the ensuing year and also to outline a program of winter sports activities.

Once today, distributing prize bears to his many friends, in celebration of the 43th anniversary of his arrival in Medford. Mr. Bennett arrived with his wife on the northbound train on the evening of January 7, 1990, at a time when Medford was having one of the biggest snowstorms in her history. Seventeen and one-half inches of snow fell before the storm abated. At that time the city was busy putting in a two-inch water main on Main street and the west side of town, even the part now occupied by business houses, was but a wilderness of chaptalal bushes.

He correctly asserted in an Artist Model by Eustelwyn B. Hoffmann.
