

PHOENIX DEFEATS C. P. QUINT AFTER TWO OVER-TIMES

In a "dog-fight" basketball game last night, which extended into two overtime periods before a tie was finally broken, Phoenix high school won its second minor league conference title, 20-17, from Central Point.

After seeing the score still knotted 16-all at the end of the first overtime period, Sherer and Hill, Phoenix forwards, each sank a basket to break into the lead, with Virtue of Central Point scoring a point for his team on a free throw.

The lineup: Phoenix (20)—Virtue (8) Hill (7), Russell (3), Hardy (4), C. Culbertson (4), Sherer (2), G. Gillespie (2), Newlin, G. Contad.

Subs: Phoenix—Logan, Perry; Central Point—Woodridge, Referee, Paul Hess of Jacksonville.

Central Point "B" team won from the Phoenix "B" team in the preliminary, 17 to 10. Lawrence of Central Point was high man with 9.

The lineup: Phoenix "B" (10) Lawrence (9), C. Barker (3), Hood, Francis Grimes (5), C. Barker (1), Jewett (3), G. Martin (2), Lathrop, G. Jack.

Subs: Phoenix—Logan (4), Barnes. With the insistence that their defeat last night was due only to the fact that Aaron Ayres, regular guard, was out with a sprained ankle, and that two of the other regulars entered the game after having no practice for three weeks, Central Point is going into hard and long drill sessions this week in preparation for their trip Friday night to Rogue River. There they will meet the following lineup in their third conference tilt: McLaren and Reeler, forwards; Martin and Simpson, guards; Hatcher, center.

The Rogue River quintet, coached by Hugh Hartman, defeated Gold Hill last night, 43 to 7, placing themselves on a par with Phoenix with two conference wins. Rogue River's first victory came from Talent, with a score of 40 to 12.

Next week Rogue River will meet Phoenix at Phoenix, then play two home games against Talent and Jacksonville, but will probably be without the services of Bill Hartman, regular forward, who was injured in their contest with Gold Hill last night.

ZIMMERMAN WINS $100 GOLF PURSE

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 9.—(AP)—Al Zimmerman, Portland, Ore., professional, had $100 in prize money today as pocket change as he and others of the country's ranking golfers prepared for the qualifying round of the Los Angeles $5000 open tournament tomorrow.

The Portland winner picked up the spare cash by winning the Hillcrest $400 amateur-pro championship yesterday, teamed with Henry Weinberger, Los Angeles. Their best card of 65, six strokes under par, was worth $50 to Zimmerman, and he collected $50 more for the best individual round with a score of 66.

Four teams tied for first place. The others were Ralph Guldahl and Abe Lipsky, Los Angeles; Jimmy Edge, Monterey Park, and Archie Pretzman, Los Angeles, and John Revolta, Milwaukee, and Oscar Pattiz.

A field of more than 200 players was expected for the qualifying round of the Los Angeles open, to be held at the Los Angeles Country club, Saturday, Sunday and Monday.

16 COAST UMPIRES WILL BE SELECTED

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 9.—(AP)—Selection of a staff of 16 umpires was the next business ahead for directors of the Pacific Coast league today after they adopted a split week schedule for 1935 at the mid-winter meeting here.

Byland Haggerty, president of the league, was directed by the directors to submit names of umpire applicants by March 1 as the meeting ended yesterday.

Clever Grappler

Jimmy High, highly-touted wrestler from Chicago, will be given a royal welcome to the Pacific coast Thursday night at the armory when he meets Joe Hubka (above) former left end on the University of Nebraska grid team. Hubka, a Czechoslovak trained and managed in this country by Joe Stecher, former world heavyweight champion, likes scientific grappling, and is so good at it that he stayed for 37 minutes before losing a fall in a bout with Jim London.

PETE IN TOP FORM FOR THURSDAY MATCH WITH ROUGHHOUSE CATALANO

Despite the fact that he suffered a broken tooth and a badly twisted neck in his bout here last week against Red Devil, Pete Belcastro, Italian grappler from Sacramento, is in top-notch condition for his main event appearance Thursday night at the armory against Tony Catalano, also of Italy, and hopes to give his countryman a few pointers on rough snatwork.

Although both these grapplers claim Italy for their homeland, Catalano is from the northern and Belcastro from the southern section of the "boot," and there exists a sectional rivalry between the two that promises to be the main issue in their coming wrestling match. Each is determined to outdo the other in meanness, for which they are both famous.

Jimmy High of Chicago makes his debut on the west coast to meet Joe Hubka, ex-athlete from University of Nebraska, in the semi-final.

REED OUTROUGHS RYAN TO TAKE TWO FALLS

SALEM, Jan. 9.—(AP)—In one of those wrestling matches where "everything goes," Robin Reed, Reedsport, recently returned from an eastern tour, proved rougher and tougher and Phil Ryan of Los Angeles, and threw the latter two out of three falls here last night.

A similar bout was fought by Ben Sherman and Rod Fenton, with Sherman taking the final two falls. Bill Caspell tossed Joe Holland for one fall in the 30-minute opening match.

SALEM HIGH CAGEMEN TAKE INDIANS, 33-24

SALEM, Jan. 9.—(AP)—Led by little Phil Salstrom, a speedy forward who scored 18 points, Salem high school downed the Chemawa Indians, 33 to 24 in a basketball game played here last night.
