Imitation of Life Starts Thursday

What would you do if you were a widow who had fallen desperately in love for the first time in your life and were planning on an early marriage to the man of your heart, only to find that your 16-year-old daughter, ignorant of the true situation, had fallen no less desperately in love with the same man?

Entertaining Stage Show at Craterian

In a letter received by George Hunt of the Craterian theater, from the Wilbur Cushman booking agency, from whose offices the various stage units playing here every other week at the Craterian theater are routed, "Rambles in Rhythm," the stage unit playing a one-day engagement at the theater today is given praise as being one of the finest shows on the road today. The letter states "we assure you that 'Rambles in Rhythm' on our personal word, is as good a unit as may be played or found anywhere. The same thing holds true of the units following it." Headed by the well-known team of "Smoke 'n' Honey Gal" and with Glen Dale, leading man in many musical comedy shows in the east, "Rambles in Rhythm" also has tap dancers, acrobatic stars, ballroom dancing, pianists, adagio teams, and musical rhythm as provided by the Rhythm Ramblers orchestra. On the screen, Stan Laurel and Oliver Hardy have a perfect background for their particular brand of comedy in "Babes in Toyland" from the Victor Herbert operetta.

Problems Facing Youth Answered

It is seldom indeed that a motion picture dates to show, in a thoroughly convincing manner, the answer to some of the many problems facing modern youth today. "Damaged Lives" now at the Rialto theater until tomorrow night, does just this. Following the lives of a young couple, through their courtship, their engagement period and their marriage, "Damaged Lives" shows how ignorance of sex and its many attendant problems can very easily result in broken up homes and unhappiness. It is a daring drama, frank and yet with none of the "dirty" one might expect. It is a story of the youth of today, seeking happiness, and not knowing of many of the pitfalls, it is in throwing light upon these subjects that the film succeeds in bringing its message with a sometimes startling effect. On the stage in conjunction with the showing of the film, Dr. Eugene

BOYHOOD FRIENDS MEET BEHIND DOORS OF PRISON

FLINT, Mich., Jan. 9.—(UP)—Biley Bryan and John Odle, both 24, went to school in Tulsa, Okla., together, both joined the army at the same time and today they will both start serving 25 to 40 years in the same prison. The pair pleaded guilty yesterday to charges of robbery armed.

ROBBER COMES THRICE TO CAFE ATTENDANT

DENVER, Colo., Jan. 9.—(UP)—It is the third time the charm? Not so with George Grubb, 31, attendant in a lunchroom. He was robbed again today—the third time by the same man of approximately the same amount. The letter states "we assure you that 'Rambles in Rhythm' on our personal word, is as good a unit as may be played or found anywhere. The same thing holds true of the units following it." Headed by the well-known team of "Smoke 'n' Honey Gal" and with Glen Dale, leading man in many musical comedy shows in the east, "Rambles in Rhythm" also has tap dancers, acrobatic stars, ballroom dancing, pianists, adagio teams, and musical rhythm as provided by the Rhythm Ramblers orchestra. PHONE COMPANY TO SUBMIT NEW RATE EVIDENCE

PORTLAND, Jan. 9.—(P)—New testimony presented by the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph company in its suit to enjoin State Utilities Commissioner Thomas from enforcing his order for an eight per cent rate reduction, has been ordered resubmitted to the utilities commissioner. The order was issued late Tuesday by Circuit Judge Lusk and Tucker, sitting en banc in the case. The court disclosed that the order was in accord with the state law under which Thomas has 15 days in which to take action on the new testimony. The utilities commissioner may change or revise his original order, cancel it entirely or re-submit it unchanged. The trial will be resumed after he reaches his decision. One point raised in yesterday's session in connection with property valuation was whether depreciation should be allowed only for actual and observable deterioration of plant or for the theoretical loss in value set up on the company's books as reserve. The difference in the allowances made by Commissioner Thomas and the company is in the neighborhood of $5,000,000—the main item in a total discrepancy of about $11,205,000 between the value of the company's properties in Oregon as calculated by

HAUPTMANN'S WIFE REFUSES TO TAKE BABY INTO COURT

(Continued from page one.) Mannfried Hauptmann is too young to receive any lasting impression of what he might behold in the courtroom. His mother does not differ with Attorney Reilly because she wishes to prevent her son from memories that might darken and embitter his later life. She differs from the learned counsel only because she considers first, her baby's health. Not even for the husband she loves, the man who has blasted her life and smudged the life of her son but who to her is still "Richard," will she bring her baby into the hot, germ ridden, whirligig courtroom. Her decision is admirable. She protects her baby knowing full well no more eloquent plea than a mother holding a child in her arms, fighting for the father of that child that her son may have a heritage free from shame, could be presented to a jury.
