

BAER AND FOE CLOWN THROUGH FOUR ROUNDS

BOSTON, Jan. 11.—(AP)—Profiting by Kingfish Levin's sad experience, Dick Madden, young Boston heavyweight, shared Max Baer's mood for good, clean fun last night at Mechanics building and they put on one of the most amusing travesties a Boston boxing crowd ever witnessed.

The heavyweight champion was wearing his motion picture ring costume and was eager to provide comedy. His hilarious antics had the overflow crowd of 4000 in hysterics all through the four-round fight.

Max reeled and slipped, walked bow-legged and acted punch drunk from Madden's futile efforts to hit him. In the second round Madden became a bit serious but he desisted when Max rapped him on the jaw a few times and reminded him he was forgetting his lines.

The champion got a great kick out of his performance but his 230-pound brother Jacob, known as "Buddy," ran into an unexpected setback. In a four round bout with the veteran Babe Hunt of Ponca City, Okla., young Baer was soundly drubbed.

Nude American Dancer Shocks French Police

By JOHN LLOYD Associated Press Foreign Staff

PARIS, Jan. 11.—(AP)—The more or less blasé police of Paris blinked their eyes in horror when Miss Joan Warner of Harrold, Pa., the only American nude dancer in Paris, put on her act in a cheap restaurant, and ordered her scratched off the bill.

The 22-year-old platinum blonde, who says her performance is so modest she was allowed to dance in Chicago and Milwaukee, now must conform her appearances in the nude to music halls and theaters. The police official who complained said restaurants, where whole families go to dine, are no place for such an act as he saw Joan give.

In rebuttal, Joan said that after she sheds her attire she cartwheels off the floor so rapidly that no human eye is quick enough to get a good view of her body.

The official happened to be in the restaurant when Joan was performing her slave act, which she says is one of her best.

The scene is a slave market from which she escaped via the cartwheel route. The act winds up in a breath-taking moment when she shakes off her clothes, remains with nothing on except a chain, and then drops the chain.

It was then that the police official dropped his eyes.

Old Siwash Grads Unable To Cheer Gridiron Prowess

NEW YORK, Jan. 11.—(AP)—Alumni of Knox college, 150 strong, will gather here tonight in a football "victory" party. The gathering, it was explained, will celebrate the largest enrollment of freshmen in the history of "Old Siwash."

The old grads could not very well cheer about anything else after Knox completed the 1934 season with its string of consecutive defeats still unbroken at 27.

Mat Results

By the Associated Press.

EAGLES HOOPERS TRIM METHODISTS

In two fast and furious games, the Eagles who are wintering at the Washington school defeated the South Methodist church, 35 to 29, and the Christian Endeavor, 30 to 28, at the Washington school last night.

The Colonials proved that they they could take it by winning in the double header. Hadley Arthur starred in the South Methodist game, securing 15 points, and high point honors for the evening. Brown was high point man for the evening for the Eagles.

Olivier, stocky little forward for the Endeavor team, rung up 14 points to place second in the evening's high scoring.

The starting lineups:

Endeavors (29)	Eagles (30)
Shaffer	F	Williams
S. Doty	F	Brown
Fraley	C	Coates
Olivier	G	Calvert
I. Doty	O	Fornbrook

Southern Division Quints Under Way

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 11.—(AP)—Round robin play for the basketball championship of the southern division of the Pacific coast conference gets underway tonight with all four teams in action.

Stanford's quintet will meet Southern California, defending titleholder, on the Cardinals' home court, while the University of California invades the University of California at Los Angeles campus. The same teams play again tomorrow night.

Nandies To Reopen In New Location

The management of Nandies Grill, 229 East Main street, announced today that the restaurant has been closed, and that a new location is being sought.

Mr. Nandie, proprietor, said something novel in the way of the restaurant business will be featured in their new downtown location, which he hopes to have ready for patronage by March 1.

MANCHOUKUO EMPEROR NEAR DEATH IS WORD

LONDON, Jan. 11.—(AP)—The Singapore correspondent of the Exchange Telegraph agency reported today that Emperor Kang Teh of Manchoukuo was gravely ill, there was little hope for his recovery, and that a regency council had been appointed to govern the Japanese-Created empire.

16TH TRAFFIC DEATH LISTED IN PORTLAND

PORTLAND, Jan. 11.—(AP)—Death from injuries he suffered Christmas night when he was struck by an automobile, came last night to William Henry Newman, 22. He was the 16th traffic accident death since the death of the accident police year on December 1.
