TIGERS WIN, 17-15 OVER ROSEBURG IN FURIOUS CONTEST

By Harold Grove.
The Medford high basketball team battled to a 17 to 15 victory over Roseburg high on the maples of the Medford high school last night before a large crowd of adult and student rosters, Medford Junior high were defeated by the Roseburg Juniors, 14 to 10, in a fast and furious preliminary.

From the opening tip-off 'til the last basket, both teams were fighting hard for victory. The score was knotted at the latter part of the third quarter, 12 all. Steuart received a free throw and missed and the quarter ended. Four minutes elapsed before a score was made. Short, Roseburg guard, made a free throw, followed by a basket by Campbell, Roseburg forward, which appeared to be the victory march. But on the following tip-off Steuart and Short rushed in for the tip-off and connected, injuring Short. Referee Crossdale called it a double foul. Gardner was substituted for Short. Steuart made his foul and Gardner missed. Hanson sunk a basket putting Medford in the lead, 17 to 15. There was less than one minute and a half to go when the basket was made. Medford took the ball and played "keep-away" until the whistle ended the game.

The Medford Juniors were dogged by hard luck throughout the game. Estenger of the Juniors played stellar ball, as did Kuzman. Smith was taken from the game at the beginning of the second half on personal fouls.

The starting lineups:
Medford: Severn, Scherner (6), Sears (2), Short (5), Estenger (5), Gardner (1), Smith (1), Campbell (2), Kuzman (6), Banister (2), Homan (2), Collins (1), Steuart (1), Campb'l, Lewis (1).
Referee: Crossdale.

EAGLES HOOPERS WIN AT WILLIAMS CREEK

Barely getting in the gym in time to escape a coming blizzard, the Eagles' boys' basketball team of the Washington school defeated the strong basketweavers of Williams Creek, 25 to 27, Friday night at the Williams Creek gym.

It was near-zero weather outside as the members of both sides battled furiously.

Smith for Williams Creek was high man for the evening with 14 points. Conter and Calvert tied for second place honors with 14 points each. They are center and guard, respectively.

MARSHFIELD CCC ZONE HOOPSTERS IN ACTION

MARSHFIELD, Jan. 12. (Sp.)—Teams in the Marshfield zone of the CCC camp basketball tournament renewed hostilities this week-end in the second series of games, Camp McKinley playing at Sebastian Saturday and at Humburg Sunday while Sitkum meets Humburg Saturday and Sebastian Sunday, China Flats and Coos Head, both undefeated, tangle in North Bend Saturday.

Standings:
W. L. P. C.
Humburg 1 0 1.000
China Flats 1 0 1.000
Coos Head 1 0 1.000
McKinley 0 1 .000
Sitkum 0 1 .000
Sebastian 0 1 .000

COQUILLE, Ore., Jan. 12. (AP)—The Coquille high Red Devils defeated North Bend high 33 to 15 in a listless basketball game.

YOUNG GOLFERS DOMINATE PLAY IN LOS ANGELES OPEN

LOS ANGELES COUNTRY CLUB, Los Angeles, Jan. 12. (AP)—Golf stars in their 20's dominated the play in the opening round of the Los Angeles open today when Vic Ghezzi, raw-boned pro from the Deal, N. J. golf club, and Johnny Revolta, wild-haired but straight-shooting pro from Milwaukee, Wis., tied for the lead with scores of 68, two under par.

Tied for second place were two other youngsters, John Perell, Lake Tahoe, and Dick Metz, bronzed Chicagoan, traveling the 18 holes at a 69 clip. Four of the field of 130 starters were able to take old man par into camp, but Stanley Kertes, Los Angeles, Willie Cooging, San Francisco, and Jimmy Hines, veteran Long Islander, slugged it out with the old man on even terms with 70 blows each.

Tied at 71 were Al Krueger, Bejolt, Wis., Henry Kaiser, Bache, Wis., Horton Smith, Oak Park, Ill., and Paul Bunyan, White Plains, N. Y. P. G. A. champion.

The initial round was played under a brilliant sun but recent rains made the going heavy and there was little roll on the ball.

Some first class performers were bracketed in the 72 ring. There was Gene Sarazen, who has won practically all the possible titles except the Los Angeles open, Glin Dutra, the national open champion, and Denny Shute, former British open champion.

Don Erickson, of Los Angeles, public links player, also scored 72 to lead the amateurs. Al Zimmerman, Portland, Ore., and Les Madison, Hollywood, completed the 72 bracket.

Play will continue with 18 holes tomorrow and 36 to follow Monday to decide the competition.

JACKSONVILLE QUINTS TAKE DOUBLE VICTORY FROM PHOENIX YOUTHS

The Jacksonville high school A and B squad basketball teams returned from Phoenix Friday night with the scalps of the A and B squads of that town.

The Phoenix teams were slated to beat the Jacksonville players ears down, so the defeat at the hands of the history town came somewhat at a surprise.

In the main event, the Jacksonville outfit drubbed the Phoenix A bunch to the tune of 32-24, something that was in no way in accordance with the testimony of the rail birds, since Phoenix had previously defeated the strong Central Point five.

In the B squad encounter, Jacksonville again won the argument, the game ending with the top sided score of 18-7.

The lineups are given:
"A" Squad
Jacksonville (32) Phoenix (24)
Backes (7) P Glover (19)
Bostwick (6) P Hill (2)
Pittorff (5) C Hardisty (2)
Mitchell (7) G Scheraga (1)
Ayers (2) G Newlin
Substitutes: Jacksonville, Johnson, Ayers, Combs; Phoenix, Purry.

"B" Squad
Jacksonville (18) Phoenix (7)
Graham (2) P Barker (1)
Luak (7) P E. Barnes (3)
Nunn (5) C May (3)
Sinden (2) G D. Barnes
Lorton G McEynolds
Substitutes: Jacksonville, Dunnington, Johnson, Little; Phoenix, Swisher, Hanstler, Klucker.

BOLTON TAKES JOB ON SENATOR TEAM

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12. (AP)—Cliff Bolton, young catcher who was a holdout for more than half of last season, today agreed to terms offered by the Washington Senators for the 1935 campaign.

Charlie Higler, National league umpire, may not be active in 1935. He was injured in an automobile accident last summer.

BAER PULLS SURPRISE KNOCKOUT OVER KINGFISH

Max Baer, world's heavyweight boxing champion, gave a big Chicago crowd an unexpected thrill when he knocked out Kingfish Levinsky, Windy City pride, early in the second round of their scheduled four-round "exhibition." It was the first time Levinsky had been counted out. Photo shows Levinsky down and Baer being sent to a neutral corner by Referee Tommy Thomas. (Associated Press Photo)

SONS WIN, 28-24, FROM BEARCATS

SALEM, Ore., Jan. 12. (AP)—In one of the roughest and fastest exhibitions of basketball ever staged here the Sons of Southern Oregon Normal school came from behind to defeat the Willamette university Bearcats, 28 to 24, here tonight.

Fighting hard, Willamette outshone the Sons both on offense and defense until the last few minutes. Willamette led at half time, 14 to 11.

Dick Jockisch looped in a crumpled arrow with a long shot to put Southern Oregon ahead in the last five minutes. Coach "Spec" Keene of Willamette put in an entirely new team at this point but it was unable to hold the towering Sons.

MARU SAYS JAPANESE AFTER TITLE BATTLE

M. Maruyama, steward of the University club, and one of the most enthusiastic sport fans in the city, was much excited yesterday when he received word that Japan was so enthusiastic over Babe Ruth and the other U. S. baseball stars who recently toured Nippon, that they are now eager to see some of the leading American boxers perform.

According to Maru's information the Yomiuri News of Tokio, has offered a large purse for a rematch between Heavyweight Champion Baer and Carnera, to take place in the Japanese metropolis in the early spring of summer.

NEGRO RING SENSATION WINS LISTLESS BATTLE

In the final round of an otherwise listless bout Friday night, the punishing Detroit negro woked up long enough to send Hans Birke to the ropes and make the German heavyweight ask the referee to stop the fight.

It was a technical knockout for Joe but he won it only after the referee and the crowd in Duquesne gardens joined in asking that he show more action.

Girl Hoopsters Thrown in Panic By Mouse Herd

POPLAR BLUFF, Mo., Jan. 12. (AP)—An inter-class basketball game between girls' teams here last night nearly broke up in a riot when small boys released 22 field mice on the gymnasium floor shortly after the opening whistle.

Pandemonium reigned among players as the rodents spread fear across the floor. The referee finally restored temporary order and play proceeded.

LILLARD IN SEARCH OF NEW MAT TALENT

Mack Lillard, local promoter of the "raslin" profession, has gone to Portland in search of new talent he hopes to bring to Medford for a top-notch card Thursday, Jan. 24. There will be no card at the armory this week because of the shrine circus occupying that building.

The last trip to Portland netted several of the coast's best performers, including Paul Beech, Brooklyn sloop-kicker, and it is hoped that this trip will result in as good or even better material.

WRESTLING FANS FALL WHEN SEATS COLLAPSE

OREGON CITY, Ore., Jan. 12. (AP)—One man was hurt and 200 other persons escaped serious injury at the armory here last night when the west side bleachers collapsed and dropped them to the floor eight feet below. The accident occurred at a wrestling exhibition.

Bob Zupke, Illinois football coach, who is usually suggesting that the football fans be left alone, wants to change them so that the defensive team must put seven men on the line of scrimmage.

STATE CAGEMEN DEFEAT OREGON

CORVALLIS, Ore., Jan. 12. (AP)—The driving, booming Oregon State college basketball team crashed into sole leadership of the northern division coast conference race with a smashing 47-to-16 win over University of Oregon here tonight.

In was the third conference win without a loss for the Beavers and first loss in three conference starts for Oregon.

In championship stride, the Beavers connected from every angle while the Webfoots became more erratic in ball handling as the game progressed.

The game was relatively free from fouling and roughness despite the whirlwind pace. By half time Oregon State was ahead, 28 to 12.

Limber-jointed Wally Palmberg, the left-handed freak shot artist, was high scorer with 12 points, none on free shots.

A throng of 3000 wildly cheering fans packed the gymnasium and when substitutes replaced the regulars for Oregon State near the end of the game the crowd gave the victors an ovation such as this campus has seldom witnessed.

DOPE FIEND'S NEEDLE BLAMED FOR MALARIA

CHICAGO, Jan. 12. (UPI)—Three midwinter deaths by malaria, when mosquitoes are inactive, were attributed today to "community" use of a hypodermic needle by narcotic addicts. One addict, Dr. Herman N. Bundenen said, had malaria and transferred it to the others.

Stanford Trims Trojans
STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Cal., Jan. 12. (AP)—Stanford's basketball Indians clung stubbornly to a slim lead they gained early in the game to defeat the University of Southern California Trojans, 38 to 26, here tonight.

EAST, WEST SIDES OF TOWN TO VIE IN GOLF TOURNEY

An innovation for Medford sports was announced yesterday by officials of Rogue Valley golf course, who are planning what it is hoped will become an annual event here—an East-West "Rose Bowl" tournament, in which golfers from the east side will compete with golfers from the west side of town.

Twenty-four enthusiasts of the matchless-swinging game have already registered for the tournament and present plans are to begin the tourney on Sunday, January 27, two weeks from today. Jack Hueston, club pro, urges all interested in the "classic" to volunteer for positions on either team, according to which side of Medford they live in.

The tournament will be a match-play event, and entrants will be paired as evenly as possible, according to those in charge, probably without consideration of handicaps. Golfers living outside the city limits on either side of Medford are also eligible.

Originators of the plan, among whom are Jack Hueston, Gene Thorn-dike, George Hunt and Larry Schade, announce that the tourney promises more rivalry and close competition than any of the similar events yet staged at the course.

Those who have already registered are:
East Side—G. M. Roberts, Robert W. Ruhl, T. F. Johnston, D. S. Clark, H. H. Pringle, C. J. Semon, Gordon Green, Dr. A. F. W. Kresse, George Phythian, R. B. Hammond, O. O. Horner, George Coddling, J. B. Kirk, G. E. Pierce, D. G. Tyree, Lee Watson, A. E. Orr, Jack Reynolds, Chuck Ellis, H. A. Taleroff, J. H. Fletcher, K. W. Kendrick, Glen Miller, Bob Maentz, H. B. Kellom, Mark Johnson, A. F. West, Ted G. Bauer, Gene Orr, Harry Hart, C. M. Kidd, A. H. Endris.

West Side—A. F. Mansfield, L. P. Wilcox, Leland Clark, C. C. Lemmon, E. C. "Jerry" Jerome, Earl Tummy, E. R. Driver, Larry Schade, J. C. Thompson, Capt. DeVaney, O. O. Alenderfer, Gene Thorn-dike, E. L. Childers, B. H. Williams, Walter Leverette, A. S. Rosenbaum, Morris Hunt, Harry Rosenberg, Maje Morris, Harold Bunc, Homer Marx, Oren Schenk, Frank Reum, Maurice Spatz, W. F. "Stogey" Billy Isaacs, Harry McMahon, Ward Beener, R. G. Bardwell, D. T. Wilcox, Hawley Moore, Al Littrell, A. B. Cunningham.

GIRLS' CLUB WILL HAVE CAGE TEAM

The Girls' Community club basketball class will meet Monday for practice in the girls' gym at the Medford high school from 7:30 to 9:00. All girls interested, whether or not they have attended previous practices, are urged to be present as Mrs. Russell, the coach, is making arrangements for a game Jan. 21 with a group from Grants Pass.

Since the Grants Pass club is hoping to bring two full teams, every girl will be given an opportunity to play in these games, as well as in several other being tentatively planned.

The Girls' Community club played the Williams Creek girls Jan. 4 in a preliminary to the St. Mary's-Williams Creek game. The Medford team, hastily gotten together with several regular players missing was defeated by the close score of 28-20.

A promising reserve on last year's Notre Dame team who is expected to shine for the "Fighting Irish" next season is Al D'Amoros, born in Italy. He now hails from Andmore, Pa.
