The annual report indicated that outstanding indebtedness of the various stockholders are being liquidated to a considerable extent.

From Oregon Caves—G. F. Whitworth, project supervisor of Camp Oregon Caves, was in Medford yesterday and reported that the road to the camp has been kept clear of snow which lies about three feet deep in that area.

COUNTY BRIEFS

Griffin Creek

GRIFFIN CREEK, Jan. 15.—(Sp.)—A splendid attendance was had at the regular attention unit meeting Jan. 11, at the home of Mrs. Lottie Hurd. Mrs. Mabel Mack met with the unit and was in charge of the lessons on menu planning. She also gave a short outline on the plans of the program to be given at the home interest conference at Corvallis, Feb. 12 to 16. Ladies from the unit who plan to attend are Mrs. Alice Ricks, Mrs. Beulah Davis and Mrs. Ruth Hood. Next regular meeting will be Feb. 8th, at the home of Mrs. Beulah Davis. The project, "Bread Making." Ladies of the Radio club met with Mrs. J. D. Brown Wednesday. Next meeting will be Jan. 23. The cast for the play, "Corn Fed Babies", to enter in the county dramatics contest is working hard. The play will be put on at the school house Jan. 31. Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Skeins and daughter Elinor motored to Shasta City Saturday and returned Sunday. They took home Mr. and Mrs. John Conner who had spent several days here visiting.

Anderson Creek

ANDERSON CREEK, Jan. 15.—(Sp.)—Mrs. Ralph Green of this creek underwent a major operation at the Community hospital in Ashland Tuesday and is reported getting along nicely. Lorin Close of the Elk Creek CCC camp, was visiting old friends here Saturday. Mrs. James Mays and daughter Ruth and Edward Smith were transacting business in Medford Friday. Alec Donica who was helping Steve Lunak burn some wood, received a severe injury by a falling block of wood striking his leg. After a few days rest at home he will be again busy cutting wood. The Finley brothers and friends were out to the valley Saturday. Edward Smith and Miss Ruth Mays visited the new road, Anderson lookout station which is being constructed by the CCC boys of Talent. Jack Holtman called at the Mays home Monday. There has been considerable change in the weather the past week. Three inches of snow fell Saturday morning. Chas. Dunford and Claus Kleinhammer of Applegate were riding for cattle in Anderson creek and Wagner creek water sheds the latter part of last week. Chas. Skeeters of Talent was up on the creek Thursday on business.

Brownsboro

BROWNSBORO, Jan. 15.—(Sp.)—Miss Sarah Swain, sister of Bill Swain, passed away at the Sacred Heart Hospital Saturday. Miss Swain had been a nurse for the past 40 years in Wyoming, and came here a few weeks ago, hoping to regain her health. Her sister, Mrs. Gilman of Bellingham, Wash., and niece, Mrs. Morgan and husband of Lander, Wyoming, arrived Sunday. Mrs. E. E. Tucker and children visited at Eagle Point Sunday with Mrs. Tucker's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Haak. Mrs. Ray Baker spent several days in Medford last week visiting and shopping. Leland Dyringer returned from Applegate last week after spending his vacation visiting with his father. Mrs. W. M. Hansen left Monday on the bus for Hornbrook, Calif., where she will visit a week with relatives. L. J. Rohrer, Louis Rohrer and W. M. Hansen were business visitors in Medford Monday.

Sams Valley

SAMS VALLEY, Jan. 15.—(Sp.)—Mrs. J. F. Frink, chairman of the Orange H. E. C., is planning a tamale supper for Saturday night's Grange meeting. The object of the supper is to raise funds to entertain the Pomona Grange, which meets at Sams Valley January 26. The new snow fall which commenced Friday morning measured up to 10 inches in some places, but is believed to average a little more than eight inches in general over this section. The new floor mat, although a source of worry to some stockmen, is proving a delight to outdoor sportsmen, who are enjoying skiing and coasting on the hillsides. Those who have been suffering from the present epidemic of colds are recovering satisfactorily in this locality, although many have been afflicted with neuritis as an aftermath to their illnesses. The Copeco picture series shown at the school house January 7 were well received by a good audience. The pictures were put on by Don Ruyard and Jack Moore of Medford and the use of the vitaphone doubled the interest of the pictures. Mrs. Gus Samuels of Medford, and Mrs. Hazel Wilrick of Portland visited last week with their uncles, Geo. McDonough and J. L. Rowe. W. W. Edington returned from Turlock, Calif., Wednesday after spending the Christmas holidays with his daughter, Mrs. Leo Newton and two nieces of that city. Sams Valley high school basketball team defeated the Gold Hill team at Gold Hill Wednesday night.

CHISELING CUTIES ON TRAIL OF BAER LIKE BEE SWARM

Susceptible Sultan of Swat Becoming Girl Shy As Army of Charmers Try to Gain Acquaintance

(Copyright, 1935, by United Press.) NEW YORK, Jan. 15.—(UP)—A perfumed parade of chiseling charmers has turned Maxie Baer, erstwhile Casanova of clout, into a girl-shy champion who starts to block and weave at the tap of a French heel. The champion's manager, Ancel Hoffman, today revealed for the first time a running fight waged between handsome Maxie and a nation's army of covetous cuties, badger broods, and mulling molls. Hoffman, stubby, paunchy Californian who looks like a well-fed shoe salesman, sat in an easy chair at his hotel and emphasized that the smashing Baer-Casanova title fight last June was just a polite set-to-sete compared with the ceaseless struggle between the Baer entourage and de-glaring women. Tires of Peering. "Maxie is so tired of all this peering, plotting and attempted trapping that his ideas about women have changed entirely since he became champion," Hoffman said. "After he won the championship his ideal for a future wife was revealed. Big towns; little towns—they're all alike. Telephoning, writing, messaging, knocking at his door, sitting down at his table, waiting for him in lobbies or at theater entrances. It's a Problem. "Some of them just want Maxie," Hoffman said. "Others are after his cash; but most of them want both. All of them have to be fought off. It's a hell of a problem. Maxie's a big handsome, hell for leather kid, who loves life and action. He used to love women, too. But they've made him sort of bitter. It's easier now, though, because Maxie cooperates with us. That affair in Seattle taught him a lesson—taught him that there were women who just wanted his money."

INA E. CHAUNCEY DIES, CENTRAL PT.

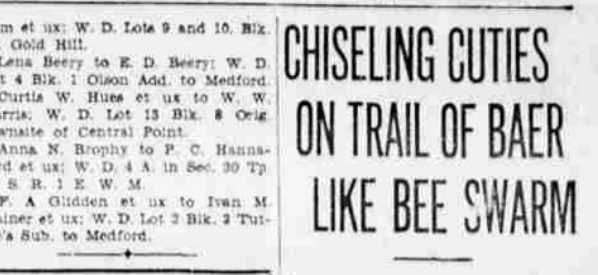

Ina E. Chauncey, wife of W. E. Chauncey, passed away at her home in Central Point at 5:30 a. m. Tuesday at the age of 66. Mrs. Chauncey has been a long time sufferer, bedfast and speechless for six years. She was born at Williamsport, Penn., in 1866 and was married to Mr. Chauncey at Centralia, Wash., in 1920. Two years later they came to Central Point where they have since resided. Before the husband, she leaves one brother and one sister, Edward Leonard and Mrs. J. V. O'Palm, both in the east. One cousin Carrie J. Van Camp resides at Myrtle Point, Oregon. Funeral services will be conducted by Rev. D. E. Millard at the Conger chapel at 2:00 p. m. Saturday. Interment in the Central Point cemetery.

BEGINNERS SPANISH CLASS IS PLANNED

For all those interested in elementary Spanish, there will be a class starting in that subject at the senior high school building some time next week; it was announced today by acting Superintendent C. O. Smith. The class will be for beginners only and will be conducted by J. C. Hunter, instructor of Spanish in various schools on the Pacific coast. However, if the demand is great enough an advanced class will be started. Anyone wishing further information should call the city school superintendent's office.
