

HIGHS' SENTENCE IN BARN BURNING DUE NEXT WEEK

Sentence is scheduled to be passed by Circuit Judge H. D. Norton some time next week upon George High and his brother, N. (Babe) High, of Ashland, found guilty by a jury a week ago of setting fire to a barn in the Ashland district on the night of January 4, 1933, to collect $15,000. Judge Norton is now holding court in Josephine county and is expected to return here next week for court sessions.

Attorney George M. Roberts, counsel for the High brothers, said today that in all probability an appeal to the state supreme court would be filed. This cannot be done until sentence is passed.

Sentence is also scheduled to be passed upon Joe B. Holland of Astoria, who entered a plea of guilty to the arson charge, and was the chief witness for the state. Holland testified that George High had promised him half the insurance money for burning the barn and that he offered "Babe" High $1000 for the crime. Theron (Red) Martin, serving a year in the Multnomah county jail for burglary, was named by Holland as the actual setter of the fire, while "Babe" High remained in a waiting auto and Holland stood guard at the barn door. Martin received $50. Holland testified.

The High brothers are at liberty on $2500 bonds pending further legal action.

Oregon law provides a penalty of from three to seven years in state prison for the crime of which they stand convicted.

C. OF C. DIRECTORS WILL DRAW PLANS

B. E. Harder, president of the Jackson County Chamber of Commerce, today announced an important meeting of the directors of that body at the Hotel Medford at 6:30 this evening.

Ashland chamber of commerce directors will be special guests and will assist in the formulation of plans for a wider scope for the county chamber's activities over a period of the next five years.

Such plans have been contemplated for some time, and when completed are expected to aid materially in county chamber work. The Ashland committee is reported as enthusiastic.

HART PURCHASES SANDERSON RANCH

Floyd Hart of this city has purchased the Sanderson property, 30 acres with a modern home 2 miles west of Central Point, and will make extensive improvements preparatory to making it his home, according to Carl Y. Tengwald of the Tengwald real estate agency here.

B. L. Sanderson, former owner of the property, will live with his family at the former Hart home on Rose avenue in this city, it was announced.

Other transactions of interest during the last ten days announced by the Tengwald agency are the purchase by S. W. Hutchinson of 55 acres on the Crater Lake highway, near Rogue Elk, and the dwelling located at 608 Newtown, which was sold to Fred J. Pisk, who will make extensive repairs before occupying it as a home.

Presbyterians Are Invited To Attend Rally In Ashland

The people of the Medford Presbyterian church are invited to a Presbyterian Sunday rally at the Ashland church on Sunday afternoon and evening at 3 o'clock. At this service, Mrs. F. E. Bancroft will speak and motion pictures of Japan will be shown.

At 5 o'clock there will be a planned covered dish supper. Those who wish to remain for this supper are asked to get in touch with Eleanor Poffenberger or Rev. E. Peterson about the menu, if they have not yet done so.

The evening service begins at 7:30. At this service the speaker will be Miss Donaldine Cameron, superintendent of the Presbyterian Mission home for Chinese girls in San Francisco.

All those who can help with transportation are asked to get in touch with Rev. Peterson by calling 194 or 9-E-2 as soon as possible. Young people desiring to go should meet at the Medford church at 2:30.

Western Thrift Has Anniversary Sale

A Blue Eagle sales event, celebrating Western Thrift's second anniversary in Medford, opens today, according to L. A. Dell.

Mr. Dell says: "Believing that a sufficient volume of business could be gained in the Rogue river valley, we opened the cut rate store at 125 East 6th street January 20, 1933, bringing toiletries, remedies, sundries and tobacco to the residents of Medford and vicinity at prices comparable and in many cases lower than in larger cities. Six clerks are now necessary to take care of the large volume of business. Merchandise is featured at the lowest prices and the stock is turned from 20 to 35 times yearly."

"Western Thrift serves over one thousand customers, daily average, making it a popular shopping spot in southern Oregon. Contrary to general opinion, Western Thrift Store is home owned and operated."

John Switzer Of Talent Passes

John Switzer, aged 85 and a resident of Jackson county for the past 19 years, passed away near Talent early this morning (Friday).

Mr. Switzer was single and leaves no known relatives. Arrangements in care of Conger funeral parlors.

Only one regular, Dave Meek, returned to the basketball wars for University of California this season.

UNIT CHAIRMEN OF COUNTY HOME 'EK' ARE ENTERTAINED

The County Home Economics Extension committee and the county home demonstration agent entertained in honor of the chairmen of the home extension units of the county at a "Chairman's Day Program" at the courthouse auditorium on Tuesday, Jan. 15.

The program opened with get acquainted games and re-creational features directed by Mrs. O. C. Maust, county project leader in recreation, with Mrs. Hattie White of Medford as pianist.

Reports of project work for 1934 were given by county committee members as follows: administration, Mrs. Effie Birdseye; clothing, Mrs. Rita Myers; foods, Mrs. Susie Maust; parent education, Mrs. Bertha Young; recreation, Mrs. Susie Maust.

A summary of achievements in organization and administration was given by Mrs. Mabel C. Meek, home demonstration agent. Each unit chairman gave a report on "how the program is going forward in my community" and ways in which it can be improved. Miss Claribel Nye, state leader of home economics extension discussed the status of home demonstration work in the United States and in Oregon, and also discussed the program for the Home Interests conference, which will be held in Corvallis, Feb. 12 to 16.

Mrs. Bertha Glasgow, chairman of the county committee presided at the noon luncheon. The tables were attractively decorated in red and green. Miss Nye gave a very interesting and entertaining talk on "my work as home economist in federal emergency relief administration in Washington, D. C."

Unit chairmen attending were: Mrs. Dora Burns, Bellview; Mrs. Joe Hibbard, Butte Falls; Mrs. Warren Patterson, Central Point; Mrs. Iren Seaman, Eagle Point; Mrs. W. D. Coburn, McLeod; Mrs. Mabel Stanciliff, Phoenix; Mrs. Dorothy Waldron, Oak Grove; Mrs. Effie Birdseye, Rogue River; Mrs. Lola Bush, Roxy Ann; Mrs. Nora Walter, Talent; Mrs. Eva Seegerson, Trail; Mrs. J. R. McCracken, Valleyview. Other guests were: Mrs. A. T. Lathrop, Central Point; Mrs. Ida Sweeney, Medford; Miss Clair Hanley, Jacksonville; Mrs. Saunders, Eugene; Victor Tengwald and Miss Brown of the local SERA office; Miss Claribel Nye, state leader of home economics extension, O. S. C.; Gladys York and Mabel C. Meek, county home demonstration agent and the county extension committee.

AL STEWART'S BAND AT JACKSONVILLE

In answer to popular demand, Al Stewart and his night owls will again provide the music for the Saturday night Jacksonville dances, according to the dance committee of the Jacksonville chamber of commerce. The band will play until two a. m.

has notified the two warring factions of the A. F. of L. building trade department that he will resign unless they compose their differences. He is a big union man himself (head of the pressmen) and is fast getting around to the view that he is wasting his building trades code efforts as long as the building trades warriors continue to fight among themselves. Peace is expected shortly, for that reason or others.

Chairman Biddle of the national labor relations board once regaled an English lord at breakfast with that famed Philadelphia dish called scrapple. The lord liked it, but must have been confused about the name of it, for he later granted a public interview which he said:

"I dined with some splendid people named Scrapple who gave me biddles for breakfast."

For that reason Mr. Biddle now is known at the labor board as Mr. Scrapple.

Sunday Schools Of Presbyterian Now Under Dr. Elliott

The session of the Medford Presbyterian church has appointed Dr. B. R. Elliott acting superintendent of the church school to fill the vacancy made by resignation of Mrs. W. S. Gilmore. It is the desire of Dr. Elliott and those in charge that the church school be closely graded and that there be adequate provision for all age groups from the cradle roll to the adult divisions.

Six new teachers have been added this week who will be present Sunday. A complete list of the teaching staff will be published next week.

INFECTED TOOTH KEEPS MADISON SQUARE DARK

NEW YORK, Jan. 18.—(AP)—Madison Square Garden will be dark to boxing tonight—all because of an infected tooth.

The aching molar belong to Bob Olin, light heavyweight champion. It gave him so much pain that he pleaded for postponement of his 10-round over-weight match with John Henry Lewis, Phoenix negro contender, scheduled for tonight. After Olin was examined by the state athletic commission physician, an indefinite postponement was granted.

The old Jew was right; there is always sin back of sickness, a violation of law.

WASHINGTON EAGLES TRIM HEADQUARTERS CCC QUINT, 36 TO 20

In a fast and furious game the Eagles' boys' basketball team defeated at the Washington school station the CCC, 36 to 20, last night at the junior high school gym. The junior high midgets defeated the Eagle Juniors, 17 to 10, in the preliminary.

Fornbrook and Williams started for the loop for 11 markers, while Williams managed to ring in 10. Hogan and Nugent maintained the lead in high scoring in the CCC camps with eight points each. Woods also with his fouls made a creditable showing.

The starting lineup follows: Eagles: Brown, F.; Williams, F.; Grove, C.; Fornbrook, G.; Calvert, G. Swanson, Jr. Eagles, Jr. Midgets: Archer, F.; Krovis, P.; Putnam, C.; Ayers, G. Campbell, Monteth, Paske, Cobbe. Referer—Campbell.
