

TENNESSEE MOB BURNS COURTHOUSE; RIOTING BRINGS DEATHS

Tear gas and bullets were employed by Tennessee guardsmen at Shelbyville in their attempts to halt a rioting mob bent on reaching E. K. Harris, 22-year-old negro on trial for assaulting a white girl. At left troops are shown holding back a crowd in the town's main street. At right, lying prone, is Raleigh Edwards, one of the men killed by guardsmen's bullets. The mob finally burned the $150,000 courthouse at Shelbyville, but failed to get to Edwards. (Associated Press Photos)

Denounces Treaty

Francis Pietri (above), France's minister of the navy, termed the Washington naval treaty "intolerable" but asserted France was "always ready for the limitation of armaments" as the treaty argument found France preparing to give notice that she would consider the treaty at an end after 1936. (Associated Press Photo)

GOVERNORS SEE PRESIDENT AT LITTLE WHITE HOUSE

Hopes for development of state unemployment insurance were expressed by President Roosevelt to governors of southeastern states who visited him in the "little White House" at Warm Springs, Ga. Left to right, seated: Gov. Eugene Talmadge of Georgia, Governor-elect Olin Johnston of South Carolina, and the President. Standing: Gov. Ibra C. Blackwood of South Carolina, Lieut. Gov. Graham of North Carolina, Governor-elect Bibb Graves of Alabama, and Gov. Dave Sholtz of Florida. (Associated Press Photo)

BLIND YOUTH GETS CHANCE IN MOVIE

An interview Charles Brown, 23, recently gave interested a motion picture director who offered him a part in a picture with Myrna Loy, pictured with the blind youth and his "seeing eye" dog, Lady. Brown financed his own way through college. (Associated Press Photo)

COUPLE LAY INJURED FOUR DAYS BEFORE RESCUE

Russell Allison (lower right) discovered George Paperno (lower left, holding head) and his wife, Ora (upper right), suffering from the effects of four days and nights of exposure to cold and rain after their automobile (upper left) tumbled off a cliff near Los Angeles. Allison was out hunting and the dog made the first discovery. Its barking attracted the youth's attention. (Associated Press Photos)

FLAMING PLANE PYRE FOR TWO ARMY FLIERS

Lieut. William C. Reeves (upper right), son of Admiral Joseph M. Reeves, commander-in-chief of the U. S. Fleet, and Sgt. Noel Aubrey (lower right) were burned to death as their plane was destroyed near the state highway near Burlingame, Cal. Scores of motorists were endangered as the plane sheared off a telephone pole and burst into flames. The remnants of the army bomber are shown at left. (Associated Press Photos)

STUDENT EDITORS VISIT ROOSEVELT AT WHITE HOUSE

Members of the executive committee of the Intercollegiate Daily Editorial association meeting in Washington are shown as they visited President Roosevelt at the White House. Left to right standing: Stanley Beaubaire, Stanford university; Ben Lieberman, University of Illinois; William E. Phipps, University of Oregon; D. B. Hardeman, University of Texas, and Donald J. Pryor, University of Iowa. (Associated Press Photo)

GRID COACHES PONDER RULES

Possible changes in collegiate football rules were considered at the New York meeting of the American Football Coaches' association, although it was revealed that 80 per cent of the coaches favor the rules as they now stand. Dana X. Bible (left) of the University of Nebraska, retiring president of the association, is shown conferring with Bernie Bierman of Minnesota, the new president. (Associated Press Photo)

SANTA BARBARA OBSERVES 'NAME DAY' ANNIVERSARY

A colorful celebration, with girl scouts planting native wild poppy seeds in from the mission, was held in commemoration of the 332nd christening of Santa Barbara, Cal. The historic seaside city was named Santa Barbara by Sebastian Vizcaino, Spanish explorer, 15 years before the pilgrim fathers sailed for America in the Mayflower. The old Mission Santa Barbara is in the background (Associated Press Photo)

DESICCATED BODY OF GALAPAGOS MYSTERY VICTIM

The body of Alfred Rudolph Lorenze of Paris and Charles Island, Palapagos archipelago, is shown on uninhabited Marchena island where it was found by fishermen. This body, as well as that of the other victim of thirst, Trygve Nuggrud, had been preserved by the action of wind and sun. (G. Allan Hancock expedition photo from The Associated Press)

Refuses To Talk

This wounded youth refused to give Centralia, Wash., police his name or say anything about murder charges he will face. He was dumped by companions in front of a doctor's door and arrested in connection with the slaying of a Pe Ell, Wash., service station operator. (Associated Press Photo)

SOCIALITES AID IN SEARCH FOR MISSING CARMEL WOMAN

The Monterey, Cal., peninsula area was the scene of an extensive hunt for Mrs. Elliot Bole Schaffner (right), 36, wealthy Chicago society matron, who disappeared from her home in Carmel, Cal. Members of the exclusive society set joined Boy Scouts, volunteers, soldiers, SERA workers and police officials in the search. Mrs. Vanderbilt Church Phelps (left) and Mrs. Lloyd Tevis, both members of the Carmel beach set, starting a search by horseback in nearby rolling country. (Associated Press Photos)

