LOSES HER PURSE Word has been received at the Mail Tribune that Miss Frances Everet, the "cat woman" who has become quite a part of the Medford scene has recently lost her purse contain-ing keys, and $5 in cash, all the money that the lady possessed, The purse, a brown one, was lost all the store January 9, and she is very anx-ious to recover it. Miss Everett is the lady who is host to any number of otherwise stray cats and kittens at her home on the corner of King and Stewart avenue here. Any member of the feline tribe who is lost or deserted always finds a welcome at the Everett home. That lady has apparently never heard that "there are other ways of killing vita besides choking them to death with cream." for she spends most of the little money she manages to scrape together in caring for them Any person who knows anything of the purse would be doing a real kind-ness to either take it to the aged lady, or leave it at the Mail Tribune office, from where it will be delivered to her. WATCHES ABUSED
