THE GRANGE

Eagle Point Grange. In memory of Sister Ruby Bitterling of the Eagle Point Grange.

Sister Ruby Bitterling, admitted to membership in the Eagle Point Grange No. 664 in 1927, and after a long and faithful membership of eight years, passed to her great reward on January 8, 1935.

That whereas: This Grange has been deeply bereaved through the loss of a dearly beloved sister, Mrs. Ruby Bitterling, one of the fairest flowers of our Grange garden, who has been called by the Master of the great Grange above to "lay down her implements on earth, and to enter that paradise not made with hands, eternal in the Heavens, and has received his welcome plaintiff, well done, good and faithful servant."

That whereas: This sister has become so endeared to the members of this Grange because of her many virtues: a devoted loving wife and mother; a kind, thoughtful neighbor, and a true and loyal Granger, the fabric of her daily life having been woven of the fibres of those principles dear to the heart of every true Granger.

And whereas: Not only has the Grange but the entire community has benefited by her industry, her noble mind and generous heart.

Therefore, be it resolved by the members of this Grange that we believe the most fitting tribute we can pay to the memory of our beloved sister, and one which no doubt would please her most, would be for the members of this Grange to so emulate her good works by the exemplification in our daily lives and in our Grange work and association of those Grange principles for which she has been noted and which are a part of our manual instructions for our edification, namely: To "labor with cheerfulness."

To "do good, hoping for nothing in return."

To "Acquire knowledge, and dispense it."

To "Forget not to dispense charity in word and in deed and, as flowers and vines cover the rough places of nature, to cover the faults and failings of others with a mantle of charity."

To "Be faithful, nurture hope, dispense charity, and be noted for fidelity."

Be it further resolved, that a copy of this resolution be sent with our deepest sympathy to Brothers Julius A. Bitterling, William Miller, Joe Miller, and Robert Bitterling, each.

And be it further resolved, that a suitable copy of this resolution be made and hung upon the walls of our Grange hall, to act as a reminder, and that it be a matter of record and spread upon our minutes.
