Sylvia Sidney in Indian Role at Rialto

When a white man marries an Apache Indian girl, one would expect things to happen, particularly when the white man is a pampered son of wealthy parents. In "Behold My Wife" starting a three-day run at the Rialto theater today, Sylvia Sidney plays the role of the Indian girl who falls in love with Gene Raymond, marries him, only to discover his only desire for matrimony was prompted by his wish to humiliate his parents.

From this complicated situation has come a screen play that runs the gamut of emotions, ranging from the light comedy touches at which Miss Sidney is so adept, to stark drama and exciting suspense. A notable cast of supporting players is headed by H. B. Warner.

Col. Ralph C. Tobin, commanding officer of the 107th regiment, New York national guard, formerly known as the 7th. It bears the heading: "Public Enemy No. 1," and accuses the Legion of being "guided by the ethics of gangdom."

Immediate payment of the bonus, says the editorial, "will lead to national bankruptcy." The Legion's demand, it says, is justified "by nothing more than the 'crime of gimmes'."

After having worked together in a circus for 40 years, Victor F. Anderson, 70, and Elizabeth N. Pew, 73, have married. Each had taken two previous trips to the altar.

LEGION TERMED 'GIMME' GROUP

NEW YORK, Jan. 29.—(AP)—The American Legion is called "America's Premier Gang" in an editorial in today's issue of the Seventh Regiment Gazette, which criticizes the Legion for demanding cash payment of the bonus.

The editorial was made public by the

Here Wednesday Opens at Roxy

Described in advance accounts from Hollywood as the finest to date of Will Rogers' portrait series, the American character portraits, "The County Chairman" will be seen here at the Craterian theater, beginning tomorrow.

"The County Chairman" is a screen adaptation of the famous play of the same title, by one of America's foremost humorists, George Ade.

"The County Chairman" it is said, is a story of smiles and heart tugs, rivaling the hugely successful "Judge Priest" and "David Harum" as a vehicle for Rogers. In the new film he is seen as a wily, lovable county boss, half-diplomat, half-rustic. He wins elections and arranges love matches with equal skill—and no one, not even his rivals, can resist him.

A notable supporting cast includes such players as Evelyn Venable, Ken Taylor, Louise Dresser, Berton Churchill, Mickey Rooney, Frank Melton and Stepin Fetchit.

Once again Will Rogers displays his recently developed flair for singing in this picture. This time he renders an old-time western rangers' song, accompanying himself on the guitar. Another highlight of "The County Chairman" is one of those famous torchlight processions so much in vogue at the turn of the century. This one is staged by Will and is said to have all the frenzy and thrill of its originals.
