NO SHEEP CLAIMS FILED DURING CURRENT MONTH For the first time in several months, no claims for sheep killed by dogs were filed with Jackson County in January by sheep-owners.

This is said to be due to several of the dogs being killed by sheep-owners, and a general round up of stray dogs now held at the Humane Society pen at Jackson County, under state law, pays $2 for each sheep killed by dogs, and close to 300 sheep were slaughtered by them during 1934.

PIERCE ADVOCATES DELAYING ACTION ON PRIMARY BILL

ROSEBURG, Ore., Jan. 29. — (AP) — The Oregon legislature should withhold action on the proposed bill to hold the primary election to the month of September until congress acts upon a proposed constitutional amendment to place general elections in October instead of November, Congressman Walter M. Pierce states in a message received here this morning by Dr. C. H. Bailey, editor of the Oregon Grange Bulletin.

"It would be folly for any state to change its primary date, while the discussion of the constitutional amendment is pending in congress," Representative Pierce declares.

"Oregon people, however, should be made to see the danger of the plan for September primaries. It would put a high premium on advertising and would make it impossible for a person to conduct a leisurely campaign for office. He would be obliged to campaign by radio, newspaper and ballpoo, because he could not possibly cover a territory like mine, for instance, in two months. It means that money will win in the campaign and that newspapers will tighten their control on public opinion. There is a disadvantage in the early primaries, but the advantages are still all in the interest of society."

Mr. Pierce urges the Oregon Grange to take a strong stand against the movement.

PARADISE Arthur Brisbane, traveler, thinker, great editor, says: "On all this round globe, there exists no such paradise of earth, air, sunlight and sea as this western coast of the United States."

GRIFFIN CREEK UNIT'S PLAY 'CORNFED BABIES' SET THURSDAY EVENING

The Griffin Creek Extension unit play, "Cornfed Babies," will be presented Thursday night, at 8 o'clock at the White school house. This is one of the plays of the county-wide dramatic contest.

The cast includes: Wilma Baker, the young wife — Marceline Jones. Lulu, the maid — Laura Jones. Leslie Baker, Wilma's husband — Ivan Gray.

John Bernard, pres. of Bernard & Co.—Floyd Collier. Alice Walner, Wilma's mother—Alice Lamb. Manager is Cecile Skien; make-up artist, Alma Christensen; electrician, Ray Gutches, promoter, Catherine Gay; and director, Ruth Hood.

The play is a farce, wherein the Bakers, a young married couple, find themselves in a predicament when Mr. Bernard, who is Mr. Baker's employer, comes to call—and to see the "children," when in reality there are no children. A very interesting situation.

There will be a small admission fee, which will go to help send the winning play to Corvallis, Feb. 12, buy a curtain for the school house stage, and to help send a car with delegates to the home-makers' conference at Corvallis from Feb. 12 to 16.

Besides the play there will be several readings and musical numbers.

REPLANTED MAGNOLIA EXPECTED TO FLOURISH

The magnolia tree transplanted a year ago, from the Pickel yard at Main and Ivy streets to the courthouse lawn, has passed the crisis and will live, according to County Agent Robert G. Fowler, who says the magnolia, one of the few in southern Oregon, "is apparently healthy and growing." It was feared that the tree would not survive the transplanting.

FRUIT CROP LOANS RECEIVE APPROVAL

Renewal of fruit crop loans by the Medford Credit Production Association are now being made. Luther J. Deuel, manager, said today, and in the next ten days many will be approved and disposed of for the coming year. To date, 75 fruit crop loans have been renewed.

Renewals of range stock loans are also now being made, and will total 20 or more. Federal payments on Hog-Corn and Wheat Allotment contracts, for last year are being received weekly, according to County Agent Robert G. Fowler, and notice was received Monday that another payment was en route. According to Fowler the payments come in small lots, and the checks are distributed as fast as received.
