TOWNSEND WARNS CONGRESS ACTION ON PLAN WATCHED

Beach, California, physician, asserted. "If you believe that, you must also believe that millions of people who are behind the plan are sock-eyed."
The description "sock-eyed" was applied to the plan by Harry L. Hopkins, emergency relief administrator. Arguing for his proposal on the basis that it would remove 4,000,000 persons over 61 from jobs and give that work to younger people, Doctor Townsend asserted that in recent years "experiment after experiment has been tried and failed," with the result that the "rich are getting richer and the poor are getting poorer."
Weak from Operation.
Obviously weak from days in bed at Johns Hopkins hospital from an abdominal operation, Doctor Townsend asked that he be excused from cross-examination.
The committee agreed and granted his request that Francis Cottle of Riverside, Cal., be permitted to testify Monday on the actuarial aspects of his proposal.
Townsend said a "new deal brain-stormer," Dr. Mordecai Ezekiel of the agricultural department, had contended the United States could "easily maintain everyone on a $2500 a year income."
"My plan is simply to try that on a modest basis with the eight million old people in this country," he said. "If we persist in our present crazy plan of starving in the midst of plenty, . . . we deserve to remain in the midst of the depression."

PAJAMA CLAD MODEL FOUND WITH HUSBAND NO DIVORCE GROUNDS
NEW YORK, Feb. 1.—(UPI)—Mrs. Esther Cobina Wright, whose fame among New York's "400" lies in her ability to stage novel parties, couldn't convince a divorce referee today that it was naughty for her husband, in formal attire, to be in an apartment with a pretty, pajama-clad artist's model.
"This is the first divorce case I ever heard of," snapped ex-Surrogate John P. Cobalan, sitting as referee, "where people committed adultery in full dress."
Mrs. Wright, known as "The Peerless Cobina," summoned witnesses to testify that although they found William May Wright, Wall Street man, impeccable in starched bowtie and tails, his companion wore pajamas—"fancy" pajamas, not "beach pajamas" or lounging pajamas but definitely negligee.
"Woman don't dress in crinolines and hoopskirts any longer," retorted Judge Cobalan. "They were lounging pajamas. Just because a woman comes in and takes off her coat and puts on lingerie doesn't mean she's about to commit adultery."

A Little Bit of Paris in Every Style
These Styles Come To Medford
Girls!
I just had to tell you about some of the gorgeous creations, Hollywood and Los Angeles are presenting for Spring. We are spending a month, scouring the Los Angeles and San Francisco markets, to select the cream of the styles for your Spring outfit. The interpretations of Russian Cossack, Peasant, Spanish and Mexican ideas, are alluring and interesting to behold, with all their gayness and dash.
In contrast, and no less interesting are the serene desert tones, Sandy Grey, Dusky Rose, Heaven Blue and many others.
In a mood of patriotism, Dame Fashion gives a grand salute to the navy. Solid Navy, also combinations of plaids, stripes, and floral prints in extravagant trims, or wee little tricky bows, and even nuts from the trees in Brazil.
The Suits go any length to please you, full length swaggers, high length, finger length and many other lengths. Action backs, knee action skirts, mannish types or cape styles in tweeds, monotonies, checks, etc.
The dresses have their days and evenings too, the cocktail, dinner and formal gowns vie for honors, with the snappy smartness of the street dress (which accentuates the wee bit of Paris).
The hat is an adorable chapeaux again, wearable and individual, Wad Crown, Alpine Crown, Sweetie Pie Bonnet, two way, and even five way brims. Girls! You'll be wild about them, they are adorable.
The shoes are also very smart in every detail.
We truly think our Spring styles will far surpass anything we have ever shown. Do come in and see these lovely togs, arriving daily at our store.

A resolution for the amendment of chapter 459 General Laws of Oregon 1933 with the purpose of reinstating "certain necessary and desirable portions of the law" relating to criminal syndicalism, was adopted by Medford Elks lodge at the regular meeting last night.
The resolution, which will be mailed to all Elks lodges in the state, follows:
"Whereas the Oregon Legislature at its regular session in 1933 amended sections 14-3, 110-11-12 Oregon Code 1930 and repealed section 14-3, 113 Oregon Code 1930 relating to criminal syndicalism,
"And Whereas by such amendments certain necessary and desirable portions of the law were eliminated,
"And Whereas the law in its present form is inadequate to properly curb activities of organizations and individuals seeking to overthrow the Government by force,
"Now Therefore, be it Resolved by Medford Lodge No. 1168 B. P. O. E. that Chapter 459 General Laws of Oregon 1933 be amended to read as sections 14-3, 110-11-12 and 113 Oregon Code 1930 were before the said Chapter 459 General Laws of Oregon 1933 was enacted.
"And be it further Resolved that the Secretary of this Lodge immediately forward to Honorable Geo. W. Dunn, State Senator, Honorable Moore Hamilton, State Representative, and Honorable Glenn O. Taylor, State Representative, copies of this Resolution together with a request that they support the amendment herein referred to.
"GEORGE CODDING,
"LEWIS ULRICH,
"DELROY GETCHELL,
"Committee."
Maurice L. Tedrow and George E. Snyder were initiated into the lodge, and Floyd Parsons was introduced to the members as a transfer from the Salem lodge.
A worthy report of the Bend initiation ceremony held this week, attended by delegations from all lodges in Oregon south, was given during the meeting by Medford Elks who attended.
Besides the initiation, a feed with free beer was served. It was announced that plans are progressing for the third of the series of Elks smokers, to be held Thursday, Feb. 7, and also for the Valentine's dance, Feb. 14, for members of the lodge only.

TOWN CLOCK STOPPED BY SUB-ZERO WEATHER

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 1.—(AP)—The cold wave set a new low for January 31 and actually stopped a clock.
With the temperature at 7 above zero, the hands on the large clock in the tower of the city hall stopped yesterday and repairmen who blamed the cold for affecting the mechanism worked two hours to get it started.

Colorado Town Turkey Center
