Society and Club Events Reviewed for Week

Wedding of Miss Hall to Richard Mann Solemnized

Miss June LaVerne Hall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Hall of Ashland, and Richard E. Mann, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Mann of Medford, were married at the home of the bridegroom's parents, 47 Rose avenue Saturday, February 2, at 7:30 p.m., with Rev. W. R. Baird officiating.

Miss Hall graduated from the Sacred Heart school of nursing in 1933, and Mr. Mann attended Ashland Normal. Both are graduates of Medford high school.

The bride was attired in a brown and tan traveling suit and wore a corsage of gardenias. Miss Myrtle Hall, the bride's sister, who was maid of honor, wore a blue ensemble with a corsage of sweet peas and rose buds. J. D. Bolton was the bridegroom's attendant.

Relatives and a few close friends who attended the wedding were served refreshments after the ceremony.

After a short wedding trip north the couple will reside in Medford where Mr. Mann is employed.

The bride was given a miscellaneous shower last Tuesday evening by Miss Myrtle Hall, her sister, and Mrs. David Rees. Guests at the shower were Mesdames Ed Mann, E. Bagley, Arnie Christensen, Cecil Skien, Fern Lindley and Misses Carmen Dorothy, Helen Jane Crotty and Maude Demoreast.

Daughters of Nile Confer Degrees in Ashland Ceremonial

On Tuesday afternon Ashland Masonic Temple was the scene of one of the most beautiful ceremonials ever given by Zuleima Temple, Daughters of the Nile. The hall was decorated with oriental rugs, floor lamps and draperies, candlebra with lighted tapers and baskets of lovely spring flowers.

Several candidates received the degrees with impresive ceremonies. They were from Klamath Falls, Medford and Ashland. Following the ceremonial, Miss Dorothy Reynolds entertained with her students from Ashland high school, with numbers by the girls' sextette and the boys' trio.

At 12:30 a delicious lunch was served in the dining room of the temple, with 90 members and visitors seated at tables decorated with sweetpeas and other spring flowers. Mr and Mrs. W. H. Day of Ashland, following their usual custom, contributed a large box of chocolates for the luncheon.

This is the last ceremonial of the year for Mrs. T. P. Franco, queen of the temple and her officers, who have enjoyed a very successful year and accomplished a great deal in the way of assisting Shriners' hospitals for crippled children, both at Portland and Shreveport, La.

The newly elected officers to be installed at an elaborate ceremony in Grants Pass on February 9, are as follows: Queen, Mrs. A. K. Cass, Grants Pass; junior past queen, Mrs. T. P. Franco, Ashland; princess royal, Mrs. Chas. L. Woods, Medford; Tirzah, Mrs. A. J. McCallen, Ashland; Badoura, Mrs. Karl Hammerbacher, Grants Pass; recorder, Mrs. A. B Brownell, Grants Pass; banker, Miss Amelia Britt, Jacksonville; marshal, Mrs. H. B. Kellom, Medford; chaplain, Mrs. R. E. Swan, Medford; ladies' in waiting, Mrs. Dade Terrett, Mrs. A. B. Cunningham, Mrs. O. O. Alenderfer of Medford, Mrs. Earl Newbry, Talent, and Mrs. Brattan of Grants Pass; attendants, Misses Ellen Franco and Irwanda Bateman, Ashland; lady of the keys, Mrs. Williams, Grants Pass; lady of the gates, Mrs. Loomis, Ashland.

Combined Luncheon Planned at Church By 5 Social Circles

The women's associations, composed of all five circles of the Presbyterian church, will hold a 1 o'clock luncheon Tuesday, February 5, at the church parlors.

Each circle is to have charge of its own table and entertainment, and the event is to be the biggest of the year for the ladies. Many are already making reservations. There are usually about 100 or 150 present.

Jobs Daughters Meet Monday Night.

Job's Daughters will meet Monday night at 7:30 o'clock at the Masonic temple, announcement stated.

Mrs. Bebb to Be Hostess At Guild Cafeteria Dinner

St. Mark's Altar Guild will meet at the home of Roberta Bebb, 320 South Grape street, Monday evening, for cafeteria dinner, to be followed by the regular business meeting.

Father Bartlam will give another of his interesting talks.

Dinner is to be served at 6:30.

Hilda Clifford Initiated At Rites of Pocahontas Lodge.

Pocahontas lodge initiation was held on Friday evening and Hilda Clifford was instructed in the mysteries of the degree.

Following the business meeting refreshments were served by Wilma Hayes, Gladys Lawrents and Bud Lawrents.

Next Friday the regular social night will be given in form of a dance with the Whipples furnishing the music.

Past Matron's Club Meets Monday Afternoon.

Past Matron's club and Beames chapter will meet at the home of Mrs. Mary Mathes, at 301 South Central street Monday afternoon at 1:15 for dessert luncheon.

Hostesses will be Mesdames Minnie Corliss, Mary Mathes, Stella Merrick and Cornelia Barnes.

Unless the committee is notified, a place will be reserved for each member.

Miss Thompson Receives Government Appointment

MISS GERALDINE THOMPSON, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Thompson of 113 Tripp street, has received a civil service appointment as senior typist at Washington, D. C., she announced after returning Friday evening from Pullman, Wash., where she was employed in government offices for the last two months.

Miss Thompson is a former employe of Crater lake national park service, and is also well known in Medford for her presentations with the violin. While in Pullman she made several broadcasts of violin numbers over the air from Washington State College.

She is expected to leave for Washington, D. C., within a few days.

Parent-Teachers Set Friday For Special Program

Friday of this week, February 8, has been set aside by Junior high P.-T. A. for the celebration of Founders' day. A short business meeting will be held at 2 o'clock, to be followed by a lovely program, especially appropriate for the occasion.

Founders' day commemorates the anniversary of the founding of the national congress of Parents and Teachers in Washington, D. C., February 17, 1897.

Two groups of Junior high school students will participate in the program. A beautifully decorated birthday cake will be cut and the first two presidents of the association will pour.

A silver birthday offering is made each year on Founders' day, for the extension of congress work. The field service has been almost wholly financed from this source.

A special invitation is extended all mothers of the children in the Junior high, and the public is cordially invited.

Mrs. Kendrick Will Be Rotary Hostess

Women of Rotary will meet at 1 o'clock Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Kenneth Kendrick, 28 Geneva avenue. Covered dish luncheon will be served.

Assistant hostesses will be Mrs. Mark Goldy and Mrs. John C. Boyle.

Building Bridge Club to Meet With Mrs. Frank Gritsch

Mrs. H. L. Hunter will entertain the Building Bridge club at the home of Mrs. Frank Gritsch, corner of Ivy and Eleventh streets, Thursday afternoon at 1:30. Miss McIntosh will assist the hostess.

First Meeting Thursday For New Degree Officers.

Degree of Honor Protective association will meet Thursday evening, February 7, at 7:30 o'clock at the Women's club rooms in the city hall. All members are requested to be present, as it will be the first meeting for the newly elected officers.

Church Announces Its Engagement of Choir Leader.

The session of the Presbyterian church has announced the engagement of Mrs. Edith A. Garrett as director of the choir.

Mrs. Garrett is a graduate of the American Conservatory of Music of Chicago and has had a wide experience, both as a soloist and director. She was director of the choir of the First Congregational church of Omaha for two years and of the choir of the Episcopal church at Lewiston, Mont., for five years.

Mrs. Garrett will sing with the choir on Sunday morning and will take charge at the next choir rehearsal on Thursday evening.

Party Will Give Band New Suits

With proceeds to be used to buy music and uniforms for Junior high school band, a public card party will be sponsored by Junior high school P.-T. A., Saturday afternoon, February 9, at 2 o'clock, in the Junior high school auditorium.

It is felt that the band, consisting of 40 pieces and conducted by F. Wilson Wait, requires uniforms and new music to participate in the annual May festival at Ashland.

Table reservations for the card party, to which everyone is urged to come, may be made by calling 584-W.

Guild Will Have Valentine's Party

Crater Lake Guild will meet Monday, February 4, at the home of Mrs. J. A. Perry, 604 West Main street.

This is an annual Valentine's party and a large attendance is expected.

Mrs. Frances Flynn, Mrs. Ella Pennington and Mrs. Emily Dynan will be the hostesses.

Drama Class Will Meet Next Wednesday.

The Girls' Community club drama class will meet as usual next Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the club house on North Bartlett.

St. Ann's Society To Have Card Party

St. Ann's Altar society will sponsor a card party in the parish hall, Wednesday evening, to which the public is invited. Play will begin at 8 o'clock, with Mrs. W. H Smith in charge. Prizes will be awarded the high scores, and refreshments will be served.

St. Ann's Altar Society Elects New Year Officers

At a special meeting last Tuesday St. Ann's Altar society elected officers for 1935. Mrs Joseph Doblmeier was chosen president. Mrs Rankin Estes, secretary and treasurer. The next regular meeting will be at the parish hall at 2:30 Tuesday afternoon. A big attendance is requested to welcome the new officers.

Jean Jennings Elected President of F. L. Club

Nine members of the F. L. club attended the meeting held at the home of Bease Thompson on West Thirteenth street, Monday evening.

Officers elected for the following six months were: Jean Jennings, president; Georgiana Hussong, vice president; Lucille Cave, secretary-tresaurer; Viola Aldredge, custodian of paraphernalia; and Faye Ackley, press correspondent. After the meeting, refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Edna Hilderbrand.

Installation of officers and initiation of two candidates will be features of the regular meeting in February.

Miss Ruhl Plans Sail for Hawaii With Carpenters

After visiting in San Francisco for the last week, Miss Roxane Ruhl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Ruhl, is spending the week-end in Medford before returning south to sail from San Francisco next Tuesday for Honolulu. She will accompany Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Carpenter who have been in California for the last several days.

Miss Ruhl and the Carpenters plan to spend several weeks in the islands, returning the latter part of February or the first of March. Mr. and Mrs. Carpenter will either sail from San Francisco with Miss Ruhl or meet her at Los Angeles.

Miss Ruhl accompanied her sister, Alicia Ruhl, to San Francisco, where the latter entered Katherine Branson school, of which Miss Roxane Ruhl is a graduate.

Benefit Party at Talent Wednesday

Talent Community club will hold a public benefit card party at the club rooms next Wednesday, February 6, from 2 until 4 o'clock. The proceeds will go to the benefit of Doernbecker hospital, and for the Endowment and Scholarship loan fund.

Bridge and five hundred will be played. The committee in charge will be Mesdames E. C. Gardner, J. Terrill, H. Bates, O. H. Manning, E. W. Leaming and L. O. Penland.

Ladies of Active Group Will Meet

Lady Activians will meet next Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. L. L. Sanders, 1620 East Main street. Coffee will be served, followed by an evening of bridge.

Hostesses will be Mrs. Dwight Findley, Mrs. Aubrey Dean and Mrs. Sanders.

Annual Meet For College Club Set

The annual luncheon of the College Women's club will be held at Hotel Medford Saturday, February 9 at 1 o'clock. Following the luncheon the program will be given in the club rooms of the Presbyterian church.

Miss Grace Helton Chamberlain will review "English Journey" by J. B. Priestly. A group of songs will be sung by Mrs. Richard Joy of Ashland, accompanied at the piano by Miss Imogene Wallace.

Reservations for the luncheon should be made with Mrs. R. C. Van Valzah, phone 1458-J, or Mrs. Myron Root, 1249-W.

Missionary Society Will Meet On Tuesday.

The Women's Foreign Missionary society of the First M. E. church will meet Tuesday afternoon in the church parlors, according to announcement. A good attendance is desired at this meeting.

Mrs. Hills Has Interesting Guest

Mrs. W. J. Hills of 525 West Tenth street has had as guest at her home during the past week, her niece, Miss Grace K. Willett, associate director of personnel at Antioch college, Yellow Springs, Ohio.

Miss Willette will leave Monday for Portland to spend her second semester at Reed college.

Chrysanthemum Meeting Wednesday First of Year

Chrysanthemum Circle No. 84 Neighbors of Woodcraft, will hold its first regular meeting of the new year Wednesday night, February 6, in the I. O. O. F. hall.

This will be the first meeting since installation of the new officers, who are urged to be in their stations ready to help make this a banner year for woodcraft.

Mrs. Oatman Hostess To Talent Rebekah Club

Mrs. N. S. Oatman of 222 South Central avenue, was hostess to members of the Talent Rebekah club Friday, at their annual all-day meeting. A covered dish luncheon was enjoyed at 1 o'clock.

Guests at the party included Mrs Myrtle Jacobs, Mrs. J. H. Witham Mrs. Lena C. Stevens, Mrs. Lettie Trask, Hazel Ferns, Mrs. Tom Bell, Mrs. Charles Leathco, Mrs E. E. Foss Mrs. O. M. Goddard, Mrs G. S. Withrow, Mrs. R. E. Robison, Mrs. C. W. Holdridge, Mrs. Clarence Mathes, Mrs Lydia Gardner, all of Talent. Mrs Edith Hayman and her daughter Bertha of Klamath Falls, and the hostess.

Sparrows Expected Back Home Today

Mrs. Alex Sparrow and daughters, the Misses Frances and Harriet Sparrow, are expected to return today from an extended trip into Mexico, where they have spent the last several weeks. After visiting Mexico City they returned to Los Angeles for several days and also visited in Santa Barbara and San Francisco.

One Hundred And Sixty Gather For C. E. Convention

Honoring the 54th birthday of Christian Endeavor, 160 young people of Jackson and Josephine counties gathered at the First Christian church Friday evening for a covered dish dinner. Dr. Walter L. Myers, field secretary of Oregon Christian Endeavor, was toast master and main speaker for the evening.

The Medford Christian Intermediate society was honor guest as a result of winning the attendance contest between December 16 and January 27. The Ashland Congregational won second place and the Butte Falls Presbyterian society third place.

Mynola Gosnell of the Ashland Christian society and Joe Bowdoin of the Rogue River Christian church gave booster talks on the State Christian Endeavor convention to be held in The Dalles April 25 to 28 inclusive.

Dr. Myers plans to be in Southern Oregon until the 10th of February and during his stay he hopes to meet with all Christian Endeavor societies of Crater Lake union and talk over their problems with them.

Dr. Myers' present schedule:

On February 3 he will be at Medford Presbyterian church for Sunday school, deliver an address for church service in Central Point at 11 o'clock, meet with the Butte Falls Presbyterian group in the afternoon, and preach in the Medford Christian church in the evening.

On February 4 he is to be in Phoenix and the 5th he is to be in Grants Pass. February 6, he will meet with the Glendale society and on the 7th he will meet with the officers of Crater Lake union at 7:30 in the First Christian church in Medford.

Friday he will meet with the Central Point societies and Saturday he will meet with the Rogue River young people. Sunday, February 10, he will hold meetings with the Ashland Christian, Presbyterian and Congregational societies.

Lady Lions Will Meet With Mrs. Herb Meusel.

Lady Lions will meet at the home of Mrs. Herb Meusel, 124 Vancouver avenue, next Wednesday, February 6 for 1 o'clock covered dish luncheon, announcement stated. The membership is urged to attend.

Wenonah Club Has Regular Meeting Thursday, February 7

Wenonah club will meet at the home of Austia Barneburg, 15 Chestnut street, on Thursday afternoon February 7. The meeting will be in form of the regular covered dish luncheon and business meeting.

Fourteen Tables in Play At Pythian Sisters' Party

The Pythian Sisters' card party, held at Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Wortman's home last Tuesday evening, was enjoyed by all who attended. Fourteen tables were in play.

High scores in bridge were won by Mrs. Josephine Clark and Charles Gail, and low by Mrs. Chester Baker and Alfred Wolf.

In pinochle, high scores were won by Evelyn Stagg and J. W. Nixson, and low by Mrs. J. B Yarbrough and Ernest Conrad.

The next card party sponsored by the Pythian Sisters will be held near the end of February.

Lincoln Service Club Has Interesting Meeting

An interesting meeting was held by the Lincoln Service club, Friday afternoon, February 1, at Lincoln school.

A delightful and entertaining program was presented for the enjoyment of those present. The Lincoln Glee club gave two numbers, "If I Were You" and "Caraway and Cheese." A piano solo by Kenneth Raymond and an accordion solo by Barbara Bostwick were heartily applauded.

After the program a count on the mothers present was made, Mrs. Russell's roll room, the 6-A's receiving the prize for the most mothers attending. The business meeting was then held and important matters discussed.

After the meeting dainty refreshments were served and a social hour was enjoyed.

Heiress To Wed

Rosalind Kress (above), heiress to the chain store fortune, has announced her engagement to Charles Wesley Frame of Utica, N. Y. (Associated Press Photo)

Mrs. Fortin Has Shower in Honor Of Recent Bride

Mrs. Eugene Jackson, Mrs. Grover Millsap and Mrs. Jack Fortin were hostesses Friday evening, January 25, at the home of Mrs. Fortin, at a miscellaneous shower given for a recent bride, Mrs. James Stewart, the former Mrs. Maude Wilson. Many lovely and useful gifts were received by Mrs. Stewart.

Bridge was enjoyed during the evening, the first prize being awarded Mrs. Stewart and second going to Mrs. Mary Elson. Dainty refreshments were served with a pretty wedding cake as a table decoration.

Guests included: Mesdames Pugh Elson, Gault, Bianchi, Abbott, McAllister, LaFevre, and Chapman; the Misses Marguerite and Helen McAllister, Mrs. C. L. Spindler of Ashland Mrs. Loren Farlow of Eagle Point, the hostesses and the honored guest.

Phoenix Grange Plans Dinner Tuesday Evening

Tuesday night, February 5, the Phoenix Grange is giving a chicken dinner. This is open to the public, and will be served from 6 p. m. to 8 p. m. The rest of the evening will be spent in dancing.

All who have attended one of these dinners will testify to the excellence of the Phoenix cooks.

Talisman Temple Meets Wednesday

Talisman Temple No. 40, Pythian Sisters, will meet Wednesday, February 6, in the K. P. hall.

This is the first meeting with the new officers in charge, and a good attendance is expected. Visiting members are cordially invited to attend.

Entertainment and refreshments will be provided by a committee composed of Mrs. Homer Reid, Miss Cora Judge and Mrs. W. L. Walden.

Covered Dish Luncheon Served at Hedgpeth Home

A covered dish luncheon was held at the home of Mrs. Lee Hedgpeth on Stewart avenue, Thursday, January 31. The honor guests were Mrs. Geo Garver and Mrs. Hedgpeth. Having birthdays in January, each was the recipient of several lovely gifts. A delicious birthday cake was baked by Mrs. Roscoe Davis.

After luncheon all went to the Armory at Medford, where roller skating was the diversion of the afternoon.

Those enjoying the day together were Mrs. Geo. Garver, Mrs. Lee Hedgpeth, Mrs. Clarence Mathis, Mrs. Geo Drake, Mrs. Dean Saltmarsh, Mrs. Roscoe Davis, Mrs. Jim McNeil, Mrs Paul Yocum, Mrs. Lawrence Luy and Mrs. Pearson.

Phone 542 We'll haul away your refuse City Sanitary Service

Mrs. Jackson To Be Club Hostess

Mrs. Glenn Jackson will be hostess to members of the Contemporary Book club Tuesday at her home on Valley View Drive. Following the meeting at Mrs. Jackson's home, luncheon will be held at Hotel Medford at 1 o'clock.

Forty Watch As DeMolays Install

Thursday night in the Masonic hall, approximately 40 members, parents and friends of the DeMolays witnessed the colorful installation of the De Molay officers for the ensuing term. Dr. L. L. Sanders was in charge of the ceremony.

The officers installed were: Dick Roberts, master councilor; Warren Liggett, senor councilor; Cyril Sander, junior councilor; Jack Wood, scribe and treasurer; Frank Hull, senior deacon; George Gates, junior deacon; John Koppen, senior steward; Glenn Stewart, junior steward; Dale Roberts, chaplain; Donald Price, marshal; Dan Hall, standard bearer; Ted Taylor, orator; Donald Gray, sentinel; Harold Littrell, first preceptor; Gilbert Leland, second preceptor; Philip Todd, third preceptor, Willard Smith, fourth preceptor; and Wallace Ludwig, fifth preceptor. This group of boys will plan the course the order is going to take for the ensuing year.

After installation, refreshments were served to all, and after nearly everyone was asked for an impromptu speech, the meeting was adjourned.

On Thursday, February 7, the Medford chapter will journey to Grants Pass to have the second degree conferred upon its members.

Colony Club Has Regular Luncheon.

The Colony club met at the club rooms Friday for a regular luncheon. It being the first Friday of the month, Luncheon was served to a large attendance of club members.

Greater Medford Club Have Special Meeting.

Greater Medford club will meet at the club rooms at 2 p.m., Monday, it was announced by Rose G. Schlefelin, secretary, for special business. As property will be disposed of at this meeting it is urged that all members attend.

Beverley Jean Daily Is Hostess to Little Friends

A group of little friends gathered at the home of Beverley Jean Daily, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H Daily, Monday after school to help celebrate her seventh birthday anniversary.

Games were played and a beautiful birthday cake in yellow and green, and ice cream, were served the little guests at a pretty table with balloons and favors.

Those present were: Eugene and Elaine Winkle, Helen Divine, Beverley Birk, Naomi and Alberta Hubler, Greta Smith, Benny and Edith Conley, Joan Nelson, Ronald Brittson, Robert Zundel, Nancy Hinabarger, Louise Lawrence, Billy Todd, Beverly Conser, Anita Winner and Beverley Jean Daily.

Medford Tenor In Recital Sponsored By 'Frisco School

LaVerne Sutherlin, tenor, formerly with the First National bank of this city, appeared in a recital January 25 at San Francisco given by Manning School of Music, where he has been studying for the last year.

Mr. Sutherlin was noted while in Medford for his vocal presentations and since taking up study of the voice in San Francisco has gained much recognition.

His program consisted of a group of three numbers: "Who is Sylvia?" by Schubert, "Drink To Me Only With Thine Eyes," Old English, and "I Attempt From Love's Sickness to Fly," by Durcell. These numbers were given as part of a group presented by several students of the school.

St. Mark's Guild Plans Party Friday

St. Mark's Guild is planning an evening card party to be held next Friday at the parish hall. Contract and auction bridge will be in play. Mrs. H. A. Barris, chairman, issued a cordial invitation to all.

Do You Need New Silverware?

The following are some of the Patterns in High Quality Silver Plate that we now have in stock...

GORHAM
(Next thing to Sterling)
Vanity Fair
Lady Caroline
Washington Irving
Beaumont

HOLMES & EDWARDS
(Inlaid)
Masterpiece
First Lady
Pageant
Charm
Century

COMMUNITY
Lady Hamilton
King Cedric
Noblesse
Deauville

ALVIN
George Washington
Louisiana
Melody

ROGERS
Sylvia
Her Majesty
Any others we will order.

Lawrence's
We specialize in high grade Silverware

MURRAY'S

Announce That Their Popular Nationally Advertised

Permanent Wave SPECIAL

Will Be Continued This Month

During January we gave 300 Permanents at this special price. Now we have extended the time limit so that you too may enjoy a smart wave for only . . . $2.45

Shampoo and Finger Wave Included

Phone 363 S. Central

"The house that beauty built"

be beautified in comfort at

ADRIENNE'S Salon of Beauty

Be a More Lovely Valentine . . .

Frederics famous Permanents are the secret of many smartly waved heads. . . .

for superior beauty service and Albert of the Palace Cosmetics call

ADRIENNE'S 577

LARRY SCHADE

No Guesswork Here!

Expert Watch Repairing

S. P. Watch Inspector

YOUR FAVORITE JEWELER SINCE 1918

JOHNSTON'S

Shoe Repair Shop

ANNUAL LAMB TONGUE CONTEST

FREE: For the first boy or girl to bring a bouquet of Lamb Tongues to this shop we will half-sole and heel a pair of shoes.

Fred L. Johnston

135 W. Main St.