

SPRING CHAPEAUX RETAIN SIDE TILT; FEATHERS IN TRIM

By RITA FERRIS
Associated Press Fashion Editor
PARIS.—(AP)—Spring hats have joined the "forward movement." Half the new ones are designed to sound the slogan, "Eyes front!" Sometimes the brim scoops well out over the eyes in poke bonnet effect, sometimes the trim is in the front, again the brims which roll upward are pulled well over the forehead. But the side tilt still holds.

Here are some of the noteworthy trends in spring headgear:
The towering toques of winter have given place to flatter hats, with height often given by such effects as two quills raking skyward.

Feathers and flowers are much used as trim.
There are many novelty straw—soft and silky, shiny and recedlike or very rough.

Black, navy blue and hyacinth blue are outstanding colors.
These are advance pointers, however, for the real chapeaux news must wait until dressmakers have done their writing on the fashion wall and the modistes know what spells "clothes" for the spring of 1935.

Burg has launched her beloved sailors in new guises with a straight three inch brim and a beret crown which is shallow, but wider at the top than near the brim. One black model has an eagle feather sticking straight out and up in front, another two tall black quills rearing up on the side, a third two wings of white ribbon poised squarely in front.

Wide brims appear, too, though these are naturally less in evidence early in the season. One of the smartest is made with a brim of shiny cream cord straw and a crush crown of black felt.

Rose Valois likes toques and turbans for advance season wear and shows them made of everything from a soft crushable silky straw to ribbed white satin. There are white Turkish turbans with a rolled effect about the face finished with an upstanding bunch of black feathers, stocking cap toques made of black silky straw and black straw toques with two red birds of paradise sweeping upward from each side.

A number follow the flower vogues by thrusting a cluster of gardenias in one side to nestle against the ear. Vels are seen, too, sometimes on toques they film the eyes and nose, again on sailors they are worn extending three inches beyond the edge of the brim.

DEFIANT OLD POLK NEAR LAST TRAIL

TOWAOC, Colo., Feb. 8.—(AP)—The happy hunting grounds of his people's legends beckoned today to Old Polk, Pute Indian chieftain. Physicians said the wrinkled, bronzed old chief of a former band of Pute outlaws and renegades cannot recover from an illness that has confined him to an Indian reservation hospital here.

In the face of death the 78-year-old Indian was as defiant as he was on the day 20 years ago when he sent word to the whites he would die rather than surrender his son, Tee-Ne-Gat for the slaying of Juan Chacon, Mexican sheep herder of Montezuma county.

The government sent out Gen. Hugh L. Scott to capture Old Polk, his son and two other Indians who fled into a mountain hideout near Moab, Utah. General Scott set out singlehanded after them and on March 24, 1915, the Indians surrendered to him near Moab.

Nearly 250 quarts of vaccine for protection against Rocky Mountain spotted fever were manufactured last year by the public health service.

In malaria-control work in the past year, 6,000 miles of ditches were dug under public health service auspices.

"ALL-BRAN FORMS MAJOR PORTION OF MY BREAKFAST"

Delicious Cereal Relieved His Constipation*

Read Mr. Huyghe's voluntary letter: "After suffering for years, I happened to notice in the grocery a box of ALL-BRAN. I determined to give it a fair trial.

"Today it forms the major portion of my breakfast. I cannot say enough for its effect, as I am a man 55 years of age, at the time in life when one needs just what ALL-BRAN does for you."—Mr. Robert A. Huyghe, 816 Union St., New Orleans, La.

*Constipation due to insufficient "bulk" in meals.
Research shows that Kellogg's ALL-BRAN furnishes "bulk" to exercise the intestines. ALL-BRAN also supplies vitamin B and iron.

Two tablespoonfuls daily are usually sufficient. With each meal, in serious cases. If not relieved this way, see your doctor.

The "bulk" in ALL-BRAN resists digestion better than the "bulk" in leafy vegetables. How much better to use this gentle food in place of patent medicines.

At all grocers in the red-and-green package. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek, Mich.

Boy Scouts 25th Anniversary Celebration Is Opened Today

SPECIAL EVENTS PLANNED HERE IN OBSERVING DATE

With a program of activities on a nation-wide scale, Boy Scouts of America starts celebration of their twenty-fifth anniversary today. The program of celebration will continue through to February 14 with a schedule of events at other times throughout the year.

A good turn to a Chicago publisher by an English Boy Scout resulted in the Scout movement being started in America in 1910. Dr. James E. West was elected to the position of chief Scout executive on January 2, 1910.

Under his leadership as the administrative head of the organization, continuous progress has been made. Scouting has developed from a few scattered troops in 1910 to 30,994 troops in 1935. On December 31, 1934, the grand total of membership in the many groups reached 1,404,226, a growth of 7.2 per cent over the figures of the previous year.

Since beginning of the Scout movement in America, 6,530,330 different individuals have had membership in the Boy Scouts of America.

Many of the local troops will hold special meetings this evening to again renew their Scout pledge by repeating with their leaders the Scout oath and law. This ceremony will be synchronized by a nation-wide radio program.

President Franklin D. Roosevelt, honorary president of the Boy Scouts of America, will open the celebration with a nation-wide broadcast from the White House in Washington, D. C., from 5:45 to 9 p. m. P. S. T.

The local Scout organization will conduct a number of special activities during the coming months. On February 25 the Father and Son banquet will be held. A special Court of Honor session will be held in April with a showing of several reels of the international Scout jamboree held in Godollo, Hungary, in August, 1933, at which time several thousand American Scouts participated.

In May the local troops will participate in a Camp-o-Ral. Scouts of the council will come together for friendly competition in various Scouting skills.

The twenty-fifth anniversary celebration will reach its high point in the first national Boy Scout jamboree to be held in Washington, D. C., August 21 to 30. This jamboree will bring 30,000 boys together in the greatest boy encampment ever held in America. Several outstanding events will mark the jamboree: A grand opening review in which the 30,000 Scouts will participate, an American youth congress, a mammoth Sunday afternoon meeting and a grand closing pageant and campfire.

Jacksonville

JACKSONVILLE, Feb. 8.—(Sp.)—A meeting of the Jacksonville P. T. A. was held in the high school auditorium Thursday evening, January 31. The following program was given: Miss Lolita Pearson of the Ashland Normal sang two solos, accompanied by Ray Lewis; Miss Hanley played the violin, accompanied by Miss Pearson; Paul Heas sang a number from the operetta which is to be presented at a later date. Dr. Hedford from the Normal gave a talk on how to train the child. Refreshments were served.

Dr. Poling gave a talk at the local high school, February 1, on higher units of education. Dr. Poling travels all through Oregon, giving these talks to the schools. He also held a special meeting for the seniors.

Grandma Central, who has been ill for some time, is still seriously ill at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Amy Dow.

Mrs. Chester Pursell was quite ill at her home here several days last week. S. W. Pittenger of Los Angeles visited at the Harry Whitney home here recently. He left for Rogue River to spend a few days before returning home.

Mrs. H. L. Noblit of Medford and Mrs. Chester Pursell were visitors at Rich Tuesday.

HIGH SCHOOL HAS FLOOD OF TALENT FOR OPERA CAST

By John Snider.
Planquette's "Chimes of Normandy" will ring out a merry old welcome to the townspeople witnessing the first presentation by the local high school glee club on February 26.

Advance glimpses of the production reveal plenty of talent, a well-written script, and a stage full of remarkable settings. The musical scores are nearing the peak of perfection, under the direction of F. Wilson Wait.

A turning point has been reached, as far as the choice of this operetta is concerned. For the past few years it has been customary to present one of the Gilbert and Sullivan works. This year an endeavor has been made to get away from the staid old plots which make the Gilbert and Sullivan playlets so much alike.

Representing the combined boys and girls' glee clubs, a total of 77 students have been cast. Major roles are plentiful, for 22 vocalists have been chosen to try out for the 11 leading parts. A really impressive sight will be the colorfully costumed chorus of 66 members.

At present, the first and second acts have been rehearsed in their entirety. An amateur presentation such as this almost rivals a professional performance in the matter of casting and staging. Stage direction and the coaching of the dialogue has been taken over by Miss Carin Degermark, faculty member.

Wilson Wait, musical director, stated yesterday afternoon that he believed the musical selections much better than those previously presented in the Medford high school. "It is a much more logical play for the glee clubs and it contains some nice comedy," added Mr. Wait.

"All those concerned are working hard and it promises to be a big success," said Paul A. Menegat, principal, yesterday afternoon.

It is the opinion of Mrs. Esther Leake, in charge of the production, that the play is beginning to take shape nicely.

Justine Miller On Staff Of Oregona

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, EUGENE.—(Sp.)—Justine Miller of Medford has just been appointed as secretary of the business staff for the Oregona, student yearbook at the University of Oregon, by Newton Stearns, business manager.

Other appointments include Robert Parker, Eugene, organization manager for the yearbook; Eldon Haberman, Grants Pass, head of promotion department of the Emerald, student daily newspaper.

Mrs. Chester Pursell was quite ill at her home here several days last week.

S. W. Pittenger of Los Angeles visited at the Harry Whitney home here recently. He left for Rogue River to

Shredded Wheat RECIPES

(These muffins have a "way" with them)

- 4 Shredded Wheat Biscuits, rolled fine
- 1 cup flour
- 2 tps. baking powder
- 1/2 tsp. salt
- 1 tbs. sugar
- 1 1/2 cups milk
- 1 egg

1 cup chopped dry prunes
Into Shredded Wheat crumbs sift flour, baking powder, salt and sugar. Add milk and well-beaten egg. Fold into well-greased muffin pans and bake 20-25 minutes in hot oven (425 degrees F.) Makes 12 muffins.

Shredded Wheat Quick Lunch (A balanced luncheon everybody likes)
2 tps. butter
1 onion, minced
2 cups canned tomatoes
2 cups corn
2 tps. salt
2-4 tps. grated American cheese
4 Shredded Wheat Biscuits, rolled fine
2 tps. minced parsley

Melt butter in frying pan and lightly brown onion in it. Add tomatoes, corn, salt and cheese, and heat thoroughly. Stir in biscuit crumbs and cook gently for 5 minutes. Serve hot, sprinkled with parsley. 6 portions.

Nature's Own Dessert (Simple, healthful, and thoroughly delicious)
4 Shredded Wheat Biscuits, crumbled
1/2 cup stoned and cut dates
1/2 cup chopped nut meats
1 cup cream

Mix first three ingredients and fold into whipped cream, 6 portions.
Beating Breakfast at Its Own Game One way to dispose of the problem is to serve a ready-cooked cereal such as Shredded Wheat. And if the family hails for something hot, then try this, the nearest trick-of-the-week: Set the biscuits in the oven while the coffee is perking, just long enough to warm them through. Then serve them in a bowl of hot milk or half-and-half, crowned with a lump of butter. If you prefer, you can split the biscuits through the center, toast and serve immediately, generously buttered. This way they take the place of breakfast toast.

Shredded Wheat Muffins (Full of health and individuality)
4 Shredded Wheat Biscuits, rolled fine
2 tps. baking powder
1 tsp. sugar
1 cup flour

1/2 tsp. salt
1 1/2 cups milk
1 egg
Into Shredded Wheat crumbs sift flour, baking powder, salt and sugar. Add milk and well-beaten egg. Mix well and turn into hot well-greased muffin pan. Bake in a hot oven (425 degrees F.) 20-25 minutes. 12 muffins. If desired, 1/2 cup of raisins or chopped nut meats may be added.
Chicken Hamburger (In which the leftovers go high-class)
2 cups minced cooked chicken or veal
2 Shredded Wheat Biscuits
1/2 cup chicken stock or milk
Salt and pepper
Few drops onion juice

2 tps. butter or chicken fat
Combine chicken, finely rolled biscuit, and stock or milk, season with salt, pepper and onion juice. Shape into small cakes. Fry in hot butter or fat until brown on one side. Turn and brown on other side. Mushroom sauce may be served. 6 portions.

Recently an exhaustive survey among Pacific Coast consumers revealed the sweeping popularity of Shredded Wheat as a year-around breakfast cereal. The variety of ways for serving, the check-up shown, was most interesting. It was found that during the winter months it has become an established rule in thousands of homes to dip the biscuits in hot water, then to serve with milk or cream. A suggestion along that line is the basis for the advertising now appearing in The Mail Tribune.

The making and distribution of Shredded Wheat is an important western industry. The modern show-place bakery in Oakland is visited by thousands annually.
