

Society and Club Events Reviewed for Week

Miss Littrell Will Wed Wm. Murray On Next Sunday

A social event of much interest will be the wedding next Sunday, February 17, of Miss Lucille Littrell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. K. Littrell, to William H. Murray. The announcement was made yesterday.

The ceremony will be performed at 9 o'clock in the morning at Miss Littrell's home, 703 Sherman street, with Rev. Ralph Peterson of the Presbyterian church officiating.

Mr. Murray is the son of Mrs. H. D. Murray of Corvallis, who will be in Medford to attend the wedding.

The bride will be attended by Miss Mabel Grimmett and the bridesmaid by Forest McKay of Ann Arbor, Mich. Members of the immediate families and a few close friends of the bride and bridesmaid will be present. After the ceremony a wedding breakfast will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Littrell, uncle and aunt of Miss Littrell.

They will leave immediately following the wedding for San Francisco, returning after ten days to make their home in Medford.

MILLIONAIRE WEDS NEW YORKER

Clifford W. Smith, stepson of Newcomb Carlton, and his bride, the former Charlotte Fantoni of New York, pictured after their marriage in Reno, Nev. Smith was divorced from his actress wife, Claire Luce, in Minden the previous day. (Associated Press Photo)

Garden Club In Favor Planting Local Parkings

Medford Garden club held its regular monthly meeting Thursday evening at which time a number of important business matters were discussed.

O. J. Gould, a member of the city planning commission, presented a planting ordinance for parkings which will be presented to the city council in the near future, and asked the club to discuss it. The club sent on record as endorsing it and promised its support.

A communication from the state president of the Federation of Garden Clubs was read and it was voted to meet all requirements as to entertainment if the state board decides to accept Medford's invitation to hold the state conference here in May.

Liberal offers from garden magazine publishers were presented by Mrs. Blanche Powell and Mrs. T. M. Miles. Anyone interested is urged to call these ladies and subscribe through them.

T. O. Poome of the Economy Feed Store, was the speaker of the evening and gave many timely suggestions for the early spring care of lawns, roses, bulbs and peonies. He also talked about the control of garden pests and answered numerous questions.

The club is planning for the usual plant sale, flower shows and planting projects of a civic nature.

Club Reclaiming Courthouse Rooms

The Home Economics club of Jacksonville Grange met at the home of Mrs. Edna Jones in Jacksonville Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Emma Conger, who is leading the group this year, explained the projects to the members who had missed her first outline.

Plans are underway to go ahead reclaiming other rooms of the old courthouse in Jacksonville and erecting a stage with curtains in the auditorium. The hall is now most attractive with a lovely kitchen and dining room newly decorated.

At the next meeting of the club, each woman is asked to bring plants to exchange with other members as she wishes. This is an annual affair greatly appreciated by all who attend.

Mrs. Jones served a lovely lunch which was greatly enjoyed by the fifteen members present.

Luther League to Have Social Meeting

The Luther League of Zion Lutheran church will meet for a social evening on Monday at the Carl Fichtner home, 613 South Holly street.

Past Nobles to Meet on Thursday.

Past Noble Grand club will hold its regular monthly meeting and social hour Thursday evening, February 14 at 8 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. Ethel Weed, 462 Park avenue.

Members and guests are requested to come dressed in colonial costume and be prepared to respond with a quotation from Lincoln or Washington.

Hand Is Special Plan Program

The Junior High school band, an organization of forty boys and girls, has been taken by the Parent-Teacher association as its special project this year and is in fact, more music and uniforms to make it possible for the band to compete favorably with other organizations in southern Oregon.

February 28 is the date for the card party at the school. The proceeds are to be used to buy equipment for the band.

Tallman Temple Has Regular Meeting

Regular meeting of Tallman Temple No. 40, Pythian Sisters, was held last Wednesday evening. After a short business meeting a "find 'em and catch 'em" hunt was enjoyed by the members and the occupants of George Plisk's car returned first with all of the articles, so received first prize. Those with Mrs. Ferguson received low.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Homer Reed, Cora Judge and Mrs. Wilbur Walker.

Next regular meeting will be February 20 at 8 o'clock.

Ore and Bullion Purchased

WILDBERG BROS. SMELTING & REFINING CO. Office: 742 Madison St., San Francisco. Plant: South End Vancouver.

LARRY SCHADE Expert Watch Repairing NO GUESSWORK S. P. Watch Inspector

YOUR FAVORITE JEWELER SINCE 1918

Expert Watch Repairing NO GUESSWORK S. P. Watch Inspector

YOUR FAVORITE JEWELER SINCE 1918

Local Violinist Is District Supervisor For Music Institute

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Lev are leaving this morning for Los Angeles where Mr. Lev, violin instructor, has received a promotion to the position of supervisor of the southern district of the National Institute of Music and Arts. For some time Mr. Lev has been violin instructor at the studios of the national institute, which are located in Portland and Seattle.

His many friends and pupils in Medford regret his leaving, but join in wishing Mr. Lev success in his new position. Mr. and Mrs. Lev will make their home in Los Angeles.

Raymond H. Cooke of Seattle will take Mr. Lev's studios in Medford, having just finished an engagement with Mrs. Cooke and their three children, he will make his home here.

Miss Gribble Host at Eugene

Miss Catherine H. Gribble is visiting friends in Eugene at the ZTA house and in Madras, Ore.

Socialites Announce Card Party for Thursday Evening.

The Socialites have announced a big card party, to which the public is invited, to be held at the Parish hall on South Oakdale Thursday, February 14 at 8 o'clock. Auction and contract bridge will be in play, as well as five hundred.

Mrs. Charles Fry Entertains Dixie Club

Mrs. Charles Fry was hostess at her home on South Peach street, February 3 to members of the Dixie club. Potted plants and pussy willows produced a spring-like effect in the rooms. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. Rose Schiefel and Mrs. Atlanta Satchwell.

Billy Barnum Host At Formal Dinner

In honor of his cousin, Miss Barbara Swinson of Napa, Cal., Billy Barnum was host to eight guests at a delightful dinner and theater party last evening. Dinner was served at 7 o'clock at the Barnum home, 1012 East Main street. The group attended the preview at the Craterian theater. Present were Misses Phyllis Phythian, Betty Vilm, Helene Salade, Amy Elliott and Swinson, and Russell Ulrich, Bob Seward, Bob Gali, John Koppen and the host.

Odd Fellows Plan Program

Tuesday evening, February 12, Odd Fellows and Rebekahs will entertain with a program and social party at the I. O. O. F. hall on West 23rd street. Oliver Rogers and his committee for the affair have planned an entertaining program for the evening, and assure those attending that their time will be well spent. All Odd Fellows and their wives, and Rebekahs and their husbands, are cordially invited, and are urged to take along a friend to help enjoy the evening. A special invitation is given to members residing here who have memberships elsewhere to be on hand and get acquainted.

The business session of the lodge will be concluded in time for the entertainment to begin at 8:15. Refreshments will be served following the program.

Mothers and Fathers Guests of Girl Scouts

The girls of the Washington Scout troop held a banquet for the mothers and fathers Friday evening at the Scout headquarters, arranged to represent Lincoln's cabin. The tables were decorated with pussy willows and tall red candles. The captain, Mrs. L. B. Humphreys, welcomed the guests and thanked the troop for its efforts in making the affair such a success.

The following program was given: A short history of the troop, Shirley Lawrence.

Tap dance, Frances Comany, Dorothy Stubbinsfield, Phyllis Cleven.

Piano solo, Elois Hart.

Dance, Jean Smith, Nona Hayland, Piano solo, Melissa Persons.

The meeting was closed by singing the International Girl Scout hymn and tape.

Church Association Enjoys Entertainment

The Association of the Presbyterian church met Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Louis Brown, 737 West Jackson street, Tuesday, February 12 at 2 o'clock for afternoon tea. Roll call will be responded to by giving a patriotic quotation. "Primitive Religion" will be the subject of a talk by Mrs. A. R. Clement.

Church Association Enjoys Entertainment

The Association of the Presbyterian church met Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Louis Brown, 737 West Jackson street, Tuesday, February 12 at 2 o'clock for afternoon tea. Roll call will be responded to by giving a patriotic quotation. "Primitive Religion" will be the subject of a talk by Mrs. A. R. Clement.

Cocktail Party And Dance Are Planned Friday

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Norris, Mr. and Mrs. Don Newbury and Mr. and Mrs. Flavius West will be hosts and hostesses next Friday evening at a cocktail party and dance to be held at the E. F. hall.

Sixty couples will attend. The cocktail party will start at 3:30 o'clock and dancing will be enjoyed during the rest of the evening.

Mrs. Edna to Be Hostess at Bridge

Mrs. O. A. Eden will be hostess Tuesday afternoon at her home, 18 Myrtle street, at three tables of dessert bridge. Play will start at 1:30 o'clock.

Mrs. Cox Honor Guest at Shower

Mrs. Rita Cox was an honor guest at a shower given by Mrs. W. R. Baird and Mrs. A. H. Gregory at the latter's home, 829 E. Jackson street, Friday afternoon. Mrs. Cox received many beautiful gifts.

Those invited were Mesdames L. D. Lacy, A. Bohner, H. Scovill, L. Simms, L. G. Gentner, C. Hoover, C. Schneider, Chas. Smith, M. Balderston, C. Pierce, B. Corum, M. E. Olson, R. L. Cook, J. T. Davis, C. M. Hon, C. Wilson, M. Marsh, M. Stewart, C. Reed, M. Cheney, the honor guest and the two hostesses.

Madrigal Club Holds Meeting

The Madrigal club sponsored by the American Legion Auxiliary, met Tuesday evening at the Girls' Community club rooms. A very successful rehearsal was held. This recently organized club meets every Tuesday evening under the direction of Elsie Carlton Strang. The first concert will be given in about two weeks at an Auxiliary meeting.

Sunny Sisters Circle To Meet for Afternoon Tea

Sunny Sisters Circle of the Presbyterian church will meet at the home of Mrs. Louis Brown, 737 West Jackson street, Tuesday, February 12 at 2 o'clock for afternoon tea. Roll call will be responded to by giving a patriotic quotation. "Primitive Religion" will be the subject of a talk by Mrs. A. R. Clement.

Church Association Enjoys Entertainment

The Association of the Presbyterian church met Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Louis Brown, 737 West Jackson street, Tuesday, February 12 at 2 o'clock for afternoon tea. Roll call will be responded to by giving a patriotic quotation. "Primitive Religion" will be the subject of a talk by Mrs. A. R. Clement.

Mothers and Fathers Guests of Girl Scouts

The girls of the Washington Scout troop held a banquet for the mothers and fathers Friday evening at the Scout headquarters, arranged to represent Lincoln's cabin. The tables were decorated with pussy willows and tall red candles. The captain, Mrs. L. B. Humphreys, welcomed the guests and thanked the troop for its efforts in making the affair such a success.

Church Association Enjoys Entertainment

The Association of the Presbyterian church met Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Louis Brown, 737 West Jackson street, Tuesday, February 12 at 2 o'clock for afternoon tea. Roll call will be responded to by giving a patriotic quotation. "Primitive Religion" will be the subject of a talk by Mrs. A. R. Clement.

Mothers and Fathers Guests of Girl Scouts

The girls of the Washington Scout troop held a banquet for the mothers and fathers Friday evening at the Scout headquarters, arranged to represent Lincoln's cabin. The tables were decorated with pussy willows and tall red candles. The captain, Mrs. L. B. Humphreys, welcomed the guests and thanked the troop for its efforts in making the affair such a success.

Church Association Enjoys Entertainment

The Association of the Presbyterian church met Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Louis Brown, 737 West Jackson street, Tuesday, February 12 at 2 o'clock for afternoon tea. Roll call will be responded to by giving a patriotic quotation. "Primitive Religion" will be the subject of a talk by Mrs. A. R. Clement.

Mothers and Fathers Guests of Girl Scouts

The girls of the Washington Scout troop held a banquet for the mothers and fathers Friday evening at the Scout headquarters, arranged to represent Lincoln's cabin. The tables were decorated with pussy willows and tall red candles. The captain, Mrs. L. B. Humphreys, welcomed the guests and thanked the troop for its efforts in making the affair such a success.

Mrs. Morris Is Bridge Hostess

Mrs. T. B. Morris entertained at three tables of bridge Tuesday evening at her home, 728 West Eleventh street, in a delightful social event of the week.

North and south high score went to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gali, and east and west to Mr. and Mrs. Parrel Booth. The tables were attractively arranged with red carnations and yellow daffodils. The hostess served refreshments.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Karl Janouch, Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Will Gates, Mr. and Mrs. Grover Medley, Mr. and Mrs. Gali, Mr. and Mrs. Booth.

Auxiliary of Church Will Meet on Tuesday

The Women's Auxiliary of St. Mark's church will meet Tuesday afternoon, Feb. 12 with Mrs. Horace Gates, 135 North Holly.

Church Association Will Meet Wednesday

The Women's Association of the Christian church will meet Wednesday, Feb. 13, at 2 o'clock in the recreational hall. All ladies of the church are urged to attend. The president will present plans and outline work for the year.

Thirty-Five Attend Bridge Club Meeting

Thirty-five ladies were in attendance at the Building Bridge club meeting Thursday at the home of Mrs. Frank Orlich, Mrs. Hunter and Miss Mackintosh were assistant hostesses.

Desert luncheon was served at 1:30, after which contract and auction bridge were played.

The club will meet with Mrs. Mikache and her daughter, at 815 S. 13th Peach street next Thursday at 1:30 o'clock.

Past Matrons Club Meets With Mrs. Mathes

Past Matrons club of Reames chapter met at the home of Mrs. Mathes on South Central avenue, Monday afternoon. Mesdames Merrick, Corlies and Barnes assisted Mrs. Mathes as hostesses in entertaining.

Mrs. Weideman of Bellingham Wash. and Mrs. Heschner of Hood River, Ore., both ladies being past matrons of the Order of the Eastern Star, were guests of the club.

During the short business session held, it was decided to give a public card party March 20, in the De Molay hall.

Mrs. Meta Gilbert and Mrs. Beale Lumsden were recipients of the prizes for the afternoon.

Mrs. Heck Hostess At "Thank You" Party

Mistletoe club met last Tuesday evening for their semi-annual Polly Anna "Thank You" party, with Neighbor Edith Beck at her home.

Bouquet of daffodils and narcissus placed about the rooms lent an air of cheerfulness which, with the sincere and gracious hospitality of the hostess, provided a most pleasant evening for the large number present. Many pretty and useful gifts were exchanged. The hostess, assisted by several members, served dainty refreshments at the close of the evening.

The club will meet Wednesday afternoon, Feb. 13, with Oracle Margaretha Garrett, at her home, 704 South Oakdale avenue at 2 o'clock.

Members are requested to bring thimbles and scissors, as an afternoon of needlework has been planned.

W. F. M. S. Auxiliary Has Interesting Meeting

Mrs. Chirwin and Mrs. Beery were hostesses Tuesday afternoon to the auxiliary of the Woman's Foreign Missionary society, in the parlors of the First M. E. church. The Valentine spirit was carried out in refreshments served buffet style.

Mrs. McNary conducted the devotional period, with the topic "In the Secret of His Presence," supplemented with the hymns "Sweet Hour of Prayer" and "Jesus Calls Us."

Mrs. Wiley presided at the business session. Letters were read from Mrs. Fletcher, past secretary; also Mrs. Burt, new conference secretary and Miss Davis.

Two new members were received into the society.

Mrs. O. V. Myers gave the book review chapter, "Building the New Japan."

The next meeting will be the annual Founder's day program to be held in the parlors of the church.

Mrs. Beck Hostess At "Thank You" Party

Mistletoe club met last Tuesday evening for their semi-annual Polly Anna "Thank You" party, with Neighbor Edith Beck at her home.

Bouquet of daffodils and narcissus placed about the rooms lent an air of cheerfulness which, with the sincere and gracious hospitality of the hostess, provided a most pleasant evening for the large number present. Many pretty and useful gifts were exchanged. The hostess, assisted by several members, served dainty refreshments at the close of the evening.

The club will meet Wednesday afternoon, Feb. 13, with Oracle Margaretha Garrett, at her home, 704 South Oakdale avenue at 2 o'clock.

Members are requested to bring thimbles and scissors, as an afternoon of needlework has been planned.

W. F. M. S. Auxiliary Has Interesting Meeting

Mrs. Chirwin and Mrs. Beery were hostesses Tuesday afternoon to the auxiliary of the Woman's Foreign Missionary society, in the parlors of the First M. E. church. The Valentine spirit was carried out in refreshments served buffet style.

Mrs. McNary conducted the devotional period, with the topic "In the Secret of His Presence," supplemented with the hymns "Sweet Hour of Prayer" and "Jesus Calls Us."

Mrs. Wiley presided at the business session. Letters were read from Mrs. Fletcher, past secretary; also Mrs. Burt, new conference secretary and Miss Davis.

Two new members were received into the society.

Mrs. O. V. Myers gave the book review chapter, "Building the New Japan."

The next meeting will be the annual Founder's day program to be held in the parlors of the church.

Mrs. Beck Hostess At "Thank You" Party

Mistletoe club met last Tuesday evening for their semi-annual Polly Anna "Thank You" party, with Neighbor Edith Beck at her home.

Bouquet of daffodils and narcissus placed about the rooms lent an air of cheerfulness which, with the sincere and gracious hospitality of the hostess, provided a most pleasant evening for the large number present. Many pretty and useful gifts were exchanged. The hostess, assisted by several members, served dainty refreshments at the close of the evening.

The club will meet Wednesday afternoon, Feb. 13, with Oracle Margaretha Garrett, at her home, 704 South Oakdale avenue at 2 o'clock.

Members are requested to bring thimbles and scissors, as an afternoon of needlework has been planned.

W. F. M. S. Auxiliary Has Interesting Meeting

Mrs. Chirwin and Mrs. Beery were hostesses Tuesday afternoon to the auxiliary of the Woman's Foreign Missionary society, in the parlors of the First M. E. church. The Valentine spirit was carried out in refreshments served buffet style.

Mrs. McNary conducted the devotional period, with the topic "In the Secret of His Presence," supplemented with the hymns "Sweet Hour of Prayer" and "Jesus Calls Us."

Mrs. Wiley presided at the business session. Letters were read from Mrs. Fletcher, past secretary; also Mrs. Burt, new conference secretary and Miss Davis.

Two new members were received into the society.

Mrs. O. V. Myers gave the book review chapter, "Building the New Japan."

The next meeting will be the annual Founder's day program to be held in the parlors of the church.

Benson and Foley Wedding Ceremony Solemnized Sunday

At a charming Sunday evening wedding at the First Christian church at Central Point last week, Miss Eulah Benson, niece of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Bursell of Central Point, and William Foley, son of Mrs. Alice Foley of Gold Hill were united in marriage by the Rev. D. E. Millard, in a double ring ceremony.

Mrs. Foley was given in marriage by her uncle, Mr. Bursell, and Mrs. Myrna Barrett of Medford was her maid of honor. The groom's brother, Lester Foley, acted as best man.

The bride was attired in a gown of white crepe, and carried a bouquet of white rose-buds and sweet-peas. Miss Barrett, the maid of honor, wore a gown of green crepe, and carried a bouquet of pink and white flowers.

The bride is a graduate of the University of Oregon at Eugene, where she was a member of Sigma Kappa sorority. She is also a member of Phi Beta Kappa honorary scholastic society. She has been affiliated with the faculty of the Medford high school for several years, and was head of the mathematics department there before her resignation at the end of the last semester.

The groom is foreman at the H. D. McCaskey orchard on the Old Stage road, where the couple plans to make their home.

W. H. M. S. Plans Friendship Luncheon

The W. H. M. S. of the First Methodist church are giving their annual friendship luncheon, Tuesday, Feb. 12 in the parlors of the church. Luncheon will be served on small tables and a fine program has been prepared. All are welcome.

Reservations must be made by Monday evening, by calling Mrs. Curtis Darby, 1412, or Mrs. P. M. Corlies, 121-r.

Nevita Social Club Opens Series Parties

The social club of Nevita chapter No. 63, Eastern Star, held the first of a series of social gatherings last Tuesday evening at the Masonic hall.

About 60 guests were seated at the beautifully arranged tables for dinner served by members of the club.

The president, Lita Kyle, deserves much credit for the success of this gathering both socially and financially. Ed Vincent was toastmaster for the evening. He invited the guests, after the dinner, to assemble in the chapter room where tables were arranged for cards and other games.

Wenonah Club Meets At Austin Barnburg Home

Austia Barnburg was hostess to the Wenonah club on Thursday afternoon at her home on Chestnut street. The meeting was in form of a covered dish luncheon and business meeting.

Guests for the afternoon were Mrs. J. W. Todd, Mrs. Mae Denman, Mrs. D. R. Conner and Mrs. G. Dwyer.

Assisting the hostess were Bernice Wilson and Hazel Anderson.

On Wednesday evening, Feb. 20, a "Thank You" party will be held at the home of Helen Smith, 454 Haven street, for the Wenonah sisters of the past year. It will be in form of a "kid" party and every one is asked to bring their own lunch to trade with some one else.

The next Wenonah club meeting will be at the home of Harriet Watson on Beall Lane, for the regular social card party, Thursday afternoon, Feb. 21.

Forest Personnel Take Skiing Trip

The personnel of the Rogue River National forest offices are planning a skiing trip to Union Creek today, where winter sports will be enjoyed and luncheon served. Earlwyn Cutler is in charge of arrangements.

The forest service has constructed a ski slide, shelter and has provided cook stoves and firewood at the resort. Although the snow is now not more than one and a half feet deep, clear weather during the last few days has made skiing conditions satisfactory.

The following are among those planning on making the trip: Misses Enid Funk, Nellie Batton, Clara Young, Arlene Jensen, Mr. and Mrs. Earlwyn Cutler, Mr. and Mrs. Jess DeWitt, Mr. and Mrs. Karl Janouch, Mr. and Mrs. John Henshaw, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Lyman, Maurice Tedrow, Vernon Davies, Geo. Lester Foley, Espey and Hugh A. Ritter.

Mrs. Harry Prentice Holds High Bridge Score

Mrs. B. G. Harding entertained at two tables of dessert bridge, Thursday afternoon. High score was won by Mrs. Harry Prentice.

Miss Brophy Guest At Corvallis Society

Miss Elaine Brophy is spending the week end in Corvallis as the guest of Margaret Warner at Kappa Alpha Theta. Friday night she attended a Theta dance and Saturday night a Phi Delta dance.

Protective Association Meets With New Officers

Degree of Honor Protective association met for regular session in the women's club rooms Thursday evening with the new officers in charge. After the business routine a social hour with dancing was enjoyed by all present.

The next meeting will be Feb. 21.

Wenonah Club Continues Series Public Card Parties

Next Friday evening, Feb. 15, Wenonah club will sponsor another in a series of card parties, to be held in Redmen hall beginning at 8 o'clock.

Bridge, pinocle and five hundred will be in play, and the public is cordially invited. The committee in charge of cards will be Harriet Watson and Cortha Watkins.

Church Auxiliary Will Meet Tuesday

The Ladies Auxiliary of the First Baptist church will meet Tuesday, February 12 at the home of Mrs. P. A. Simson at 214 Stark street.

The meeting will open at 2:00 o'clock with a short business session followed by a missionary program.

All members and friends are cordially invited to attend.

Chrysanthemum Circle Plans Benefit Card Party

Chrysanthemum circle No. 84 held its regular meeting Wednesday night in the O. O. F. hall. There was a good attendance and visitors present from San Fernando, Calif.

Plans were made for a card party to be given Feb. 20 for the benefit of the degree team.

The members were extended and accepted an invitation to a rally to be held by Phoenix circle on Monday night, Feb. 11. Chrysanthemum degree team will put on the flag ceremony. Anyone wishing to attend and not having transportation please call 350-R not later than Monday noon.

Sixty Present At Annual Luncheon Of College Club

The College Women's club of Rogue River valley held its annual luncheon Saturday at Hotel Medford. Over 60 members and their guests enjoyed the luncheon, arranged by Mrs. R. C. Van Valzah, Mrs. Charles Wing, Mrs. Bertha Smith, Miss Ethel Reed and Mrs. Myron Root. The tables were centered with bouquets of acacia and deep blue violets.

The president, Mrs. Ralph Billings of Ashland, presided during the business meeting held in the club rooms of the Presbyterian church. Mrs. L. E. Williams presented Mrs. Richard Foy in a group of songs: "My Mother Bids Me Braid My Hair," "Sing, Smile and Stumber" and "My Joy."

Miss Grace Hilton Chamberlain reviewed in her most fascinating manner, "English Journey," by J. B. Priestly. The book is a shrewd, witty, human and candid survey of the England of today.

Jacksonville Church Plans Thanks Offering

The Ladies' Missionary society of the Jacksonville Presbyterian church will sponsor their annual thanks offering dinner Thursday, February 14, at 6:30 p. m. in the basement of the church. Everyone is invited.

Pocahontas Lodge Has Valentine Dance

A Valentine dancing party was held at Redmen hall on Friday evening, given by the Pocahontas lodge.

The committee in charge consisted of Wilma Hayes, Velma Singler and Richard Singler. Music was furnished by The Whipples.

Refreshments were served by Norma Martin, Rose Singler, Leda Nordquist and Frank Martin.

1935 Officers Officiate At Royal Neighbors Meeting

Royal Neighbors met Thursday evening in the K of P hall with a good attendance, with the 1935 course of officers officiating. New members were taken into the order and a large amount of business transacted.

With ritualistic form the charter was draped in memory of Katie Belle Palen. This was followed by a brief period of silent meditation in her honor.

The order is preparing a play to be presented in the near future. Mistletoe camp accepted an invitation from Ashland camp to take part in a R. N. A. rally to be held there February 20.

Following business the regular social period was enjoyed with Neighbors Myrtle Arnold, Margery Pearson and Georgiana Hussong serving refreshments.

Be Beautified in Comfort at ADRIENNE'S Salon of Beauty

ADRIENNE'S Salon of Beauty

... SPECIAL ...

- FINGER WAVES 50c
- SHAMPOOS 50c
- PERMANENTS $3.75
- FREDERICIS $5.00
- JAMAL Machineless Waves $6.50

Murray's Art Hairdressers

41 S. Central - Phone 363

Permanent

our popular waves including shampoo and finger wave...

February Price

$2.45

No Down Payment!

Up to Three Years to Pay!

Interest Only $5.00 per Hundred per Year—

That's How Easy It Is To Have FRIGIDAIRE '35

with the SUPER FREEZER Under the NATIONAL HOUSING ACT

Here's your chance to benefit by the provisions of the National Housing Act. You can now have a Frigidaire '35 with the Super Freezer... make no down payment... and take as long as three years to pay!

Simply come in and select the Frigidaire you want. We help arrange the financing under the provisions of the National Housing Act.

The Frigidaire '35, with the Super Freezer, sets new standards in ice-freezing capacity—in healthful food preservation—in the crisping and freshening of vegetables—in economical performance.

See the new Frigidaire '35 for yourself at our store tomorrow.

We Take Care of All Financing Details

LEONARD ELECTRIC

HOLLY BUILDING Morris B. Leonard. TELEPHONE 427