ROURKE'S HEAVES AT FINISH HALT RUSH OF VANDALS

Ducks Lead at Half When Idaho Stages Hectic Rally Long Heave and Backward Flip Ices Game.

EUGENE, Ore., Feb. 9.—(AP)—A smooth working University of Oregon basketball team blasted University of Idaho's last championship hopes here tonight with a 42 to 35 win which gave Oregon a three to one sweep of the series. Oregon won Friday night, 37 to 29.

It was the fifth conference defeat of the season for the Idaho Vandals and virtually placed them out of the running for the northern division conference championship.

After Oregon had led 23 to 17 at the half, Idaho staged a determined rally as the tide drew near its end, and only a pit of spectacular field goals by Roland Rourke, sub forward, kept the Ducks ahead.

With the count 36 to 30 for Oregon, Warner, Idaho ace, dropped a long heave and Wally Geraghty converted a free throw. Berg got a gifter, but lumb flipped in a field shot to close the gap to two points, 37 to 35. Willie Jones got a free throw and Rourke came back through with a long one and a backward flip to put the game on ice.

The high scorers in tonight's game were Willie Jones, Oregon center, and Liebowitz, Oregon guard, with 12 points each. Liebowitz also had four assists, while his team mate, Sanford, had five.

However, the best "leader" on the floor was Wally Geraghty of Idaho who had six assists, as well as eight points.

The Vandals jump over to Corvallis to tackle the hard driving league-leading Oregon State college Beavers Monday and Tuesday nights. Oregon, on the upgrade following a sojourn in the league cellar, rests before finishing its season with two games against Oregon State and another pair against Washington.

CAVEMEN HANDED 34-17 DEFEAT BY CLICKING TIGERS

Wrestling the Grants Pass Cavemen's club away from them in the early minutes of play, and continuing to bludgeon them with it throughout the game, the Medford high school basketball team avenged an earlier defeat by heating out a decisive 34-17 win over the squad from the climate city Friday night.

The score might have been even higher if the local shots had not frequently rolled off the rim for no tally. The game was rough and fast, with the Medford offense clicking neatly, to draw away so that the score stood 13-3 at half time.

Luman, for Medford, was almost uncanny on his short shots, taking perfect assists from his team mates, to drop the ball through to score 15 markers, high point for Medford and the game, but only one ahead of the 14 chalked up by Burdin for the Cavemen, who, obviously enough, carried the "burden" for Grants Pass.

At the end of the 3rd quarter, the score stood 23-7, but shortly after the opening of the 4th the Neanderthal offense clicked, and they rolled up 10 points to 11 for Medford before the final gun.

In the preliminary, the Medford Junior high squad defeated the highly rated Ashland Juniors, 26-17. The Ashland team is rated one of the best Junior high teams on the coast.

GOGGIN HITS 69 IN MUD TO LEAD CALIENTE FIELD

AGUA CALIENTE, Mex., Feb. 9.—(AP)—Out of the challenging ranks came Willie Goggin with a rush today to shoot his way into the lead as he posted a par-busting 69 in the mud for a 215 total at the three-quarters post of the Agua Caliente $5000 golf sweepstakes.

The tall, ruffled, 27-year-old pro of Sharp Park municipal course, San Francisco, failed, however, to turn in the pari-mutuel winning round of the day.

This privilege went to John Revolta, Milwaukee, who was sinking his putts from far and wide again today, to take a 68, three under par. He was worth the very tidy sum of $63.20 on 82 tickets on a day of such spirited betting that the "take" was almost as big as that of the first two days together—$916.

Revolta's fine disdain of the trying playing conditions on the flooded fairways aptly slow greens put him into a tie for second place with Henry Picard, Hershey, Pa., and Ky Laffoon, Chicago, at 216, one stroke back of the northern California Irishman.

The pressure of front running told on Wiffy Cox, defending champion, today. After hitting par on the first two rounds, he slipped to a sad 76 putting him in a three-way tie for seventh place.

POREDA TO FACE BAER IN BENEFIT BOUT FOR WIDOW

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 9.—(AP)—Ordered by his manager, Ancil Hoffman, to take no chances of letting condition coat him his championship, Max Baer, world's heavyweight boxing title holder, went into a short but intensive training period today for his four-round benefit fight here next Friday evening against Stanley Poreda of New Jersey.

The fight, which will see Baer's crown as Poreda's stake, providing the eastern lad can do what nobody else has done—Kayo Maxie—is the Livermore Larruper's contribution to the widow of Frankie Campbell, the boxer who died the day after taking a terrific pasting from Baer five years ago. All proceeds from the affair, except a purse for Poreda and the actual expenses of staging the fight, including Baer's, will be turned over to Mrs. Campbell.

Six ounce gloves will be used, and the bout will carry all the other earmarks of a title fight, except for the four rounds.

FISHERMEN ROUT TILLAMOOK, 36-23

ASTORIA, Ore., Feb. 9.—(AP)—Astoria high, defending state champion, bored in with avenging fury and defeated Tillamook high 36 to 23 here tonight.

FORMER GRIDIRON STARS ORGANIZE BASKETBALL QUINT

(By John Snider)

Russ Brown's Champions, a basketball squad consisting of eight of 11 members of the Medford high school football co-champions, are beginning to show rare form as far as the art of basketball playing is concerned.

Heated practice seasons are being held each day under the skillful coaching of Manager Russ Brown. Something new in basketball is about to appear on the Medford courts, or any other court so far as that is concerned, for it seems to be the idea of the Champions to revert to several of their favorite football plays in dropping the ball into the basket.

Seriously speaking, a flying wedge has been experimented with and, if it clicks in actual play as it does in practice, the superiority of the Champions will be little disputed. Fear has evidently done its work, for only four independent teams have accepted the challenge issued by the husky Champions. Games are being dickered for with Sams Valley, Phoenix and Talent, although no reply has been received as yet.

The four games scheduled are: Headquarters Company, CCC; St. Mary's high school, Butte Falls town team, and the Prospect town team.

The power and speed of this team is not to be sniffed at, for they have some of the best material turned out by the Medford high school in the last two years. Leo Ghelardi, Keith Estes, Ronald Baker, Bob Hinman, Don Stewart, Joe Pierce, Burdy Kindred and Big Bill Bates all play important roles in the lineup. Ronald Baker, 180-pound guard, both in football and basketball, suffered severe ankle injuries in practice play, but will be back in the middle of play shortly.

Fear is expressed for the large number of fouls being called on the Champions. In a practice game with one of the CCC outfits, Bob Hinman had 11 fouls chalked up against him.

COLGATE JR. LEADS BOBSLED RACERS

LAKE PLACID, N. Y., Feb. 9.—(AP)—Records for the ice-covered Mt. VanHovenberg run fell into the discard today for a second time within a week as Gilbert Colgate, Jr., of New York, former Yale university athlete, piloted his two-man bobsled into the lead in the competition to determine the United States bobsled representatives in the 1936 Olympics in Germany.

In the face of a blinding snowstorm, Colgate sent his sled down the mile and a half icy course to a new record of one minute and 55.94 seconds in the first heat and reeled off the second in one minute and 57.20 seconds, a two heat total of three minutes and 53.14 seconds.

WASHINGTON CAGEMEN RETAIN SCHOOL LEAD

Washington grade school kept the lead in the basketball race by winning another hard fought game from Roosevelt in the Roosevelt gymnasium Friday evening, 14 to 8. The Washington team, the smallest in size of the grade teams, has four straight wins and no losses to their credit.

The real surprise of the league was the victory of the Jackson team over the big Lincoln team. Jackson overcame an early Lincoln lead and nipped them out 18 to 17.

BUFFALO BILL'S COOK TO REWARD

CEMENT, Okla., Feb. 9.—(AP)—The picturesque life of William "Uncle Billy" Royce, who once cooked for Buffalo Bill Cody and hunted gold he believed Jesse James had buried, was ended today.

HONEST AID!

IT WAS LINCOLN, wasn't it, who gave us that epigram about fooling some of the people all of the time and all of the people some of the time? Times have changed. Some people, today, can't be fooled at all.

They are the ones who buy thoughtfully and spend wisely. They are guided by the most up-to-the-minute news about products, prices and values. They read the advertisements in the daily paper.

Whether you're marketing for tonight's dinner, for a refrigerator or for a home—the most reliable guides are printed right here in this paper for you.

Make it a habit to shop at home, by newspaper, before you set out. It saves time . . . saves tiresome searching . . . and it saves real money.

SPORT SLANTS
by Paul

Brother acts in sports probably never were a great rarity but just as present they seem more numerous than ever. There is hardly a champion who does not have a brother or two trying to share a bit of the limelight he attracts.

There is Max Baer and his huge young brother—Buddy. They are even touring the country together, appearing on the same ring programs. The Dean boys, Jerome and Paul—or, if you prefer the vernacular, Dizzy and Daffy—headline in baseball. Paul Waner, of the Pittsburgh Pirates, won the National league batting title last year playing alongside his younger brother, Lloyd.

Olin Dutra, the open golf champion, has a golfing brother, Mortie. There are seven Turnesa brothers, all fine golfers. Polo offers the Guest brothers, Winston and Raymond.

The three Spence boys—Walter, Wallace and Leonard—make up a great swimming trio. Milton and Walter Singer, who played football at Syracuse last fall, go most brother acts one better—they are twins.

Name any sport you will, and you can very likely dig up at least one pair of famous brothers.

One might naturally expect the "kid" brother to rise to the greater heights, having the opportunity to benefit by the experience of the elder. But such is seldom the case.

Beating the long, hard path to a sports championship seems to bring out the necessary qualities and develop them to the highest degree. The younger brother generally follows the already beaten path, it's quicker and easier.

Too often the glamour of the "pioneer" brother's success is what attracts the younger lads to the sport rather than any burning desire to excel in it.

I don't believe the brother who is second in line gets quite the thrills the first to travel enjoys. After all, it's the battle on the way up that affords most of the fun. The championship generally seems empty, once attained. The younger brother is spared much and often misses the real joy of a battle well fought.

Nothing magnifies the deeds of a champion the way time does. Perhaps that is the reason it is so difficult to match the record of his predecessor.

For color and ability, the Dean Brothers are about the leading pair. Mike Gonzalez, coach of the St. Louis Cardinals, recently expressed the opinion that Paul would never reach the heights Dizzy scaled. Mike had both in his pitching "class," so he ought to know.

Physically, Paul is every bit as well equipped as Dizzy but he cannot match him in control and baseball sense. Dizzy is the venturesome soul, Paul is content to follow his lead.

As to the future, Gonzalez thinks Dizzy will continue to set the standard for the Dean family. Paul will always remain the "kid" brother.

The Baers are much the same. Buddy hasn't the natural enthusiasm for fighting that Max enjoys. Max loves the game, and all the excitement, glamor and crowds that goes with it. It takes more than physical equipment and knowledge to lift an athlete above the crowd—it takes that vital spark, often the very thing that attracted him to the sport in the first place.
