Studio Today

"Baby Take a Bow" starring Shirley Temple, James Dunn and Claire Trevor, opens at the Studio theater today.

It's a sparkling comedy-drama that gets under way in the first few scenes and maintains a rapid tempo to the exciting finish. The story deals with the struggle for happiness and success of a young man just out of prison, a girl who marries him because she loves him, and the result of their union, an adorable baby girl who is the pride and joy of their hearts.

After an exciting sequence of events, stolen guns are recovered, the culprit captured and Shirley is the heroine of the hour with a goodly reward in prospect and the triumph of all suspicion from her guilty.

W. C. Fields in Rialto Feature

W. C. Fields, bulbous-nosed comedian, is the star of the Rialto theater's feature for today and Monday, with his own particular names, Baby LeRoy, heading the supporting cast. The story is an ideal vehicle for Fields. It shows him as the owner of a small grocery store in New Jersey whose life is made miserable by the customers, without whose trade he could loaf all day. One of his chief worries is Baby LeRoy, who can't resist the tendency to destroy everything he sees.
