

Economy Market
On East Main St.
Leased By Kusba

The Economy Meat Market at 206

East Main street has been leased to John Kusba of Ashland, succeeding George Nichols, Jr., according to announcement made by Nichols & Ashpole. The new proprietor will take possession April 15.

Nichols & Ashpole is one of southern Oregon's oldest and best known meat firms, having been in business in Medford for 30 years. C. W. ("Wig") Ashpole was formerly associated with George Nichols, Sr.

The People's Meat market at 105 West Main street will continue to be operated by Nichols & Ashpole under the management of Roy Curry. The latter has been employed by this veteran meat concern since 1910.

Efficiency in Theft SPRINGFIELD, Mo. (UP)—There's a trick to every trade and a thief who looted a department store cash register of $37.17 realized it. He carefully studied a clerk's motions in opening a complicated cash register. Then when she walked away for a few minutes, he slipped behind the counter and took the money from the drawer.

Fur Prices Up
JUNEAU, Alaska (UP)—Alaskan fur prices, far under pre-depression levels, are improved over the last several years, an auction revealed. Trappers received $7 to $9 each for mink, $15 to $18 for lynx, $18 to $23 for cross fox, up to $15 for martens, $15 to $19 for white foxes, $15 for otters, $62 for silver foxes, $12 to $15 for red foxes.

MIRKSVILLE, Mo. (UP)—Officers are tracing an organized gang of dog thieves that has been operating in northeast Missouri. Listed among the animals stolen recently were two valuable fox hounds, bird dogs andcoon hounds.
