The list follows:
W. S. Bolger, J. R. Monroe, Eu-gene Thorndike, M. N. Hogan, W. A. Gates, O. O. Alenderfer, E. C. Je-rome, C. W. Ellis, C. N. Culy, A. S. Phipps.

Brought to the determination to take immediate action by the tragic accident Saturday night on West Main street in which a 13-year-old girl received fatal injuries, Mayor girl received fatal injuries, Mayor Porter hopes that with the aid of the copps of civilians better observance of driving and safety regulations will be brought about. He pointed out that the duty of the "officers" will be to report all violators and take license numbers of cars observed to be breaking regulations. They will not be given authority to make arrests, but the system will be more in the form of a thorough check-up on the number of violations and a more comprehensive system of covering the city than is possible with the present lone traffic officer. Lack of funds prevents addition to the police force, Mayor Porter said.

He particularly urged against speeding in residential sections, but
