Magda Lupescu's Enemies Multiply; Rumanian Parties Demand Her Exile

By WADE WERNER

VIENNA (AP)—Flaming-haired Madam Lupescu, "uncrowned queen" of Rumania, is too powerful to be driven from her privileged post by the opposition of any one party, say confidential reports reaching diplomatic circles here.

The same reports indicate, however, that party lines are being forgotten in the formation of a united front to drive King Carol's charmer away.

Outspoken old Marshal Averescu, hero of the world war and long privileged to be freer with his criticism than other men in Bucharest, has repeatedly dropped remarks or written articles plainly revealing he thought the country would be better off with Madam Lupescu outside.

Politicians Plot Trouble

Juliu Maniu, pillar of the national peasant party and who was premier when Carol took the throne, also has made no secret of his opposition to the king's favorite.

Lately, moreover, not only Averescu and Maniu, but George Bratianu, leader of the dissident liberal party, has been campaigning openly against her, while other prominent politicians, less openly, have been plotting trouble for her if she dares to remain.

Maniu's attempt to deliver an anti-Lupescu speech in the chamber of deputies created a sensation in Bucharest some weeks ago.

Recently more intense excitement blazed up when residents of the capital found walls near Carol's palace and elsewhere in town plastered with manifestos demanding that the uncrowned queen abdicate her unofficial throne.

Charge 'Camarilla' Rule

Posted by joint action of Averescu's people's party and George Bratianu's dissident liberal group, the manifestos began (like Maniu's undelivered speech) by recalling that Carol's return from exile in 1930 awakened nationwide enthusiasm which, however, soon turned to disillusionment.

"Together, with strengthened forces, we must make an end of the present dangerous and shameful situation," it said.

"The weeds which are choking the throne must be uprooted. The wall which certain persons have erected between the king and the people must be torn down."

Under the "camarilla government" through which Madam Lupescu and her friends "imposed" nothing is sacred any more. Honor, friendship, sacrifice have become meaningless words in Rumania, the posters declared. "For they are of no avail when it comes to gaining the favor of the secret power which for some years has been making or breaking everything in this country."

WASHINGTON, Feb. 15.—(AP)—Senator Borah (R., Idaho) who as a young attorney prosecuted the alleged assassin of a governor of his state, said today he felt the Lindbergh kidnaping was "only partly cleared up by Hauptmann's conviction and that it was an 'inside job'."

"IT'S ALMOST A MIRACLE HOW OXYDOL SOAKS CLOTHES CLEAN . . . YET KEEPS COLORS SO FRESH AND NEW"

Says Mrs. J. H. McDuff, 312 Gilbert Street, Peoria, Illinois

"It makes my clothes snowy white with only 15 minutes to a tubful—without scrubbing or boiling. I was always afraid of fast-washing granulated soaps because I felt they were too harsh and faded colored things. Then I tried Oxydol. It's almost a miracle how Oxydol soaks clothes clean and yet keeps colors so fresh and new . . . the first really safe fast-washing soap!"

Oxydol is often called the "miracle soap of modern science." It gives thick 3-inch suds in hardest water. And does three things that other soaps have never done before. (1) Cuts washing time 25% to 40% in tub or machine. Because it loosens dirt out of clothes in 15 minutes' soaking—banishes all need for scrubbing and boiling! (2) Gets clothes 4 to 5 shades whiter than other soaps. Whiter in one washing than other granulated soaps even can do in two or more washings! (3) Yet it's utterly safe to use—colors won't fade; fabrics won't suffer! Even cotton prints and children's dainty frocks are safe. And it leaves hands soft and smooth after dishwashing, cleaning or heaviest laundry work.
