

NEWEST IN BEACH TOGS PLEASING TO EYE

This business of being a photographer is a pleasant one when the subject matter is as eye-filling as these four girls, who are wearing the latest in 1935 beach attire. The young women, unmindful of the warm sun at Miami, Fla., are, left to right: Marjorie Carrell of Miami Beach, Sylvia Smith of Santa Monica, Cal.; Margaret Wiley of Miami Beach, and Virginia King of Birmingham, Ala. (Associated Press Photo)

NAB ILLINOIS BANK BANDITS AFTER FATAL GUN BATTLES

Two of the three bandits captured after an attempt to hold up the State bank of Leonora, Ill., in which the president of the bank and the sheriff of Marshall county, Ill., were slain, are shown with the captors in the county jail at Ottawa, Ill., following a brief but exciting man-hunt in three counties. A fourth member of the gang shot himself to death as the posse closed in on a farm house in which all four had taken refuge. Back row, left to right: Deputy Sheriffs Mike Yocum, Frank Berrettini, Joseph Streamlan, Orlando Smith, Joseph Gluszyński. Front row, left to right: Fred Gerner, 30, of Rockford, Ill., one of the bandits; Chief Deputy Sheriff E. J. Pyszka; John A. Houff, 25, of Chicago, another of the bandits was wounded. (Associated Press Photo)

CHIC FOR WINTER SPORTS

The attractive bathing suit shown on the right is of red and black silk plaid taffeta with a bandeau effect. The new silk mode for golfing wear on the left is a two-piece sports frock modeled in a brown and white check material light enough for warm weather, suitable for the smartest links. (Associated Press Photos)

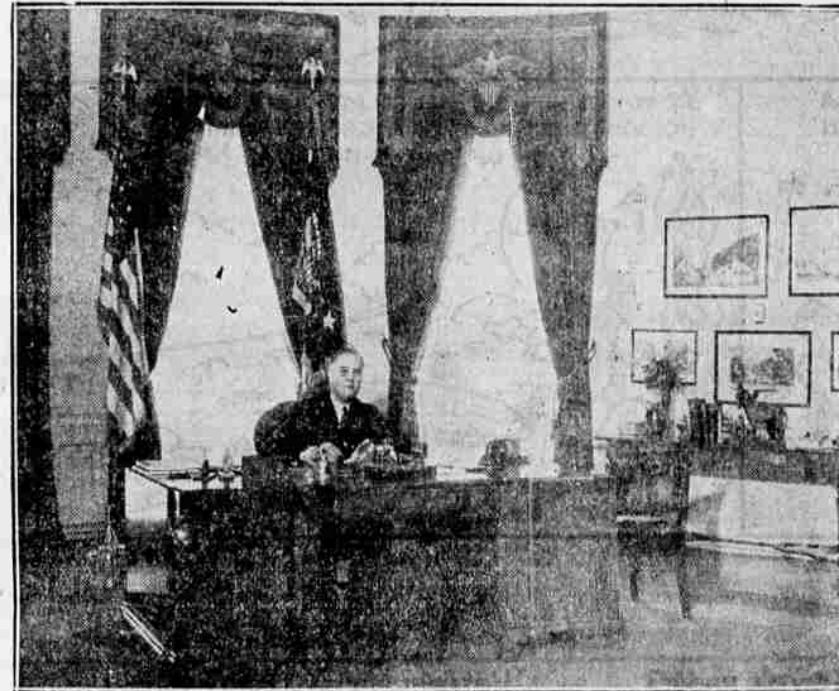

The latest in the way of coiffures is shown by Ann Sothern, blond film actress, whose tousled curls are piled high above a straight band of hair across the forehead. The ear ornament is a shooting star effect with sprays of diamonds. (Associated Press Photo)

Geraldine Ott (above) of Los Angeles, seeking a larger share in the $1,250,000 estate of the late Bertrand L. Taylor, Sr., New York and California millionaire, started action in a New York court to seek validity of her claim that she was Taylor's common law wife. He left only $10,000 of his estate to her.

PRESIDENT POSES FOR PHOTO IN NEW OFFICE

President Roosevelt posed for this new photo at his desk in the remodeled executive offices in Washington. The round shadows in the windows are Christmas wreaths showing through the drawn blinds. (Associated Press Photo)

HEIR ACCUSED IN 'TUB PARTY'

George Eastman Dryden (inset), 34-year-old heir to the Eastman camera millions, was charged with assault and battery in Chicago by two night club girls, Vera "Billy" Reed (above) and her sister, Hazel. Vera Reed said Dryden pitched her into a tub of boiling water at his apartment as the climax of a party. (Associated Press Photos)

INDIANS WAIT FOR CHOICE BITS OF BUFFALO MEAT

More than 2000 Indians from New Mexico pueblos and reservations were at Santa Fe to attend a barbecue at which thousands of pounds of buffalo were served with the trimmings. Some of the Indians are shown standing around a blazing fire awaiting food. (Associated Press Photo)

MIDGET MOTHER HAS HEALTHY CHILD

Only three feet tall and weighing 75 pounds, Mrs. Bernice Shambow, 19-year-old Longview, Wash., housewife is shown with her baby daughter. The infant weighed five pounds, 12 ounces at birth. (Associated Press Photo)

LONE MUSHROOM SMOTHERS STEAKS

Believed to be the largest mushroom grown in California, this specimen being held by Patricia Davis, weighed more than five pounds and measured 30 inches in circumference. It was more than enough for steaks for co-eds in the botany department of Santa Barbara State college. (Associated Press Photo)

BABY FARM CHARGES INVESTIGATED

E. L. Brooks, Jr., (left) and his foster-father, E. L. Brooks, Sr., are the central figures in an investigation of what the state charges was a "baby farm" near Beulah, Mich. Circuit Judge Fred S. Lamb heard witnesses in a secret inquiry. The state charged at least a score of babies have died on the farm in recent years. (Associated Press Photo)

Indicted By U. S.

A federal grand jury in San Francisco indicted William Schivo (top), Ralph Pizzo (lower) and 15 others on charges of conspiring to conceal and harbor "Baby Face" Nelson who was killed in a gun battle with U. S. agents near Chicago, Ill. (Associated Press Photos)

ACTRESS WEDS THEATRICAL AGENT

Josephine Hutchinson, film actress, and James Townsend, agent, after returning to Hollywood from a one day honeymoon. They were married in Yuma, Ariz., and had to return to their studio work. (Associated Press Photo)

MARINES FIRE SALUTE IN MEMORY OF ADMIRAL

A volley from the guns of a squad of marines marked the final tribute of the Puget Sound navy yard in Bremerton, Wash., to the former commandant, Admiral Robert E. Coontz, retired. Admiral Coontz died after several heart attacks. (Associated Press Photo)